

The Life and Writings of Frederick Douglass

Dr. David Blight
Yale University

Course Description

This course probes the nature of the life, work, and thought of the nineteenth-century abolitionist, orator, and author Frederick Douglass. We will examine in depth the public and private sides of Douglass's life and his importance as a thinker and as a political activist in the great dramas of the Civil War and Reconstruction eras.

Lecture Videos

Resources

Select the Resources link for information about the primary and secondary resources, videos, and websites referred to in the course. Please note: History U participants are not required to read or purchase print materials. All quiz questions are drawn from the lectures.

Quizzes

The purpose of the 4 quizzes is to review your knowledge of the material covered in the lectures. No outside reading is required to answer the questions successfully. After watching the videos for lectures 1-3, 4-6, 7-9, and 10-12, select and complete the corresponding quiz to test your knowledge and qualify for the Certificate of Completion.

Certificate of Completion

After you finish watching all of the lectures, score an 80% or higher on each quiz, and complete the feedback survey, you will be able to download your certificate.
