Mr. Guery . . . No matter

That the Value of the Landed property depends on the Encouragement given to Trade – Ergo it must not be shackled – – – The State Governments M^r Willson says will be rivals of the National surely they will be more jealous of them if they have no hand in Creating them . . . [2]

M^r J Rutledge

Ancient Republicks fell by their own turbulancy [sic].

M^r Madison

No line can be drawn between the State Governments and the General Government

Wilson

Let us forgett Local and narrow distinctions. partial Evil must submitt to General good

Madison

A power in the different States to ratify State Laws, what power is this to be? an individual! a C[illegible]! a Satrapass! a Bey or Bashaw This Assembly must end in Anarchy We must consider ourselves as One whole that may apply if Our resources were common & equal [3]

Pierce Butler's Notebook from the Constitutional Convention

Are we to Enter into a Compact with Slaves--No! Are the Men of Massachusetts to put their hands in our purses – No! are the Men of Massachusetts to put their hands in Our purses – No! The Gentleman makes a Calculation of the possibility of four out voting 6. Are not the four bound by the same law Well if you take the Blacks out of the question in One way surely they ought in another this the Country will not pay in proportion to its welth [sic] the Gentleman say 3 10.th pray is not that a Compact. The Gentleman says no acct. on Blacks pray of what acct. are the [4] Number of White Inhabitants of Massachusetts to the Southern States if they cant be brought there in to defend it
