THE

Author's Defence.

IS, as I remember, the Learned Scribonius, who reports, That one of his Acquaintance, devoutly making his Prayers on the behalf of a l'erson molested by Evil Spirits, received from those Evil Spirits an horrible Blow over the Face: And I may my felf expect not few or small Bufferings from Evil Spirits, for the Endeavours wherewith I am now going to encounter them. I am far from infenfible, that at this extraordinary Time of the Devils coming down in great Wrath upon us, there are too many Tongues and Hearts thereby fee on fire of Hell; that the various Opinions about the Witchcrafts which of later time have troubled us, are maintained by some with so much cloudy Fury, as if they could never be sufficiently stated, unless written in the Liquor wherewith Witches use to write their Covenants; and that he who becomes an Author at fuch a time, had need be fenced with Iron, and the Staff of a Spear. The unaccountable Frowardness, Asperity, Untreatablenels, and Inconfiltency of many Persons, every Day gives a visible Exposition of that passage, An evil spirit from the Lord came upon Saul ; and Illustration of that Story, There met him two possessed with Devils, exceeding fierce, so that no man might past by that way. To fend abroad a Book, among fuch Readers, were a very unadvifed thing, if a Man had not fuch Reasons to give, as I can bring, for such an Undertaking. Briefly, I hope it cannot be faid, They are all fo : No, I hope the Body of this People, are yet in such a Temper, as to be capable of applying their Thoughts, to make a Right Use of the stupendious and prodigious Things that are happening among us : And because I was concern'd, when I faw that no abler Hand emitted any Essays to engage the Minds of this People, in fuch holy, pious, fruitful Improvements, as God would have to be made of his amazing Dispensations now upon us. THEREFORE it is, that One of the Least among the Children of New-England, has here done, what is done. going to be exposed, lest I should in any one thing miss of doing my defigned-Service for his Glory, and for his People; but I am now somewhat comfortably affured of his favourable acceptance; and, I will not fear; what can a Satan do unto me!

Having performed something of what God required, in labouring to suit his Words unto his Works, at this Day among us, and therewithal handled a Theme that has been sometimes counted not unworthy the Pen, even of a King, it will easily be perceived, that some subordinate Ends

I have indeed fet myself to countermine the whole PLOT of the Devil, against New-England, in every Branch of it, as far as one of my darkness, can comprehend such a Work of Darkness. I may add, that I have herein also aimed at the Information and Satisfaction of Good Men in another Country, a thousand Leagues off, where I have, it may be, more, or however, more considerable Friends, than in my own: And I do what I can to have that Country, now, as well as always, in the best Terms with my own. But while I am doing these things, I have been driven a little to do something likewise for myself; I mean, by taking off the false Reports, and hard Censures about my Opinion in these Matters, the Parter's Portions which my pursuit of Peace has procured me among the Keen. My hitherto unvaried Thoughts are here published; and

In fine: For the Dogmatical part of my Discourse, I want no Defence; for the Historical part of it, I have a very Great One; the Lieutenant-Governour of New-England having perused it, has done me the Honour of giving me a Shield, under the Umbrage whereof I now dare to walk abroad.

Reverend and Dear SIR,

TOU very much gratify'd me, as well as put a kind Respect upon me, when you put into my hands, your elaborate and most fea-Sonable Discourse, entituled, The Wonders of the Invisible World. And having now peruled fo fruitful and happy a Composure, upon such a Subject, at this functure of Time; and considering the place that I hold in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, still labouring and proceeding in the Trial of the Persons accused and convicted for Witchcraft, I find that I am more nearly and highly concerned than as a meer ordinary Reader, to express my Obligation and Thankfulness to you for fo great Pains; and cannot but bold myself many ways bound, even to the utmost of what is proper f r me, in my present publick Capacity, to declare my fingular Approbation thereof. Such is your Design, most plainly expressed throughout the whole; such your Zeal for God, your Enmity to Satan and his Kingdom, your Faithfulness and Compassion to this poor People; such the Vigour, but yet great Temper of your Spirit; Such your Instruction and Counsel, your Care of Truth, your Wisdom and Dexterity in allaying and moderating that among us, which needs it; Such your clear discerning of Divine Providences and Periods, now running on apace towards their Glorious Islues in the World; and finally, such your good News of The Shortness of the Devils Time, that all Good Men must needs desire, the making of this your Discourse publick to the World; and will greatly rejoyce, that the Spirit of the Lord bas thus enabled you to lift up a Standard against the Infernal Enemy, that hath been coming in like a Flood upon us. I do therefore make it my particular and earnest Request unto you, that as soon as may be, you will commit the same unto the Press accordingly. I am,

Your affured Friend,

WILLIAM STOUGHTON.

I Live by Neighbours that force me to produce these undeserved Lines. But now, as when Mr. Wilson beholding a great Muster of Souldiers, had it by a Gentleman then present, said unto him, Sir, I'll tell you a great Thing: Here is a mighty Body of People; and there is not Seven of them all, but what loves Mr. Wilson. That gracious Man presently and pleasantly repiv'd: Sir, I'll tell you as good a thing as that; here is a mighty Body of People, and there is not so much as One among them all, but Mr. Wilson loves him. Somewhat so: 'I'is possible, that among this Body of People, there may be sew that love the Writer of this Book; but give me leave to boast so far, there is not one among all this Body of People, whom this Mather would not study to serve, as well as to love. With such a Spirit of Love, is the Book now before us written: I appeal to all this World; and it this World will deny me the Right of acknowledging so much, I appeal to the other, that it is not written with an Evil Spirit: for which cause, I shall not wonder, if Evil Spirits be exasperated by what is written, as the Sadduces doubtless were with what was discoursed in the Days of our Saviour. I only demand the Justice, that others read it, with the same Spirit wherewith I writ it.

ENCHANTMENTS

ENCOUNTER'D.

6 I. T was as long ago, as the Year 1637. that a Faithful Minffler of the Church of England, whose Name was Mr. Edward Symons, did in a Sermon afterwards Printed, thus express himself; 'At New-England 'now the Sun of Comfort begins to appear, and the glorious Day-Star to show it felf; - Sed Venient Annis Sacula Seris, there will come Times in after Ages, when the Clouds will over-fradow and darken the Sky there. Many now promise to themselves nothing but successive Happiness there, which for a time through God's Mercy they may enjoy; and I pray God, they may a long time; but in this World there is no Happiness perpetual. An Observation, or I had almost said, an Inspiration, very dismally now verify'd upon us! It has been affirm'd by some who best knew New-England, That the World will do New-England a great piece of Injustice, if it acknowledge not a measure of Religion, Loyalty, Honesty and Industry, in the People there, beyond what is to be found with any other People for the Number of them. When I did a few years ago, publish a Book, which mentioned a few memorable Witchcrafts, committed in this Country; the excellent Baxter, graced the Second Edition of that Book, with a kind Preface, wherein he fees cause to say, If any are Scandalized, that New-England, a place of as serious Piety, as any I can hear of, under Heaven, should be troubled so much with Witches; I think, 'tis no wonder: Where will the Devil show most Malice, but where he is bated, and bateth most: And I hope, the Country will still deserve and answer the Charity so expressed by that Reverend Man of God. Whoseever travels over this Wilderness, will see it richly bespangled with Evangelical Churches, whose Pastors are holy, able, and painful Overseers of their Flocks, Hvely Preachers, and vertuous Livers; and fuch as in their feveral Neighbourly Affociations, have had their Meetings whereat Ecclefiaffical Matters of common, Concernment are confidered : Charebes, whose Communicants have been seriously examined about their Experiences of Regeneration, as well as about their Knowledge, and Belief, and blameless Conversation, before their admission to the Sacred Communion; although others of less but hopeful Attainments in Christianity are not ordinarily deny'd Bapcisin for themselves and theirs; Churches, which are thye of using any thing in the Worthip of God, for which they cannot fee a Warrant of God; but with whom yet the Names of Congregational. Prisbyterian, Episcopalian, or Antipedobaptist, are swallowed up in that of Christian; Persons of all those Persivations being taken into our Fellowship, when visible Goodline's has recommended them: Churches, which usually do within themselves manage their own Discipline, under the Conduct of their Elders; but yet call in the help of Synods upon Emergencies, or Aggrievances: Charches, Laftly, wherein Multitudes are growing ripe for Heaven every day; and as fast as these are taken off, others are daily rising up. And by the Presence and Power of the Divine Institutions thus maintained in the Country. We are still so happy, that I suppose there is no Land in the Universe more free from the debauching, and the debasing Vices of Ungodliness. The Body of the People are hitherto fo disposed, that Swearing, Sabbathbreaking, Whoring, Drunbenness, and the like, do not make a Gentleman, but a Monfter, or a Goblin, in the vulgar Estimation. All this notwithstanding, we must humbly confess to our God, that we are miserably degenerated from the first Love of our Predecessors; however we boast our selves a little, when Men would go to trample upon us, and we venture to fay, Wherein foever any is bold (we freat foolibly) we are bold a'f. The first Planters of thele Colonies were a chosen Generation of Men, who were first so pure, as to disrelish many things which they thought wanted Reformation elsewhere; and yet withal fo peaceable, that they embraced a voluntary Exile in a fqualid, horrid, American Defart, rather than to live in Contentions with their Brethren. Those good Men imagined that they should leave their Posterity in a place, where they should never see the Igroads of Profanity, or Superstition: And a famous Perfon returning heace, could in a Sermon before the Parliament, profess, I have now been feven Tears in a Country, where I never Jaw one Man drunk, or heard one Oath fworn, or beheld one Beggar in the Streets all the while. Such great Persons as Badaus, and others, who mistook Sir Thomas Moor's UTOPIA; for a Country really existent, and stirr'd up some Divines charitably to undertake aVoyage thither, might now have certainly found a Truth in their Mistake; New-England was a true Utopia. But, alas, the Children and Servants of those old Planters must needs afford many, degenerate Plants, and there is now rifen up a Number of People, otherwise inclined than our Joshua's, and the Elders that out-liv'd them. Those two things our holy Progenitors, and our happy Advantages make Omissions of Duty, and such Spiritual Disorders as the whole World abroad is overwhelmed with, to be as provoking in us, as the most flagitious Wickednesses committed in other places; and the Ministers of God are accordingly severe in their Testimonies: But in short, those Interests of the Gospel, which were the Errand of our Fathers into these Ends of the Earth, have been too much neglected and postponed, and the Attainments of an handsome Education, have been too much undervalued, by Multitudes that have not fallen into Exorbitances of Wickedness; and fome, especially of our young Ones, when they have got abroad from under the Restraints here laid upon them, have become extravagantly and abominably Vicious. Hence 'cis, that the Happine's of New-England has been but for a time, as it was foretold, and not for a long time, as has been defir'd for us. A Variety of Calamity has long follow'd this Plantation; and we have all the Reason imaginable to ascribe it unto the Rebuke of Heaven upon us for our manifold Apostasies; we make no right use of our Disasters : If we do not, Remember woence we are fallen, and repent, and do the first Works. But yet our Afflictions may come under a further Confideration with us : There is a further Cause of our Afflictions, whose due must be given him.

§ II. The New-Englanders are a People of God fettled in those, which were once the Devil's Territories; and it may eafily be supposed that the Devil was exceedingly diffurbed, when he perceived fuch a People here accomplishing the Promise of old made unto our Bleffed Jesus, That He hould have the Utmoit parts of the Earth for his Possession. There was not a greater Uproar among the Ephelians, when the Gospel was first brought among them, than there was among, The Powers of the Air (after whom those Ephelians walked) when first the Silver Trampets of the Gospel here made the Joyful sound. The Devil thus Irritated, immediately try'd all forts of Methods to overturn this poor Plantation : and fo much of the Church, as was Fled into this Wilderness, immediately found, The Sergent cast out of his Mouth a Flood for the carrying of it away. I believe, that never were more Satanical Devices used for the Unsetting of any People under the Sun, than what have been Employ'd for the Extirpation of the Vine which God has here Planted, Casting out the Heathen, and preparing a Room before it, and caufing it to take deep Root, and fill the Land, fo that it fent its Boughs unto the Atlantic Sea Eastward, and its Branches unto the Connecticut River Westward, and the Hills were covered with the Shadow thereof. But, All those Attempts of Hell, have hitherto been Abortive, many an Ebeneger has been Erected unto the Praise of God, by His Poor People here; and. Having obtained Help from God, we continue to this Day. Wherefore the Devil is now making one Attempt more upon us; an Attempt more Difficult, more Surprizing, more mari'd with unintelligible Circumftances than any that we have hitherto Encountred; an Attempt to Critical, that if we get well through, we shall foon Enjoy Haleyon Days with all the Vultures of Hell Trodden under our Feet. He has wanted his Incarnate Legions to Perfecute us, as the People of God have in the other Hemisphere been Persecuted: he has therefore drawn forth his more Spiritual ones to make an Attacque upon us. We have been advifed by some Credible Christians yet alive, that a Malefactor, accused of Witchcraft as well as Murder, and Executed in this place more than Forty Years. ago, did then give Notice of, An Horrible P LOT against the Country by WITCHCRAFT, and a Foundation of WITCHCRAFT then laid, which if it were not feasonably discovered, would probably Blow up, and pulldown all the Churches in the Country. And we have now with Hortor feen the Discovery of such a Witchcraft! An Army of Devits is horribly broke in upon the place which is the Center, and after a fort, the First-born of our English. Settlements: and the Houses of the Good People there are fill'd with the doleful Shrieks of their Children and Servants, Tormented by Invisible Hands, with Tortures altogether preternatural. After the Michiefs there Endeavoured, and fince in part Conquered, the terrible Plague, of Evil Angels, hath made its Progress into some other places, where other Persons have been in like manner Diabolically handled. These our poor Afflicted Neighbours, quickly after they become Infelted and Infelted with these Damons, arrive to a Capacity of Discerning those which they conceive the Shapes of their Troublers; and notwithstanding the Great and Just Suspicion, that the Damons might Impose the Shapes. of Innocent Persons in their Spectral Exhibitions upon the Sufferers, (which may perhaps prove no fmall part of the Witch-Plot in the iffue) yet many of the Persons thus Represented, being Examined, several of them have been Convicted of a very Damnable witcheraft: yea, more than One Twenty have. Confessed, that they have Signed unto a Book, which the Devil show'd them, and Engaged in his Hellish Defign of Bewitching, and Ruining our Land. We know not, at least I know not, how far the Delassons of Satan may be Interwoven into some Circumstances of the Confessions; but one would think, all the Rules of Understanding Humane Affairs are at an end, if after so many most Voluntary Harmonious Confessions, made by Intelligent Persons of all Ages, in fundry Towns, at feveral Times, we must not Believe the main strakes wherein those Confessions all agree: especially when we have a thousand preternatural Things every day before our eyes, wherein the Confessors do acknowledge their Concernment, and give Demonstration of their being to Concerned. If the Devils now can firike the minds of men with any Paifons of to fine a Compoficion and Operation, that fcores of Innocent People shall Unite, in Confissions of a Crime, which we fee actually committed, it is a thing prodigious, beyond the Wonders of the former Ages, and it threatens no less than a fort of a Disfolution upon the World. Now, by these Confessions 'tis Agreed, That the Devil has made a dreadful Knot of Witches in the Country, and by the help of Witches has dreadfully increased that Knot: That these Witches have driven a Trade of Commissioning their Confederate Spirits, to do all forts of Mischiels to the Neighbours, whereupon there have enfued fuch Mifehievous confequences upon the Bodies and Estates of the Neighbourhood, as could not otherwise be accounted for : yea, That at prodigious Witch-Meetings, the Wretches have proceeded fo far, as to Concert and Confult the Methods of Rooting out the Christian Religion from this Country, and setting up instead of it, perhaps a more groß Diaboleim, than ever the World faw before. And yet it will be a thing little short of miracle, if in so spread a Business as this, the Devil should not get in some of his Juggles, to confound the Discovery of all the rest.

S. III. Doubtless, the Thoughts of many will receive a great Scandal against New-England, from the Number of Persons that have been Accused, or Suspected, for Witcheraft, in this Country: But it were easie to offer many things, that may Answer and Abate the Scandal. If the Holy God should any where permit the Devils to hook two or three wicked Scholars into Witcheraft, and then by their Affiftance to Range with their Poisonous Infinuations among Ignorant, Envious, Discontented People, till they have cunningly decoy'd them into some sudden Act, whereby the Toyls of Hell shall be perhaps inextricably cast over them: what Country in the World would not afford Witches, numerous to a Prodigy? Accordingly, The Kingdoms of Sweden, Denmark, Scotland, yea, and England it felf, as well as the Province of New-England, have had their Storms of Witchcrafts breaking upon them, which have made most Lamentable Devassations: which also I wish, may be The Last. And it is not uncasie to be imagined, That God has not brought out all the Witcherafts in many other Lands with such a speedy, dreadful, destroying Jealeusie, as burns forth upon such High Treasons, committed here in A Land of Uprightnes: Transgressors may more quickly here than elsewhere become a Prey to the Vengeance of Him, Who has Eyes like a Flame of Fire, and, who walks in the midit of the Golden Candleflicks. Moreover, There are many parts of the World, who if they do upon this Occasion infult over this People of God, need only to be told the Story of what happened at Loim, in the Dutchy of Galic, where a Popith Curate having ineffectually try'd many Charms to Ejeft the Devil out of a Damiel there poffeffed, he puffionately bid the Devil come out of her into himfelf; but the Devil unswered him, Quid mini Opus, eft zum tentare, quem Novisimo die, Jure Optimo fum poffeffurus? That is, What need I meddle with one whom I am fure to have, and held at the Last-day as my own for ever!

But befides all this, give me leave to add, it is to be hoped, That amore the Perions reprefented by the Spellers which now afflict our Neighbours, there will be found fone that never explicitly contracted with any of the Evil Angels. The Witches have not only intimated, but some of them acknowledged. That they have plotted the Representations of Innocent Persons, to cover and shelter themselves in their Witchcrafts; now, altho' our good God has hitherto generally preferved us from the Abuse therein design'd by the Devils for us, yet who of us can exactly flate, How far our God may for our Chaftisement permit the Dewil to proceed in Juch an Abufe? It was the Refult of a Discourse, larely held at a Meeting of some very Pious and Learned Ministers among us, That the Devils may fametimes have a permission to Represent an Innocent Person, as Tormenting such as are under Diabolical Molestations : But that such things are Rave and Extraordinary; effecially when such matters come before Civil Judicature. The Opinion expressed with so much Caudion and Judgment, seems to be the prevailing Sense of many others, who are men Eminently Cautious and Judicious; and have both Argument and History to Countenance them in it. It is Rare and Extraordinary, for an Honest Naboth to have his Life it self Sworn away by two Children of Belial, and yet no Infringement hereby made on the Rectoral Righteousness of our Eternal Soveraign, whose Judgments are a Great Deep, and who gives none Account of His matters. Thus, although the Appearance of Innocent Perfons in Spectral Exhibitions afflicting the Neighbour hood, be a thing Rare and Extraordinary; yet who can be fure, that the great Beliat of Hell must needs be always Toked up from this piece of Mischies? The best man that ever lived has been called a Witch: and why may not this too u'ual and unhappy Symptom of A Witch, even a Spectral Representation, befall a person that shall be none of the worst? Is it not possible? The Laplanders will tell us 'cls possible: for Persons to be unwittingly attended with officious Demons, bequeached unto them, and impos'd upon them, by Relations that have been Wisches. Query, alfo, Whether at a Time, when the Devil with his Witches are engag'd in a War upon a people, some certain steps of ours, in such a War, may not be follow'd with our appearing fo and fo for a while among them in the Visions of our afflicted Fortorns! And, Who can certainly say, what other Degrees or Methods of finning, befides that of a Diabolical Compall, may give the Devils advantage to act in the Shape of them that have miscarried? Besides what may happen for a while, to try the Patience of the Vertuous. May not fome that have been ready upon feeble grounds ancharitably to Centure and Reproach other people, be punished for it by Spillres for a while exposing them to Centure and Reproach? And furthermore, I pray, that it may be confidered, Whether a World of Magical Tricks often used in the World, may not infenfibly oblige Devils to wait upon the Superflittous Ufers of them. A Witty Writer against Sudducifin has this Observation, That persons who never made any express Contract with Appliate Spirits, yet may Act strange Things by Diabotic b Aids, which they procure by the use of those wicked Forms and Arts, that the Devil first imparted onto his Confederates. And he adds, We bear not but the Laws of the Darl-Kingdom may Enj yn a parsicular Attendance woon off those that praffice their Mysteries, whether they know them to be theirs or no Some of them that have been cry'd out upon a imploying Evil Spirits to hart our Land, have been known to be most bloody Fortant-Tilleris and some of them have confessed. That when they told Portunes, they would pretend the Rules of Chiromancy and the like Ignhrant Sciences, but indeed they had no Rule (they faid) but this, The things were then Darted into their minds. Darted! Ye Wretches; By whom, I pray? Surely by none but the Devils; who, tho' perhaps they did not exactly Foreknow all the thus Predicted Contingencies; yet having once Forstold them, they flood bound in Honour now to use their Interest, which alas, in This World, is very great, for the Accomplishment of their own Prediftions. There are others, that have used most wicked sergeries to gratifie their unlawful Curioficies, or to prevent Inconveniencies in Man and Beaft; Sorceries, which I will not Name, left I should by Naming, Teach them. Now, some Devil is evermore Invited into the Service of the Person that shall Practise these Witcherafts; and if they have gone on Impenitorily in these Communions with any Devil, the Devil may perhaps become at last a Familiar to them, and so affume their Livery, that they cannot shake him off in any way, but that One, which I would most heartily prescribe unto them, Namely, That of a deep and long Repentance. Should these Impieties have been committed in such a place as New-England, for my part I should not wonder, if when Devils are Expofing the Groffer Witches among us, God permit them to bring in these Leffer ones with the reft for their perpetual Humiliation. In the Iffue therefore, may it not be found, that New-England is not fo flock'd with Rattle Snakes, as was Enchantments Encounter D.

& IV. But I do not believe, that the progress of Witchcraft among us, is all the Plot which the Devil is managing in the Witcherest now upon us. It is judged, That the Devil rais'd the Storm, whereof we read in the Eighth Chapter of Matthew, on purpose to over-set the little Vessel wherein the Disciples of Our Lord were Embarqued with Bim. And it may be fear'd, that in the Horrible Tempest which is now upon ourselves, the design of the Devil is to fink that Happy Settlement of Government, wherewith Almightyr God has graciously enclined Their Majefties to favour us. We are bleffed with a GOVERNOUR. than whom no man can be more willing to ferve Their Majesties, or this their Province: He is continually venturing his All to do it: and were not the Interests of his Prince dearer to him than his own, he could not but soon be weary of the Helm, whereat he fits. We are under the Influence of a LIEUTENANT GOVERNOUR, who not only by being admirably accomplished both with Natural and Acquired Endowments, is fitted for the Service of Their Majeffles. but also with an unsported Fidelity applies himself to that Service. Our COUNCELLOURS are some of our most Eminent Persons, and as Loval Subjects to the Crown, as hearty lovers of their Country. Our Constitution also is attended with fingular Priviledges; All which Things are by the Devil exceedingly Enty'd unto us. And the Devil will doubtless take this occasion for the raifing of such complaints and clamours, as may be of pernicious consequence unto some part of our present Settlement, if he can so far Impole. But that which most of all Threatens us, in our present Circumstances, is the Missinderstanding, and so the Animosity, whereinto the Witcherast now Raging. has Enchanted us. The Embroiling, first, of our Spirits, and then of our Affairs, is evidently as confiderable a Branch of the Hellish Intrigue which now vexes us as any one Thing whatfoever. The Devil has made us like a Tropbled Sea, and the Mire and Mud begins now also to heave up apace. Even Good and Wife M-n fuffer themselves to fall into their Paraxysms; and the Shake which the Devil Is now giving us, fetches up the Dirt which before lay still at the bottom of our finful Hearts. If we allow the Mad Dogs of Hell to poyfon us by biting us, we shall imagine that we see nothing but such things about us, and like such things fly upon all that we fee. Were it not for what is IN US, for my part, I should not fear a thousand Legions of Devils: 'tis by our Quarrels that we spoil our Prayers; and if our humble, zealous, and united Prayers are once hindred : Alas, the Philiftines of Hell have cut our Locks for us ; they will than blind us, mock us, ruine us: In truth, I cannot altogether b'ame it, if People are a little transported, when they conceive all the secular Interests of themselves and their Families at the Stake; and yet at the fight of these Heartburnings, I cannot forbear the Exclamation of the Sweet-spirited Austin, in his Pacificatory Epistle to Ferom, on the Contest with Ruffin, O mifera & miferanda Conditio! O Condition, truly miscrably! But what shall be done to cure these Distractions? It is wonderfully necessary, that some healing Attempts be made at this time: And I must needs confess (if I may speak so much) like a Nazianzen, I am fo defirous of a frare in them, that if, being thrown overboard, were needful to allay the Storm, I should think Dying, a Trifle to be undergone, for fo great a Bleffedness.

§ V. I would most importunately in the first place, entreat every Man to maintain an holy Jealoufie over his own Soul at this time, and think; May not the Devil make me, though ignorantly and unwillingly, to be an Inftrument of doing something that he would have to be done? For my part, I freely own my Suspicion, left something of Enchantment, have reach'd more Persons and Spirits among us, than we are well aware of. But then, let us more generally agree to maintain a kind Opinion one of another. That Charity without which, even our giving our Bodies to be burned would profit nothing, uses to proceed by this Rule ; It is kind, it is not easily provok'd, it thinks no Evil, it believes all things, hopes all things. But if we difregard this Rule of Charley, we shall indeed give our Body Politick to be burned. I have heard it affirmed, That in the late great Flood upou Connocticut, those Creatures which could not but have quarrelled at another time, yet now being driven together very agreeably flood by one another. I am fure we shall be worse than Brutes if we fly upon one another at a time when the Floods of Bellal make us afraid. On the one fide; [Alas, my Pen, must thou write the word, Side in the Bufineis?] There are very worthy Men, who having been call'd by God, when and where this Witchcraft first appeared upon the Stage to encounter it, are earnefily defirous to have it fifted unto the bottom of it. And I pray, which of us all that should live under the continual impressions of the Tortures, Outcries, and Havocks which Devils confessedly Commissioned by Witches make among their diffressed Neighbours, would not have a Biass that way beyond other Men? Perfons this way disposed have been Men eminent for Wisdom and Vertue, and Men acted by a noble Principle of Conscience: Had not Conscience (of Duty to God) prevailed above other Considerations with them, they would not for all they are worth in the World have medled in this Thorny bufiness. Have there been any disputed Methods used in discovering the Works of Darkness? It may be none but what have had great Presedents in other parts of the World; which may, though not altogether justifie, yet much alleviate a Mistake in us if there should happen to be found any such miffake in fo dark a Matter. They have done what they have done, with multiplied Addresses to God for his Guidance, and have not been insensible how B 2 much much they have exposed themselves in what they have done. Yea, they would gladly contrive and receive an expedient, how the shedding of Blood, might be spared, by the Recovery of Witches, not gone beyond the Reach of Pardon. And after all, they invite all good Men, in Terms to this purpose, " Be-'ing amazed at the Number and Quality of those accored of late, we do not 'know but Satan by his Wiles may have enwrapped some innocent Persons; and therefore should earnestly and humbly defire the most Critical Enquiry ' upon the place, to find out the Falacy; that there may be none of the Ser-'vants of the Lord, with the Worshippers of Baal. I may also add, That whereas, if once a Witch do ingeniously confess among us, no more Spillres do in their Shapes after this, trouble the Victorge; if any guilty Creatures will accordingly to so good purpose confess their Crime to any Minister of God, and get out of the Spare of the Devil, as no Minister will discover such a Confeiencious Confession, so I believe none in the Authority will prefs him to discover it; but rejoye'd in a Soul fav'd from Death. On the other fide [if f must again use the word Side, which yet I hope to live to blot out] there are very worthy Men, who are not a little diffitisfied at the Proceedings in the Profecution of this Witchcraft. And why? Not because they would have any fuch abominable thing, defended from the Strokes of Impartial Inflice. No, those Reverend Persons who gave in this Advice unto the Honourable Gouncil; 'That Prefumptions, whereupon Persons may be Com-' mirced, and much more Convictions, whereupon Perfons may be Condemned, 'as suilty of Wircherafts, ought certainly to be more confiderable, than bare-" ly the Acoused Persons being represented by a Spittre unto the Afflicted; Nor * are Akeracions made in the Sufferers, by a Look or Touch of the Accused, to be el'eemed an infallible Evidence of Guilt; but frequently liable to be 'abused by the Devils Legerdemairs: I fay, those very Men of God most conferentiously Subjoined this Article to that Advice,— Nevertheless we cannot but humbly recommend unto the Government, the speedy and vigorous Profecusion of such as have rendred themselves Conoxious; according to the best ' Directions given in the Laws of God, and the wholfome Starutes of the " English Nation for the Detection of Witchcraft. Only 'tis a most commendable Cauciousvels, in those gracious Men, to be very thye left the Devil ger so far into our Faith, as that for the fake of many Truths which we find he tells us, we come at length to believe any Lyes, wherewith he may abofe us: whereupon, what a Defolation of Names would foon enfue, befides a thousand other pernicious Confequences? and lest there should be any such Principles taken up. as when put into Practice must unavoidably cause the Righteous to perish with the Wicked; or procure the Bloodshed of any Persons, like the Gibtonitis, whom some learned Men suppose to be under a salse Notion of Witches, by San! exterminated.

They would have all due steps taken for the Extinction of Witches; but they would fain have them to be fure ones; nor is it from any thing, but the real and hearty goodpess of such Men, that they are loth to surmise ill of other Men, till there be the fullest Evidence for the furmiles. As for the Honourable Judges that have been hitherto in the Commission, they are above my Confideration: wherefore I will only fay thus much of them, That such of them as I have the Honour of a Personal Acquaintance with, are Men of an excellent Spirit; and as at first they went about the work for which they were Commission'd, with a very grent aversion, so they have still been under Heart-breaking Sollicitudes, how they might thereta best serve both God and Man? In fine, Have there been faults on any fide fallen into? Surely, they have at worst been but the faults of a well-meaning Ignorance. On every fide then, why should not we endeavour with amicable Correspondencies, to help one another out of the Snares wherein the Devil would involve us? To wrangle the Devil our of the Country, will be truly a New Experiment: Alas! we are not aware of the Devil, if we do not think, that he aims at inflaming us one against another; and shall we suffer our felves to be Devil-ridden? or by any unadvifableness contribute unto the Widening of our Breaches?

To fay no more, there is a published and credible Relation; which effirms, That very lately in a past of England, where some of the Neighborshood were quarrelling, a Raven from the Top of a Tree very articulately and mosecountably cry'd out, Read the Third of the Coloffians and the Fifteenth ! Were I my felf to chuse what fort of Bird I would be transformed into, I would fay, O that I had mings like a Dove! Nevertheless, I will for once do the Office, which as it feems, Heaven fent that Raves upon ; even to beg, That the Peace of God may Kule in our Hearts.

S VI. 'Tis necessary that we unite in everything: but there are especially two Things wherein our Union must carry us along together. We are to unite in our Endeavours to deliver our diffressed Neighbours, from the horrible Annoyances and Moleflations with which a dreadful Witchcraft is now perfecuting of them. To have an hand in any thing, that may stiffe or obstruct a Regular Detection of that Withcraft, is what we may well with an holy fear avoid. Their Majesties good Subjects must not every day be torn to pieces by horrid Witches, and those bloody Felons, be lest wholly unprosecuted. The Witchcraft is a bufiness that will not be sham'd, without plunging us into fore Plagues, and of long continuance. But then we are to unite in such Methods for this deliverance, as may be unquestionably fafe, lest the latter end be morfe than the beginning. And here, what shall I say? I will wensure to say thus much, That we are fafe, when we make just as much use of all Advice from the invisible World, as God sends it for. It is a fase Principle, That when God Almighty permits any Spirits from the unfeen Regions, to vifit us with furprizing Informarions, there is then fomething to be enquired after; we are then to enquire of one another, What Cause there is for such things? The peculiar Government of God, over the unbodied Intelligences, is a fufficient Foundation for this Principle. When there has been a Murder committed, an Apparition of the flain Party accusing of any Man, althor such Apparitions have oftner spoke true than falle, is not enough to Convict the Man as guilty of that Murder; but yet it is a sufficient occasion for Magistrates to make a particular Enquiry, whether fuch a Man have afforded any ground for fuch an Acculation. Even to a Spectre exactly resembling such or such a Person, when the Neighbourhood are to mented by fuch Spectres, may reasonably make Magistrates inquisitive whether the Person so represented have done or faid any thing that may argue their confederacy with Evil Spirits, altho' it may be de effive enough in point of Conviction; especially at a time, when 'tis possible, some over-powerful Conjurer may have got the shill of thus exhibiting the Shapes of all forts of Perfons, on purpose to flop the Profecution of the Wretches, whom due Enquiries thus provoked, might have made obnoxious unto Justice.

Quere, Whether If God would have us to proceed any further than bare Exquiry, upon what Beports there may come against any Man, from the World of Spirits, he will not by his Providence at the same time have brought into our hands, these more evident and sensible things, whereupon a man is to be esteemed a Criminal. But I will venture to fay this further, that it will be fafe to account the Names as well as the Lives of our Neighbors; two confiderable things to be brought under a Judicial Process, until it be found by Humane Observations that the Peace of Mankind is thereby diffurbed. We are Humane Creatures, and we are fafe while we fay, they must be Humane Witnesses, who also have in the particular Act of Seeing, or Hearing, which enables them to be Witneffes, had no more than Humane Affiftances, that are to turn the Scale when Laws are to be executed. And upon this Head I will further add: A wife and a just Magiftrate, may fo far give way to a common Stream of Diffatisfaction, as to forbear acting up to the heighth of his own Perfu afion, about what may be judged convictive of a Crime, whose Nature shall be so abstruse and obscure, as to raise much Disputation. Tho' he may not do what he should leave undone, yet he may leave undone fomething that else he could do, when the Publick Safety makes an Exigency.

§ VII. I was going to make one Venture more; that is, to offer some safe Rules, for the finding out of the Witches, which are at this day our accurred Troublers : but this were a Venture too Presumptaons and Icarian for me to make; I leave that unto those Excellent and Judicious Persons, with whom I am not worthy to be numbred: All that I shall do, shall be to lay before my Readers, a brief Synopsis of what has been written on that Subject, by a Triumvirate of as Eminent Persons as have ever handled it. I will begin with,

An ABSTRACT of Mr. PERKINS's Way for the Discovery of WITCHES.

1 Here are Presumptions, which do at least probably and conjecturally note I one to be a Witch. Thefe give occasion to Examine, yet they are no fufficient Caufes of Conviction. II. If any Man or Woman be notoriously defamed for a Witch, this yields a strong Suspition. Tet the Judge ought carefully to look, that the Report be made by Men of Honefty and Credit. III. If a Fellow-Witch, or Magician, give Testimony of any Person to be a Witch; this indeed is not sufficient for Condemnation; but it is a fit Presumption to caufe a firait Examin ation. - IV. If after Curfing their follow Death, or at least fome mifchief : for Witches are mont to practife their mischievous Facts, by Cursing and Banning : This also is a fufficient matter of Examination, tho' not of Conviction.

V. If after Eumity, Quarrelling, or Threatning, a prefent mifchief does follow ; -that alfo is a great Presumption.

vant, the Familiar Friend, near Neighbor, or old Companion, of a known and convicted Witch; this may be libewife a Presumption; for Witchcraft is an Art that may be learned, and conveyed from man to man. VII. Some add this for a Presumption : If the Party suspected be found to have

VI. If the Party suspected be the Son or Daughter, the man-servant or maid-fer-

the Devil's mark; for it is commonly thought, when the Devil makes his Covenant with them, he alwaies leaves his mark behind them, whereby he knows them for bis own : - a mark whereaf no evident Region in Nature can be given.

VIII. Laftly, If the party examined be Unconftant, or contrary to himfelf, in hie deliberate Aufwers, it argueth a Guilly Conscience, which stops the freedom of theterance. And yet there are causes of Astonishment, which may befal the Good, an well as the Bad.

IX. But then there is a Conviction, discovering the Witch, which must proceed from just and sufficient proofs, and not from bare presumptions.

X. Scratching of the suspected party, and Recovery thereupon, with several other Such weak Proofs; as allo, the fleeting of the Capetied Party, thrown upon the Weter ; thefe Proofs are fo far from being fufficient, that fome of them are, after a fort, practices of Witchcraft.

XI. The Testimony of Some Wiggard, tho offering to hew the Witches Face is a Glafs : This, I grant, may be a good Presumption, to cause a firait Examination ; but a sufficient Proof of Conviction it cannot be. If the Devil tell the Grand Fury that the ferson in question is a Witch, and offers withal to confirm the same by Oath, should the Inquest receive his Oath or Accusation to condemn the man? Affuredly. no. And yet, that is as much as the Testimony of another Wizzard, who only by the Devil's help reveals the Witch.

XII. If a man, being dangeroufly fick, and like to dye, upon Suspicion, will. tabe it on his Death, that fuch a one hath bewirched bim, it is an Allegation of the Same nature, which may move the Judge to examine the Party, but it is of no moment for Conviction.

XIII. Among the sufficient means of Conviction, the first is, the free and voluntary Confession of the Crime, made by the party suspected and accused. after Examination. I fay not, that a bare Confession is sufficient, but a Confession after due Examination, taken upon pregnant prejumptions. What needs now more witneß or further Enquiry

XIV. There is a second sufficient Conviction, by the Testimony of two Witnesses, of good and honest Report, avouching before the Magistrate, upon their own Knowledge, thefe two things : either that the party accused bath made a League with the Devil, or bath done fome known practice of witchcraft. And, all Arguments that do necessarily prove either of these, bring brought by two sufficient Witnesses, are of force fully to convince the party lufpetted.

XV. If it can be proved, that the party suspetted bath called upon the Devil, or defired his Help, this is a pregnant proof of a League formerly made between

XVI. If it can be proved, that the party bath entertained a Familiar Spirit, and had Conference with it, in the libenefs of some visible Creatures ; bere is Evidence of witcocraft.

XVII. If the witneffes affirm upon Oath, that the Sufpetted person bath done any action or work which necessarily infers a Covenant made, as, that he hath used En-

Take next the Sum of Mr. Gaules Judgment about the Detection of Wireles. 1. Some Tokens for the Trial of Witches, are altogether unwarrantable. Such ' are the old Paganish Sign, the Witches Long Eyes; the Tradition of Witches not weeping; the caffing of the Witch into the Water, with Thumbs and "Toes ty'd a-cross. And many more such Marks, which if they are to know a Witch by, certainly 'tis no other Witch, but the Ufer of them. 2. There are fome Tokens for the Trial of Witches, more probable, and yet not fo certain 'as to afford Conviction Such are flrong and long Sufpicion : Sufpected Anceffors, some appearance of Fact, the Corps bleeding upon the Witches rouch, the Testimony of the Party bewitched, the supposed Witches unusual Bodily marks, the Witches usual Corfing and Banning, the Witches lewd and naughty. kind of Life. 2. Some Signs there are of a Witch, more certain and infallible. As, firstly, Declining of Judicacure, or faultering, faulty, unconstant, and contrary Answers, upon judicial and deliberate examination. Secondly, When "upon due Enquiry faro a perion's Faith and Manners, there are found all or " most of the Causes which produce Witchcrast, namely, God forsaking. Satan invading, particular Sins ditpofing; and laftly, a compact compleating all. Thirdly, The Witches free Confession, together with full Evidence of the Fact. . Confession without Fact may be a meer Delusion, and Fact without Confession may be a meer Accident. 4thly, The femblable Gestures and Actions of sufpected Witches, with the comparable Expressions of Affections, which in all. Witches have been observ'd and found very much alike. Fifthly, The Tefti-" mony of the Party bewitched, whether pining or dying, together with the ' joynt Oaths of sufficient persons, that have seen certain prodictions Pranks or Feats, wrought by the Party accused, 4. Among the most unhappy circumfrances to convict a Witch, one is, a maligning and oppugning the Word, "Work, and Worthip of God, and by any extraord nary fign feeking to feduce any from it. See Drut. 13. 1, 2. Mat. 24 24. All. 13. 8, 10. 2 Tim. 2 8. Do but mark well the places, and for this very Property (of thus opposing, and * perverting) they are all there concluded arrant and absolute Witches. 5. It " is not requifite, that to pulpable Evidence of Conviction thould here come in, as 'in other more fentible matters; the enough, if there be but fo much circum-"Harrial Proof or Evidence, as the Substance, Marter, and Nature of such an abstruce Mystery of Iniquity will well admir. I fuppose he means, that whereas in other Crimes we look for more direct proofs, in this there is a greater use of confequential ones] But I could hearrily with, that the Juries were empanell'd of ' the most eminent Physicians, Lawyers, and Divines that a Country could afford. In the mean time 'tis not to be called a Toleration, if Witches escape, where " Conviction is wanting. To this purpose our Gaute.

I will transcribe a little from one Author more, 'tis the Judicious Bernard of Batcomb, who in his Guide to grand Jurymen, after he has mention'd several things that are throwd Presumptions of a Witch, proceeds to such things as are the convictions of such an one, And he says, 'A witch in league with the Devil is convicted by these

They are Confiderable Things, which I have thus Recited; and yet it must be with Open Eyes, kept upon Open Rules, that we are to follow these things.

S. 8. But Juries are not the only instruments to be imploy'd in such a Work; all Christians are to be concerned with daily and servent Prayers, for the affisting of it In the Days of Athanasius, the Devils were found unable to stand before, that Prayer, however then used perhaps with too much of Ceremony, Let God Atise, Let bis Evenies be Scattered, Let them also that Hate Him, slee before Him-

A Discourse on the VVonders of the Invisible World.

Urtered (in part) on Aug. 4. 1692.

Ecclesiastical History has Reported it unto us, That a Renowned Marryr at the Stake, seeing the Book of the REVELA-TION thrown by his no less Profane than Bloody Persecutors, to be Burn'd in the same Fire with himself, he cryed out, O Beata Apocalypsis; quam bene mecum agitur, qui tecum Comburar! BLESSED REVELATION! said he, Hom Blessed am I in this Fire, while I have Thee to to bear me Company. As for our selves this Day; 'tis a Fire of sore Affliction and Consussion, wherein we are Embroiled; but it is no inconsiderable Advantage unto us, that we have the Company of this Glorious and Sacred Book the REVELATION to affish us in our Exercises. From that Book there is one Text, which I would single out at this time to lay before you; 'tis that in

Revel. XII. 12.

HE Text is Like the Cloudy and Fiery Pillar, vouchfased unto Israel, in the Wilderness of old; there is avey dark side of it, in the Intimation, that, The Devil is come down having great Wrath; but it has also a bright side, when it assures us, that, He has but a short time; Unto the Contemplation of Both, I do this Day Invite you.

be bathbut a (bort time.

We have in our Hands a Letter from our Ascended Lord in Heaven, to Advise us of his being still alive, and of his Purpose e're long, to give us a Visit, wherein we shall see our Living Redeemer, stand at the latter day upon the Earth. 'Tis the last Advice that we have had from Heaven, for now sixteen Hundred years, and the scope of it, is, to represent how the Lord Jesus Christ, having begun to set up his Kingdom in the World, by the preaching of the Gospel, he would from time to time utterly break to pices all Powers that should make Head against it, until, The Kingdoms of this World are become the Kingdomes of our Lord, and of his

Christ, and be shall Reign for ever and ever. 'T is a Commentary on what had been written by Daniel, about, The fourth Monarchy; with some Touches upon, The Fifth; whe ein, The greatness of the Kingdom under the whole Heaven, shall be given to the people of the Saints of the most High: And altho' it have, as 'tis expressed by one of the Ancients, Tot Sacramenta quot verba, a Mystery in every syllable, yet it is not altogether to be neglected with such a Despair, as that, I cannot Read, for the Book is Sealed. It is a REVELATION, and a singular, and notable Blessing is pro-nounc'd upon them that humbly study it.

The Divine Oracles, have with a most admirable Artifice and Carefulness, drawn, as the very pious Beverley, has laborioully Evinced, an exact LINE OF TIME, from the first Sabbath at the Creation of the World, unto the great Sabbatism at the Restitution of all Things. In that famous Line of Time, from the Decree for the Restoring of Ferufalem, after the Babylonish Captivity, there feem to remain a matter of Two Thousand and Three Hundred Years, unto that New Jerusalem, whereto the Church is to be advanced, when the Mystical Babylon shall be failan. At the Refurrection of our Lord, there were seventeen or eighteen Hundred of those Years, yet upon the Line, to run unto, The rest which remains for the People of God; and this Remnant in the Line of Time, is here in our Apocalyple, variously Emboffed, Adorned, and Signalized with fuch Diftinguishing Events, if we mind them, will help us escape that Centure, Can ye not Difeern the Signs of the Times? Co many hood was sond

The Apostle John, for the View of these Things, had laid before him, as I conceive, a Book, with leaves, or folds; which Volumn was written both on the Backfide, and on the Infide, and Roll'd up in a Cylindriacal Form, under seven Labels, fastned with fo many Seals. The first Seal being opened, and the first Label removed, under the first Label the Apostle saw what he saw, of a first Rider Pourtray'd, and so on, till the last Seal was broken up; each of the Sculptures being enlarged with agreeable Visions and Voices, to illustrate it. The Book being now Unrolled, there were Trumpets, with wonderful Concomitants, Exhibited fuccessively on the Expanding Backside of it. Whereupon the Book was Eaten, as it were to be Hidden, from Interpretations; till afterwards, in the Infide of it, the Kingdom of Antichaift came to be Exposed. Thus, the Judgments of God on the Ronan Empire, first unto the Downfal of Paganism, and then, unto the Downfal of Popery, which is but Revived Paganifm, are in these Displayes with Lively Colours and Features made Accetfensible unto us.

Chri

Accordingly, in the Twelfth Chapter of this Book, we have an August Preface, to the Description of that Horrid Kingdom. which our Lord Christ refused, but Antichrist accepted, from the Devils Hands; a Kingdom, which for Twelve Hundred and Sixty Years together, was to be a continual oppression upon the People of God, and opposition unto his Interests; until the Arrival of that Illustrious Day, wherein, The Kingdom shall be the Lords, and he shall be Governour among the Nations. The Chapter is (as an Execulent Person calls it) an Extravasated Account of the Circumstances, which befell the Primitive Church, during the first Four or Five Hundred Years of Christianiey : It shows us the Face of the Church, first in Rome Heathenish, and then in Rome Converted, before the Man of Sin was yet come to Mans Estate. Our Text contains the Acclamations made upon the most Glorious Revolution that ever-yet happened upon the Roman Empire; namely, That wherein the Travailing Church brought forth a Christian Emperour. This was a most Eminent Victory over the Devil, and Refemblance of the State, wherein the World, ere long shall see, The Kingdom of our God, and the Power of his Christ, It is here noted,

First, As a matter of Triamph. Tis said, Rejoyce, ye Heavens, and ye that dwell in rhem. The Saints in both Worlds, took the Comfort of this Revolution; the Devout Ones that had outlived the late Persecutions, were filled with Transporting Joys, when they saw the Christian become the Imperial Religion, and when they saw Good Men come to give Law unto the rest of Mankind; the Deceased Ones also, whose Blood had been Sacrificed in the Ten Persecutions, doubtless made the Light Regions to ring with Hallelajahs unto God, when there were brought unto them, the Tidings of the Advances now given to the Christian Religion, for which they had suffered Martyrdom.

Secondly, As a matter of Horror. 'Tissaid, Wo to the Inhabiters of the Earth and of the Sea. The Earth still means the False Church, the Sea means the Wide World, in Prophetical Phraswology There was yet left a vast party of Men that were Enemies to the Christian Religion, in the power of it; a vast party left for the Devil to work upon: Unto these is a Wo denounced; and why so? 'Tis added, For the Devil is come down unto you, having great Wrath, because he knows, that he has but a short time. These were, it seems, to have some desperate and peculiar Attempts of the Devil made upon them. In the mean time, we may Entertain this for our Doctrine,

Great Wo proceeds from the Great WRATH, with which the DEVIL,

DEVIL, towards the end of his TIME, will make a DESCENT upon a miserable World.

I have now Published a most awful and solemn Warning for our selves at this day; which has four Proposi ions, comprehended in it.

Proposition I. That there is a Devil, is a thing Doubted by none but fuch as are under the Influences of the Devil. For any to deny the Being of a Devil must be from an Ignorance or Profanenels, worse than Diabolical. A Devil. What is that? We have a Definition of the Monster, in Epb. 6.12. A Spiritual Wickednels, that is, A micked Spirit. A Devil is a Fallen Angel, an Angel Fallen from the Fear and Love of God, and from all Celestial Glories; but Fallen to all manner of Wretchedness and Cursedness. He was once in that Order of Heavenly Creatures, which God in the Beginning made Ministring Spirits, for his own peculiar Service and Honour, in the management of the Universe; but we may now write that Epitaph upon him, For art thou fallen from Heaven! thou hast said in thine Heart, I will Exat my Throne above the Stars of God; but thou art brought down to Hell! A Devil is a Spiritual and Rational Substance, by his Apostacy from God, inclined unto all that is Vicious, and for that Atoftacy confined unto the Atmosphere of this Earth, in Chains und r Darkness, unto the Judgment of the Great Day. This is a Devil; and the Experience of Mankind as well as the Testimony of Scrip. ture, does abundantly prove the Existence of such a Devil.

About this Devil, there are many things, whereof we may reasonably and profitably be Inquisitive; such things, I mean, as are in our Bibles Reveal'd unto us; according to which if we do not speak, on so dark a Subject, but according to our own uncertain, and perhaps humoursome Conjectures, There is no Light in ns. I will carry you with me, but unto one Paragraph of the Bible, to be informed of three Things, relating to the Devil; 'tis the Story of the Gadaren Energumen, in the fith Chapter of Mark.

First, then, 'Tis to be granted; the Devils are so many, that some Thousands, can sometimes at once apply themselves to vex one Child of Mau. It is said, in Mark 5.15. He that was Possessed with the Devil, had the Legion. Dreadful to be spoken! A Legion consisted of Twelve Thousand Five Hundred People: And we see that in one Man or two, so mano Devils can be spared for a Garrison. As the Prophet cryed out, Multitudes, Multitudes, in the Valley of Decision! So I say, There are multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of Destruction, where the Devils are! When we speak of, The Devil, 'tis, A name of Multitude ; it means not One Individual Devil, to Potent and Scient, as perhaps a Manichee would imagine; but it means a Kind, which a Multitude belongs unto. Alas, the Devils, they swarm about us, like the Frogs of Egypt, in the most Retired of our Chambers. Are we at our Boards ? There will be Devils to Tempt us unto Senfuality : Are we in our Beds? There will be Devils to Tempt us unto Carnality; Are we in our Shops? There will be Devils to Tempt us unto Dishonesty. Yea, Tho' we get into the Church of God, there will be Devils to Haunt us in the very Temple it felf, and there tempt us to manifold Misbehaviours. I am verily perswaded, That there are very few Humane Affairs whereinto some Devils are not Infinuated; There is not so much as a Journey intended, but Satan will have an hand in hindering or furthering of it. Secondly, 'Tis to be supposed, That there is a fort of Arbitrary, even Military Government, among the Devils. This is intimated, when in Mar. 5 9. The unclean Spirit Said, My Name is Legion: they are such a Discipline as Legions use to be. Hence we read about, The Prince of the pomer of the Air: Our Air has a power? or an Army of Devils in the High Places of it; and these Devils have a Prince over them, who is King over the Children of Pride. 'Tis probable, That the Devil, who was the Ringleader of that mutinous and rebellious Crew, which first shook off the Authority of God, is now the General of those Hellish Armies; Our Lord, that Conquered him, has told us the Name of him; 'tis Belzebub; 'tis he that is the Devil, and the rest are his Angels, or his Souldiers. Think on vast Regiments of cruel and bloody French Dragoons, with an Intendant over them, overrunning a pillaged Neighbourhood, and you will think a little, what the Constitution among the Devils is,

The wonders of the

Thirdly, 'tis to be supposed, that some Devils are more peculiarly Commission'd, and perhaps Qualify'd, for some Countries, while others are for others. This is intimated when in Mar. 5 10. The Devils befought our Lord much, that he would not fend them away out of the Countrey. Why was that ? But in all probability, because these Devils were more able to do the works of the Devil, in such a Countrey, than in another. It is not likely that every Devil does know every Language; or that every Devil can do every Mischief. 'Tis possible, that the Experience, or, if I may call it for the Education of all Devils, is not alike, and that there may be some difference in their Abilities. It one might m ke an Inference from what the Devils'do, to what they are, One cannot forbear dreaming, that there are degrees of Devils. Who can allow, that such Trifling Damons, as that of Mascon, or those that once infested our New berry, are of so much Grandeur, as those Demons, whose Games are mighty Kingdoms? Yea, 'tis' certain, that all Devils do not make a like Figure in the Invisible World. Nor does it look agreeably, That the Damons, which were the Familiars of such a Man as the Old Apollonius, differ not from those baser Goblins that chuse to Nest in the filthy and loathsom Rags of a beaftly Sorceress. Accordingly, why may not some Devils be more accomplished for what is to be done in such and fuch places, when others must be detach'd for other Territories? Each Devil, as he sees his advantage, cries out, Let me be in this Countrey, rather than another. But Enough, if not too much, of thefe things. Proposition II. There is a Devilish Wrath against Mankind, with which the Devil is for God's fake Inspired. The Devil is himself broiling under the intollerable and interminable Wrath of God; and a fiery Wrath at God, is, that which the Devil is for that cause Enflamed. Methinks I fee the posture of the Devils in Ifa. 8 21. They fret themselves, and Curse their God, and look upward. The first and chif Wrath of the Devil, is at the Almighty God himself; he knows, The God that made him, will not have mercy on him, and the God that formed him, will shew bim no favour; and so he can have no Kindness for that God, who has no Mercy, nor Favour for him. Hence 'tis, that he cannot bare the Name of God should be acknowledged in the World: Every Acknowledgement paid unto God, is a fresh drop of the burning Brimstone falling upon the Devil; he does make his Infolent, tho Impotent Batteries, even upon the Throne of God himfelf: and foolishly affects to have himself exalted unto that Glorious High Throne, by all people, as he sometimes is, by Execrable Witches. ... This horrible Dragon does not only with his Tayl strike at the Stars of God, but at the God himself, who made the Stars, being desirous to outshine them all. God and the Devil are sword Emies to each other; the Terms between them, are those, in Zech. 11. 18. My Soul loathed them, and their Soul also abborred me. And from this Furious wrath, or Difpleasure and Prejudice at God; proceeds the Devils mrath at us, the poor Children of Men. Our doing the Service of God, is one thing that exposes us to the wrath of the Devil. We are the High-Priests of the World; when all Creatures are called upon, Praife ye the Lord, they being to us those demanded Praises of God, saying, do you offer them for us. Hence 'tis, that the Devil has a Quarrel with us, as he had with the High-Priest in the Vision of Old. Our bearing the Image of God is another thing that brings the wrath of the Devil upon us. As a Tyger, thro his Hatred at man will tear the very Picture of him, if it come in his way, fuch a Tyger the Devil is; because God said of old, Let us make Man in our Image, the Devil is ever faying, Let us pull this manto pieces. But the envious Pride of the Devil, is one thing more that gives an Edge unto his Furious Wrath against us. The Apostle has given us an hint, as if Pride had been the Condemnation of the Devil. 'Tis not unlikely, that the Devil's Affectation to be above that Condition which he might learn that Mankind was to be preferr'd unto, might be the occasion of his taking up Arms against the Immortal King. However, the Devil now fees Man lying in the Bosom of God, but bimelf damned in the bottom of Hell; and this enrages him exceedingly; O, fays he, I cannot bear it, that man should not be as miserable as my self.

Protofition III. The Devil, in the profecution, and the execution of his wrath upon them, often gets a Liberty to make a Descent upon the Children of men. When the Devil does burt unto us, he comes down unto us ; for the Rendezvouze of the Infernal Troops, is indeed in the Supernal parts of our Air. But as'tis faid, A sparrom of the Air does not fall down without the will of God; fo I may tay, Not a Devil in the Air, can come down without the leave of God. Of this we have a famous lustance in that Arabian Prince, of whom the Devil was not able fo much as to Touch any thing, till the most high God gave him a permission, to go down. The Devil stands with all the Instruments of death, aiming at us, and begging of the Lord, as that King ask'd for the Hood-wink'd Syrians of old, Shall I smite em, shall I smite em? He cannot strike a blow, till the Lord fay, Go down and smite, but sometimes he does obtain from the bigh possessor of Heaven and Earth, a License for the doing of it. The Devil sometimes does make most rueful Havock among us; but still we may lay to him, as our Lord faid unto a great Servant of his, Thou couldest have no power against me. except it mere given thee from above. The Devil is called in I Pet. 5.8. Your Adversary This is a Law-term; and it notes An Adversary at Law. The Devi cannot come at us, except in some sence according to Law; but fometimes he does procure fad things to be inflicted, according to the Law of the eternal King upon us. The Devil fift goes up as an Accuser against us: He is therefore styled The Accuser; and it is on this account, that his proper Name does belong unto him. There is a Court fornewhere kept; a Court of Spirits, where the Devil enters all forts of Complaints force the tent the Detail has a Control against us all; he charges us with manifold fins against the Lord our Ood: There he loads us with heavy Imputations of Hypocryfie, Iniquity, Disobedience, whereupon he urges, Lord, let 'ent now have the death, which is their wages, paid unto 'em! If our Adweste in the Heavens do not now take off his Libels; the Devil, then, with a Concession of God, comes down, as a destroyer upon us. Having first been an Attorney to bespeak that the Judgments of Heaven may be ordered for us, he then also pleads, that he may be the Executioner of those Judgments; and the God of Heaven sometimes after a fort, figns a Warrant, for this destroying) Angel, to do what has been defired to be done for the destroying of men. But such a permission from God, for the Devil to come down, and break in upon mankind, oftentimes must be accompany'd with a Commission from some wretches of mankind it self. Every man is, as 'tis hinted in Gen. 4. 9. His brother's keeper. We are to keep one another from the Inroads of the Devil, by mutual and cordial Wishes of prosperity to one another. When ungodly people give their Confents in witcherafts diabolically performed, for the Devil to annoy their Neighbours, he finds a breach made in the Hedge about us, whereat he Rushes in upon us, with grievous molestations. Yea, when the impious people, that never faw the Devil, do but utter their Curfes against their Neighbours, those are so many watch words, whereby the Mastives of Hell are animated presently to fall upon us. 'Tis thus, that the Devil gets leave to worry us.

Proposition IV. Most horrible moes come to be inflicted upon Mankind, when the Devil does in great must, make a descent upon them. The Devil is a Do-Evil, and wholly fer upon mischief. When our Lord once was going to Muzzelhim, that he might not mischief others, he cry'd out, Art thou come to torment me? He is, it feems, himself Tormented, if he be but Restrained from the termenting of Men. If upon the founding of the Three last Apocalyptical Angels, it was an outery made in Heaven, Wo, no, no, to the inhabitants of the Earth by reason of the voice of the Trumpet. 1 am fure, a descent made by the Angel of death, would give cause for the like Exclamation: Wo to the world, by reason of the mrath of the Devil! what a moful plight, mankind would by the descentiof the Devil be brought into, may be gathered from the mofal pains, and wounds, and hideous defolations which the Dewil brings upon them, with whom he has with a bodily Poffession made a Schure. You may both in Sacred and Profane History, read manya direful Account of the moes, which they that are pofferfed by the Devil, do under o: And from thence conclude, What must the Children of Men hope from such a Devil! Moreover, the Tyrannical Geremonies, whereto the Devil uses to subjugate such Woful Nations or Orders of Men, as are more Entirely under his Dominion, do declate what woful Work the Devil would make where he comes. The very Devotions of those forlorn Pagans, to whom the Devil is a Leader, are most bloody Penances; and what Woes indeed must we expect from such a Devil of a Moloch, as relishes no Sacrifices like those of Humane Heart-blood, and unto whom there is no Mussick like the bitter, dying, doleful Groans, ejulated by the Roastings Children of Men:

Furthermore, the fervile, abject, needy circumstances wherein the Devil keeps the Slaves, that are under his more fensible Vassalage, do suggest unto us, how woful the Devil would render all our Lives. We that live in a Province, which affords unto us all that may be necessary or comfortable for us, found the Province fill'd with vast Herds of Salvages, that never faw fo much as a Knife, or a Nail. or a Board, or a Grain of Salt, in all their Days. No better would the Devil have the World provided for a Nor should we, or any elle, have one convenient thing about us, but be as indigent as ufually our most Ragged Witches are; if the Devil's Malice were not over ruled by a compassionate God, who preserves Man and Beast. Hence 'tis, that the Devil, even like a Dragon, keeping a Guard upon fuch Fruits as would refresh a languishing World, has hindred Mankind for many Ages, from hitting thole ufeful Inventsons, which yet were so obvious and facil, that it is every bodies wonder, they were no soner hit upon. The bemisted World, must jog on for thousands of Years, without the knowledg of the Loadstone, till a Neopolitan stumbled upon it, about three hundred years ago. Nor must the World be bleft with such a matchless Engine of Learning and Vertue, as that of Printing, till about the middle of the Fifteenth Century. Nor could One Old Man, allower the Face of the whole Earth, have the benefit of fuch a Little, tho most needful thing, as a pair of Spetacles, till a Dutch-Min, a little while ago accommodated us.

Indeed, as the Devil does begrutch us all manner of Good, so he does annoy us with all manner of Wo, as often as he finds himself capable of doing it. But shall we mention some of the special woes with which the Devil does usually insest the World! Briefly then; Plagues are some of those woes with which the Devil troubles us. It is said of the Israelites, in 1 Cor. 10, 10 They were destroyed of the destroyer. That is, they had the Plague among them. 'Tis the Devil stroyer, or the Devil, that scatters Planes about the World. Pestilential and Contagious Diseases, 'vis the Devil who does oftentimes invade us with them. 'Tis no uneasy thing for the Devil to impregnate whether the said of the Devil to impregnate us with them. 'Tis no uneasy thing for the Devil to impregnate whether the said of the Devil to impregnate us with them. 'Tis no uneasy thing for the Devil to impregnate whether the said of the Devil to impregnate us with them. 'Tis no uneasy thing for the Devil to impregnate us with them.

nate the Air about us, with fuch Malignant Salts, as meeting with the Salt of our Microcofin, shall immediately cast us into that Fermentation and Putrefaction, which will utterly dissolve all the Vital Tyes within us ; Ev'n as an Aqua-Fortis, made with a conjunction of Nitre and Vitriol, Corrodes what it Seizes upon. And when the Devil has raiffed those Arsenical Fumes, which become Vines mous Quivers full of Terrible Arrows, how eafily can he shoot the deleterious Miafas into those Juices or Bowels of Mens Bodies, which will foon Enflame them with a Mortal Fire! Hence come fuch Plagues, as that Beefom of Destruction, which within our memory swept away such a Throng of People from one English City in one Visitation; And hence thole Infectious Pevers, which are but fo many Difguised Plagues among us, causing Epidemical Desolations. Again, Wars are also some of those Woes, with which the Devil causes our Trouble. It is said in Rev. 12. 17. The Dragon was Wrath, and be went to make War; and there is in truth scarce any War, but what is of the Dragon's kindling. The Devil is that Vulcan, out of whose Forge come the instruments of our Wars, and it is he that finds us Employments for those Instruments. We read concerning Damoniacks, or People in whom the Devil was, that they wo .ld cut and wound themselves; and so, when the Devil is in Men, he puts'em upon dealing in that barbarous fashion with one another. Wars do often furrnish him with some Thonlands of Souls in one Morning from one Acre of Ground; and for the fake of such Thyeflean Banquets, he will push us upon as many Wars as he can.

Once more, why may not Storms be reckoned among those Woes, with which the Devil does disturb us? It is not improbablet at Natural Storms on the World are often of the Devils raising. We are told in Job 1. 11, 12, 19. that the Devil made a Storm, which hurricano'd the House of Job, upon the Heads of them that were Feasting in it. Paracelsus could have informed the Devil, if he had not been informed, as befure he was before, That if much Aluminious matter, with Salt Petre not throughly prepared, be mixed, they will fend up a cloud of Smoke, which will come down in Rain. But undoubtedly the Devil understands as well the way to make a Tempel. as to turn the Winds at the Solicitation of a Laplander; whence perhaps it is, that Thunders are observed oftner to break upon Churches than upon any other Buildings; and besides many a Man, yea, many a Ship, yea, many a Town has miscarried, when the Devil has been permitted from above to make an horrible Tempest. However that the Devil has railed many Metaphorical Storms upon the Church, is a thing, than which there is nothing more notorious. It was faid unto Believers in Rev. 2. 10. The Devil Shall cast some of you into Prison. The Devil was he that at first fet Cain upon Abel to butcher him, as the Apostle seems to suggest, for his Faith in Gnd, as a Remarder. And in how many Perfecusions, as well as Herefies has the Devil been eversmee Engaging all the Children of Cain! That Serpent the Devil has acted his curfed Seed in unwearied endeavovrs to have them, Of whom the World is not worthy, treated as those who are not worthy to live in the World. By the impulse of the Devil, 'tis that first the old Heathers, and then the mad Arians were pricking Briars to the true Servants of God; and that the Papifis that came after them, have out done them all for Slaughters, upon those that have been accounted as the Sheep for the Slaughters. The late French Persecution is perhaps the horriblest that ever was in the World: And as the Devil of Mascon seems before to have meant it in his out-cries upon the Miferies preparing for the poor Hugonots! Thus it has been all acted by a fingular Fury of the old

Dragon inspiring of his Emistaries.

But in reality, Spiritual Woes are the principal Woes among all those that the Devil would have us undone withal. Sins are the worst of Woes, and the Devil seeks nothing so much as to plunge us into Sins. When men do commit a Crime for which they are to be Indicted, they are usually moved by the Instigation of the Devil. The Devil will put ill men upon being worfe. Was it not he that faid in 1 King. 22. 22. I will go forth, and be a lying Spirit in the Mouth of all the Prophets? Even so the Devil becomes an Unclean Spirit, a Drinking Spirit, a Smearing Spirit, a Worldly Spirit, a Passionate Spirit, a Revengeful Spirit, and the like in the Hearts of those that are already too much of fuch a Spirit; and thus they become improv'd in Sinfulness. Yea, the Devil will put good men upon doing ill. Thus we read in I Chron. 21. 1. Satan provoked David to number Ifrael. And fo the Devil provokes men that are Eminent in Holiness unto such things as may become eminently Pernicious; he provokes them especially unto Pride, and unto many unsuitable Emulations. There are likewise most lamentable Impressions which the Devil makes upon the Souls of Men by way of punishment upon them for their Sins. 'Tisthus when an Offended God puts the Souls of Men over into the Hands of that Officer who has the power of Death, that is, the Devil. It is the woful Milery of Unbelievers in 2 Cor. 4.4. The god of this World has blinded their minds. And thus it may be faid of those woful Wretches whom the Devil is a God unto, the Devil so muffles them that they cannot see the things of them peace. And the Devil so hardens them, that nothing mill amaken their cares about their Souls: How come so many to be Seared in their Sins?'I is the Devil that with a red hot Iron fetcht from his Hell does cauterife them. Thus 'tis, till perhaps at last they come to have a Wonnded Conscience in them, and the Devil has often a share in their Torturing and confounding Anguishes. The Devil who Terrified Cain, and Saul, and Judas into Desperation, still becomes a King of Terrors to many Sinners, and frights them from laying hold on the Mercy of God in the Lord Jelus Christ. In thefe regards. Wo to us, when the Devil comes down upon us.

- Proposition V. Toward the End of his Time the Descent of the Devil in Wrath upon the World will produce more woful Effects, than what have been in former Ages. The dying Dragon, will bite more cruelly and sting more bloodily than ever he did before: The Death-pangs of the Devil will make him to be more of a Devil than ever he was; and the Furnace of this Nebuchadnezzar will be heated seven times hotter, just before its putting out,

We are in the first place to apprehend that there is a time fixed and stated by God for the Devil to enjoy a dominion over our finful and therefore woful World. The Devil once exclaimed in Matt 8. 29 Fefus, thou Son of God, art thou come hither to Torment us before our Time? It is plain, that until the second coming of our Lord the Devil must have a time of plagueing the World, which he was afraid would have Expired at his first. The Devil is by the wrath of God the Prince of this World; and the time of his Reign is to continue until the time when our Lord himfelf shall take to himself his great Power and Reign. Then 'tis that the Devil shall hear the Son of God swearing with loud Thunders against him, Thy time shall now be no more ! Then shall the Devil with his Angels receive their doom, which will be depart into the everlaiting

Fire prepared for you. We are also to apprehend, that in the mean time, the Devil can give a shrowd guess, when he draws near to the End of his Time- When he few Christianity enthron'd amore the Romans, it is here faid, in our Rev. 12-12. He knows he hath but a short time. And how does he know it? Why Reason will make the Devil to know that God won't fuffer him to have the Everlasting Doninion; and that when God has once begun to refene the World out of his hands, he'll go through with it, until the Captives of the mighty shall be taken away and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered. But the Devil will have Scripture alfo, to make him bnow, that when his Antichriftian Vicar, the seven-headed Beast on the seven-hilled City, shall have spent his determined years, he with his View must unavoidably go down into the betto nless Pit. It is not improbable, that the Devil often hears the Scripture expounded in our Congregations; year that we never affemble without a Satan among us. As there are some Divines, who do with more uncertainty conjecture, from a certain place in the Epiftle to the Epic-Jians, That the Angels do fomerimes come into our Churches, to gain fome advantage from our Ministry. But be sure our Demonstrable Interpretations' may give Repeared Notices to the Devil, That his time is almost out; and what the Preacher says unto the Young Man, Know thou, that God will bring thee into Judgment ! THAT may our Sermons rellunto the Old Wretch, Know thou, that thy Indgment is at hand.

But we must now, likewise, apprehend, that in such a time, the moss of the World will be heightened, beyond what they were at any time her from the foundation of the World. Hence 'tis, that the Apostle has forewarned us, in 2 Tim. 3.1. this know, that in the last days, perillous times shall come. Truly, when the Devil knows, that he is got into his Last days, he will make perillous times for us; the times will grow more full of Devils, and therefore more full of Perils, than ever they were before. Of this, if we would know, what cause is to be assigned; It is not only, because the Devil grows more able, and more eager to vex the World; but also, and chiefly, because the World is more worthy to be vexed by the Devil, than ever heretofore. The Sins of men in this Generacion, will be more mighty Sins, than those of the former Ages; men will be more Accurate and Exquifire and Refined in the arts of Sinning, than they use to be. And befides, their own fins, the fins of all the former Ages will also lie upon the finners of this generation. Do we ask why the michievous powers of darknessare to prevail more in our days, than they did in those that are past and gone! Tis because that men by finning over again the first of the former days, have a Fellowthip mith all those uniquitful works of darkness, As 'twas faid in Match. 23. 36. All thefe things shall come upon this generation; to, the men of the last Generation, will find themselves involved in the gulf of all that went before them. Of Sinners 'tissaid, They bear up por uh; and the finners of the last Generations do not only add unto the bear of fin that has been pileing up ever fince the Fall of man, but they Interest themfelves in every fin of that enormous heap. There has been a Cry of all former ages going up to God, That the Devil may come down ! and the finners of the Last Generations, do sherpen and louden that cry, till the thing do come to p fs, as Destructively as Irremediably. From whence it follows, that the Thrice Holy God, with his Holy Angels, will now after a fore more abandon the World, than in the former ages. The roaring Impieries of the old World, at last gave mankind such a distast in the Heart of the Just God, that he came to fay, It Repents me that I have made such a Creature! And however, it may be but a wirty Fancy, in a late Learned Writer, that the Earth before the Flood was nearer to the Sun, than it is at this Day; and that Gods Hurling down the Faith to a further diffance from the Sun, were the cause of that Flood; yet we may fitly enough fay, that men perished by a Rejellion from the God of Heaven. Thus the enhanc'd Impicties of this our World, will Exasperate the Displeasure of God, at fuch a rate, as that he will more cast us off, than heretofore; until at last, he do with a a more than ordinary Indignation fay, Go Devils; do you take them, and make them beyond all former meafares miserable!

If Lastly, We are inquisitive after Instances of those aggravated mees, with which the Devil will towards the End of his Time assault us; let it be remembred, That all the Extremities which were foretold by the Trumpets and Vials in the Apocalyptick Schemes of these things, to come upon the World, were the moes to come from the wrath of of the Devil, upon the shortning of his Time, The horrendous desolations that have come upon mankind, by the Irruptions of the old Barbarians upon the Roman World, and then of the Saracens, and since, of the Twiks, were such moes as men had never seen before. The instandous Blindness and Vileness which then came upon mankind, and the Monstrous Crossadoes which therepun carried the Roman World by Millions together unto the Shambles; were also such moes as had never yet had a Para lel. And yet these were some of the things here intended, when it was said, Wo! For the Devil is some down in great Wrath, having but a short time.

But befides all these triings, and besides the increase of Plaguesand Wars, and Storms, and Internal Maladies now in our days, there are especially two most extraordinary Woes, one would sear, will in these days become very ordinary. One Woe that may be look'd for is, A frequent Repetition of Earthquakes, and this perhaps by the energy of the Devil in the Earth. The Divel will be clap't up, as a Prisoner in or near the Bowels of the earth, when once that Conflagration shall be dispatched, which will make. The New Earth wherein shall dwell Righteousness; and that Conflagration will doubtless be much promoted, by the Subterraneous Fires, which are a cause of the Earthquakes in our Dayes. Accordingly, we read, Great Earthquakes in divers places, enumerated among the Tokens of the Time approaching, when the Devil shall have no longer Time. I suspect, That we shall now be visited with more Usual, and yet more Fatal Earthquakes, than were our Ancellors; in afinuch as the Fires than are shortly to Barn unto the Lawest Hell, and set on Fire the Foundations of the Mountains, will now get more Head than they use to do ; and it is not impossible, that the Devil, who is ere long to be punished in those Fires, may aforehand augment his Defert of it, by having an hand in using some of those Fires, for our Detriment. Learned Men have made no scruple to charge the Devil with it; Des permittente, Terremotus canjat. The Devil furely, was a party in the Earthquake, whereby the Vengeance of God, in one black Night funk Twelve confiderable Cities of Afa, in the Reign of Tiberious. Bur there will be more such Catastrophe's in our Dayes; Italy has lately been Shaking, till its Earthquakes have brought Ruines at once upon more than thirty Towns; but it will within a little while, shake again, and shake till the Fire of God have made an Entire Etna of it. And behold, This very Morning, when I was intending to utter among you fuch Things as these, we are cast into an Heartquake by Tidings of an Earthquake that has lately happened at Jamaica: an horible Earthquile, whereby the Tyrus of the English America, was at oncepulled into the Jawsof the Gaping and Groaning Earth, and many Hundreds of the Inhabitants buried alive. The Lord sanctifie so dismal a Dispensation of his Providence, unto all the American Plantations! But be affured, my Neighbours, the Earthques are not over yet! We have not yet feen thelast. And then, Another Wo that may be Look'd for is, The Devils being now let Loofe in preternatural Operations more than formerly; and perhaps in Possessions and Obsessions that shall be very marvellous, You are not Ignorant, That just before our Lords First Coming, there were most observable Outrages committed by the Devil upon the Children of Men : And I am suspicious, That there will again be an unusual Range of the Devil among us, a little before the Second Coming of our Lord, which will be, to give the laft stroke, in Destroying the works of the Devil. The Evening Wolves will be much abroad, when we are near the Evening of the World. The Devil is going to be Dislodged of the Air, where his present Quarters are; God will with flashes of hot Lightning upon him cause him to fall as Lightning from his Ancient Habitations: And the Raifed Saints will there have a New Heaven, which We expect according to the Promise of God. Now a little before this thing, ou be like to fee the Devil more sensible and visibly Buly upon Earth perhaps, than ever he was before: You shall oftner hear about Apparitions of the Devil, and about poor people ffrangely Bewirched, Poffeffed and Objeffed, by Infernal Figurds. When our Lord is going to fet up His Ringdom, in the most jenfible and witble manner that ever was, and in a manner auswering the Transfiguration in the Mount, it is a Thoufind to One , but the Devil will in fundry parts of the world, affay the like for Himfelswith a most April Imitation : and Men, at least in some Corners of the World, and perhaps in Juch as God may have some special Designs upon, will to their Cost, be more Familiarized with the World of Spicits than they had been formerly.

So that, in fine, if just before the End, when the times of the Jews were to be finished, a man then ran about every where crying, Wo to the Nation! Wo to the City! Wo to the Temple! Wo! Wo! Wo! Much more may the descent of the Devil, just before his End, when a'-so the times of the Gentiles will be finished, cause us to cry out, Wo! Wo! Wo! because of the black things that threaten we!

But it is now Time to make our Improvement of what has been faid. And, first, we shall entertain our selves with a sew Corollaries, deduced from what has been thus afferted. Corollary I. What cause have we to bless God, for our preservation from the Devils wrath, in this which may too reasonably be called the Devils World! While we are in, this present evil world, We are continually surrounded with swarms of those Devils, who make this present world, become so evil. What a wonder of Mercy is it, that no Devil could ever yet make a prey of us! We can set our soot no where but we shall tread in the midst of most Hellish Rattle-Snakes; and one of those Rattle-Snakes once thro' the mouth of a Man on whom he had Siezed, hissed out such a Truth as this, If God would let me loose upon you, I should find enough in the Best of you all, to make you all mine. What shall I say? The Wilderness thro' which we are passing to the Promiled Land, is all over fill'd with Fiery flying terpents. Bur, hielled be God; None of them have hitherto to taffined upon us, as to confound us atterty half our way to Heaven, lies by the Dens of Lions, and the Mounts of Leopards; there are incredible Droves of Devils in our way. But have we fafely got on our way thusfar? O let us be thanking to our Eternal perferver for it. It is faid in, Plal. 78. to. Swell the wrath of Man fhall praife thee, and the Remainder of wrath halt thin reftrain; But farely it becomes us to praife God; in that we have yet suffain'd no more Damage by the wrath of the Devil, and in that he has reffrain'd that Overwhelming wrath. Vie are poor, Travellers in a VVorld, which is as well the Divels field, as the Devil God; a VVorld in every Nook whereof, the Devil is encamped, with Bands of Rokbers, to pefter all that have their Face looking Zion-ward. And are we all this while prefetved from the undoing Snares of the Devil? it is, Thou, O keeper of Ifrael, that hall hitherto been our Keeper! And therefore, Blefs the Lord, O my faal, Blefs his fiely Name, who has redeemed thy Life from the Diffroyer ? Corollary, II. We may fee the rife of those multiply'd magnify'd, and Singularlyflinged Afflictions, with which aged, or dying Saints frequently have their Death Prefac.d, and their Age embittered. When the Saints of God are going to leave the World, it is usually a more Stormy World with them , than ever it was; and they find more Vanity, and more Vexation in the world than ever they did before. It is true, That many are the afflictions of the Righteous; but a little before they bid adien to all those many Affildions, they often have greater, harder, Sorer, Loads thereof laid upon them, than they hadye: endured. It is true, That the' much Tribulation we must enter in the Kingdom of God; but a little before our Entrance thereinto, our Tribulation may have some sharper accents of Sorrow, than ever were yet upon it. And what is the cause of this I it is indeed the Faithfulness of our God unto us, that we should find the Barib more full of Thorns and Brides than ever, just before he fetches us from Earth to Heaven; that to we may go away the more willingly, the more eafily, and with less Convultion, at his calling for us, Othere are ugh Fier, by which we are fastned unto this world ; but God will by Thorns and Briars tear those Ties afunder. But, is not the Hand of load here ? Sure, There is the weath of the Devil alio in it. A little before we step into Heaven, the Devil thinks with himself, My time to abase that Saint is now but fort; what Mifebief I am to do that Saint, must be done quickly, it at all: he'l (hortly be out of my Reach for ever. And for this cause he will now fly upon us with the Fiercest Efforts and Furies of his Wrath. It was allowed unto the Serpent. in Gen. 2. 15. To Bruile the Heel. Why, at the Heel, or at the Close, of our Lives. the Serpent will be nibbling, more than ever in our Lives before; and it is, Because now he has but a fhort time. He knows, That we shall very shortly be, Where the wicked coale from Troubling, and where the Weary are at Rest; wherefore that Wicked one will now Trouble us, more than ever he did, and we shall have so much Diffest, as will make us more weary than ever we were, of things here below.

Corollary. III What aReafonable Thing then is it, that they whose Time is but short, should make as preat Ose of their Time, as ever they can spray, let us learn some good, even from the wicked One himself. It has been advised, Be wise as serpens why, there is a piece of Wisdom, whereto that old Serpent, the Divel himself, may be out Moniter. When the Devil perceives his Time is but short, it puts him upon Great Wrath. But how should it be with as, when we perceive that our Time is but short why, it should put us upon Great Work. The motive which makes the Devil to be more full of wrath, should make us more full of warmth, more full of watch, and more full of MI Diligence to make one Vocation, and Elestim sure. Our Pace in our Journey Hearen mard must be Quicked, if our space for that Journey be shortned, even as Israel went surcher the two last years of their Journey Canaan-ward, than they did in 38 years before, the Apostle brings this, as a spar to the Devotions of Christians, in 1 Cor. 7, 29. This I fin, Brethren, the time is short. Even so, 1/30 this; some things I lay before you, which I do only think, or guess, but here is a thing which I venture to say with all the street.

freedom imaginable. You have now a Time to Get good, even a Time to make fure of Grace and Glory, and every good thing, by true Repentance: But, This I fay, the time is but short. You have now Time to Do good, even to ferve out your generation, as by the Will, fo for the Praise of God; but, This I fay, the time is but short. And what I say thus to All People, I fay to Old People, with a peculiar Vehemency: Sirs, It cannot be long before your Time is out; there are but a few fands left in the glass of your Time: And it is of all things the saddest, for a man to fay, My Time is done, but my work undone! O then, To work as falt as you can; and of Soul-work, and Church-work, dispatch as much as ever you can. Say to all Hindrances, as the gracious Jeremiah Burrows would sometimes to Visitants: You'll excuse me if I ask you to be short with me, for my work is great, and my time is but short. Methinks every time we hear a Clock, or fee a Watch, we have an admonition given us that our Time is upon the wing, and it will all be gone within a little while. I remember I have read of a famous man, who having a Clockwatch long lying by him, out of Kilture in his Trunk, it unaccountably fruck Eleven just before he died. Why, there are many of you, for whom I am to do that office this day: I am to tell you, You are come to your Eleventh hour; there is no more than a twelfth part at most, of your life yet behind. But if we neglect our bufiness, till our short Time shall be reduced into none, then, woe to us, for the great wrath of God will fend us down from whence there is no Redemption.

Corollary 1V.

How welcome flould a Death in the Lord be unto them that belong not unto the Devil, but unto the Lord! While we are folourning in this World, we are in what may upon too many accounts be called The Devils Country: We are where the Devil may come upon us in great wrath continually. The day when God shall take us out of this World, will be. The day when the Lord will deliver us from the hand of all our Enemies, and from the hand of Satan. In fuch a day, why should not our fong be that of the Pfalmift, Bleffed be my Rock and let the God of my Salvavation be exalted! While we are here, we are in the valley of the shadow of death; and what is it that makes it so? 'Tis because the wild Bealts of Hell are lurking on every fide of us, and every minute ready to falley forth upon us. But our Death will fetch us out of that Valley, and carry us where we shall be for ever with the Lord. We are now under the daily Bufferings of the Devil, and he does molest us with such Fiery Darts, as cause us even to cry out, I am weary of my Life. Yea, but are we as willing to die, as, weary of Life? Our Death will then foon fet ns where we cannot be reach'd by the Fift of Wickedness; and where the Perfect cannot be shotten at. It is faid in Rev. 14. 13. Bliffed are the Dead

Dead which die in the Lord, they rest from their labours. But we may fav. Bleffed are the Dead in the Lord, inafmuch as they rest from the Devils! Our dying will be but our taking wing: When artended with a Convoy of winged Angels, we shall be convey'd into that Heaven, from whence the Devil having been thrown he shall never more come thither after us. What if God should now say to us, as to Moses, Go no and die! As long as we go up, when we die, let us receive the Message with a joyful Soul; we shall foon be there, where the Devil can't come down upon us. If the God of our Life should now send that Order to us, which he gave to Hezekiah, Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live; we need not be cast into such deadly Agonies therenpon, as Hezekiah was: We are but going to that House, the Golden Doors whereof, cannot be entred by the Devil that here did use to persecure us. Methinks I see the Departed Spirit of a Believer, triumphantly carried thro' the Devils Territories, in such a stately and Fiery Chariot. as the Spiritualizing Body of Elias had; methink I fee the Devil, with whole Flocks of Harpigs, grinning at this Chind of God, but unable to falten any of their griping Talons upon him: And then, upon the utmost edge of our Atmosphære, methinkss I over-hear the holy Soul, with a most heavenly Gallantry, deriding the defeated Fiend, and saying, Ah! Satan! Return to thy Dungeons again; I am going where thou canst not come for ever! O'tis a brave thing so to die! and especially so to die, in our time. For, tho' when we call to mind, That the Devils time is now but short, it may almost make us wish to live unto the end of it; and to fay with the Pfalmift, Because the Lord will shortly appear in his Glory, to build up Zion. O my God! Take me not away in the midst of my days. Yet when we bear in mind, that the Devils Wrath is now most great, it would make one willing to be out of the way. Inalmuch as now is the time for the doing of those things in the prospect whereof Balaam long ago cry'd out, Who shall live when such things are done! We should not be inordinately loth to die at such a time. In a word, the Times are so bad, that we may well count it, as good a time to die in, as ever we faw.

Good News for the Israel of God, and particularly for his New-English Israel. If the Devils Time were above a thousand years ago, pronounced short, what may we suppose it now in our Time? Surely we are not a thousand years distant from those happy thousand years of rest and peace, and [which is better] Holiness reserved for the People of God in the latter days; and if we are not a thousand years yet short of that Golden Age, there is cause to think, that we are not an hundred. That the blessed Thousand years are not yet begun, is abundantly clear from this, We do not fee the Devil bound; No, the Devil was never more let loofe than in our Days; and it is very much that any should imagine otherwise: But the fame thing that proves the Thousand Years of prosperiey for the Church of God, under the whole Heaven, to be not yet began, does also prove, that it is not very far off; and that is the prodigious wrath with which the Devil does in our days Persecute, year desolate the World. Let us cast our Eyes almost where we will, and we shall fee the Devils domineering at such a rate as may justly fill us with affonishment; it is questionable whether iniquity ever were to rampant, or whether C'alamity were ever fo pungent, as in this Lamentable time; We may truly fay, 'Tis the Hour and the Power of Darknefs. But, tho the wrath be so great, the time is but short: when we are perplexed with the wrath of the Devil, the Word of our God at the fame time unto us, is that in Rom. 16. 20. The God of Peace hall bruife Satan under your feet Shortly. Shortly, didft thou fay, dearest Lord! O gladfome word! Amen, Even fo, some Lord! Lord Fefus, come quickly! We shall never be rid of this troublefome Devil, till thou do come to Chain bim up!

But because the people of God, would willingly be told whereabouts we are, with reference to the wrath and the time of the Devil, you shall give me leave humbly to set before you a few Conjectures.

The first Conjecture.

The Devils Eldest Son feems to be towards the End of his last Halftime; and if it be fo, the Devils Whole-time, cannot but be very near its End. It is a very scandalous thing that any Procestant, should be at a loss where to find the Anti-Christ. But, we have a sufficient assurance, that the Duration of Anti-Christ, is to be but for a Time and for Times, and for Half a time; that is for Twelve hundred and Sixty Years. And indeed, those Twelve Hundred and Sixty years, were the very Spott of Time left for the Devil, and meant when 'tis here faid, He has but a fhore time. Now, I should have an easie time of it, if I were never out upon an Harder Task, than to produce what might render it extreamly probable, that Antichrift entred his last Hatf-time, or the last Hundred and Fourfcore years of his Reign, at or foon after the celebrated Reformarion which began at the year 1517 in the former century. Indeed, it is very agreeable to fee how Antichrift then loft Half of his Empire; and how that half which then became Reformed, have been upon many accounts little more than Half-reformed. Bur by this computation, we must needs be within a very few years of such a Morrisication to befall the See of Rome, as that Antichrift who has lately been planting (what proves no more lafting than) a Tabernacle in the Glorious Holy Mount ain between the Seas, must quickly, Come to his End and none shall help him. So then, within a very little while, we shall see the Devil stript of the grand, yea, the last, Vehicle, wherein he will be capable to abuse our World. The Fires, with which, That Beast is to be consumed, will so singe the Wings of the Devil too, that he shall no more set the Affairs of this world on Fire. Yea, they shall both go into the same Fire, to be tormented for ever and ever.

The Second Conjecture.

That which is perhaps, the greatest Effect of the Devils Wrath, feems to be in a manner at an end: and this would make one hope that the Devils time cannot be far from its end. It is in Persecution, that the wrath of the Devil uses to break forth, with its greatest fury. Now there want not probabilities, that the last Persecution intended for the Church of God, before the Advent of our Lord, has been upon it When we fee the second Woe passing away, we have a fair signal given unto us, That the last slaughter of our Lord's Witnesses is oversand then what Quickly follows? The next thing is, The Kingdoms of this World, are become the Kingdoms of Our Lord, and of His Christ: and then down goes the Kingdom of the Devil, so that he cannot any more come down upon us. Now, the Irrecoverable and Irretrievable Humiliations that have lately befallen the Turkish Power, are but so many Declarations of the second Woe passing. away. And the dealings of God with the European parts of the world, at this day, do further strengthen this our expectation. We do see, at this hour a great Earth quake all Europe over : and we shall see, that this great Earth-quake, and these great Commotions, will but contribute unto the advancement of our Lords hitherto-depressed Interests. 'Tis also to be remark'd that, a disposition to recognize the Empire of God over the Conscience of man, does now prevail more in the world than formerly; and God from on High more touches the Hearts of Princes and Rulers with an averfeness to Persecution.' Tis particularly the unfpeakable happiness of the English Nation, to be under the Influences of that excellent Queen, who could fay, In as much as a man cannot make himself believe what he will, why should we Persecute men for not believing as we do! I wish I could see all good men of one mind; but in the mean time I pray, let them however love one another. Words worthy to be written in Letters of Gold! and by is the more to be confidered, because to one of Ours did that royal Person express Her self so excellently, so obligingly. When the late King James published his Declaration for Liberty of Conscience, a worthy Divine in the Church of England, then fludying the Revelation, law cause upon Revelational Grounds, todeclare himself in such words as these, What soever others may intend or design by shis Liberty of Conscience, I cannot believe, that it will ever be recalled in England, us long as the World flands. And you know how miraculoufly

the Earth-quake which then immediately came upon the Kingdom, has established that Liberry! But that which exceeds all the tendencies this way, is, the dispensation of God at this Day, towards the blessed Vaudo's. Those renowned Waldenses, which were a fort of Root unto all Protestant Churches, were never dissipated, by all the Persecutions of many Ages, till within these fews years, the French King and the Duke of Savoy leagued for their diffipation. But just Three years and a half after the scattering of that holy people, to the surprise of all the World, Spirit of life from God is come into them; and having with a thousand Miracles repossessed themselves of their antient Seats, their hot Perfecutor is become their great Protector. Whereupon the reflection of the worthy person, that writes the story is, The Churches of Piemont, being the Root of the Protestant Churches, they have been the first established; the Churches of other places, being but the Branches, shall be established in due time, God will deliver them speedily, He has already delivered the Mother, and He will not Ingleave the Daughter behind : He will finish what he has glorioufly begun!

The Third Conjecture.

There is a little room for hope, that the great wrath of the Devil, will not prove the present ruine of our poor New-England in particular. It believe, there never was a poor Plantation, more pursued by the wrath of the Devil, than our poor New-England; and that which makes our condition very much the more deplorable is, that the wrath of the great God Himself, at the same time also presses hard upon us. It was a rousing alarm to the Devil, when a great Company of English Protestants and Puritans, came to erect Evangelical Churches, in a corner of the World, where he had reign'd without any controul for many Ages; and it is a vexing Eye-fore to the Devil, that our Lord Christ should be known, and own'd, and preached in this howling Wilderness. Wherefor he has left no Stone unturned, that so he might undermine his Plantation, and force us out of our Country.

First, The Indian Powares, used all their Sorceries to mosest the first Planters here; but God said unto them, Teach them not! Then, Seducing Spirits came to root in this Vineyard, but God so rated them off, that they have not prevail'd much farther than the Edges of our Land. After this, we have had a continual blist upon some of our principal Grain, annually diminishing a vast part of our ordinary Food. Herewithal, wasting Sicknesses, especially Burning and Mortal Agues, have Shot the Arrows of Death in at our Windows. Next, we have had many Adversaries of our own Language who have been perpetually affaying to deprive us of those English Liberties in the encouragement whereof these Territories have been settled. As if this had not been enough; The Tamnies among whom we came, have watered our Soil with the Blood of many Hundreds of our Inhabitants. Defolating Fires also have many times laid the chief Treasure of the whole Province in Athes. As for Losses by Sea, they have been multiply'd upon us, and particularly in the present French War, the whole English Nation have observ'd that no part of the Nation has proportionably had so many Vessels taken, as our poor New England. Besides all which, now at last the Devils are (if I may so speak) in Person come down upon us with such a Wrath, as is justly much, and will quickly be more, the Astonishment of the World. Alas, I may sigh over this Wilderness, as Moses did over his, in Psal. 90. 7 9. We are consumed by thine Anger, and by thy Wrath we are troubled: All our days are passed away in thy Wrath. And I may add this unto it, The Wrath of the Devil con has been troubling and spending of its, all our days.

But what will become of this poor New-England after all? Shall we fink, expire, perish, before the shore time of the Devil shall be finished? I must confest, That when I consider the lamentable Unfruirfulness of men, among us, under as powerful and per bicuous Dispensations of the Gospel, as are in the World; and when I consider the declining state of the Power of Godiness in our Churches, with the most horrible Indisposition that perhaps ever was, to recover out of this declemion; I cannot but Fear less it comes to this, and less an Assatic Removal of Candlesticks come upon us. But upon some other Accounts, I would sain hope otherwise; and I will give you therefore the opportunity to try what Inferences may be drawn from these probable Prognostications.

If ay, First, That furely, America's Fate, must at the long run include New-Englands in it. What was the design of our God, in bringing over so many Europeans hither of later years? Of what use or state will America be, when the Kingdom of God shall come? If it must all be the Devils propriety, while the faved Nations of the other Hæmisphere shall be Walking in the Light of the New Jerusalem, Our New-England has then, it is likely, done all that it was erected for. But if God have a purpose to make here a seat for any of those glorious things which are spoken of thee, O thou Cityof God; then even thou, O New-England, art within a very little while of better days than ever yet have dawn'd upon thee.

I say, Secondly, That the there be very Threatning Symptoms on America, yet there are some hopeful ones. I confess, when one thinks upon the crying Barbarities with which the most of those Europeans that have Peopled this New world, became the Masters of it; it looks but Ominously. When one also thinks how much the way of living in many parts of America, is utterly inconsistent with the very Essentials of Christianity; yea, how much Injury and Violence is therein done to Humanity it self; it is enough to damp the Hopes of the most Sanguine Complexion. And the Frown of Heaven which has hitherto been upon Attempts of better Gospellizing the Plantations, considered, will but increase the Damp. Nevertheless, on the other side, what shall be said of all the Promises, That our Lord sessue Christ shall have the uttermost parts of the Earth for his Possession? and of all the Frophecies, That All the ends of the Earth shall remember and turn unto the Lord? Or does it look agreeably, That such a rich quarter of the World, equal in some regards to all the rest, should never be out of the Devils hands, from the first Inhabitation unto the last Dissolution of it? No sure; why may not the Iast be the sirst? and the Sun of Righteonsness come to shine brightest, in Climates which it rose latest upon!

I fay, Thirdly, That as it fares with Old England, so it will be most likely to fare with New-England, For which cause, by the way, there may be more of the Divine Favour in the prefent Circumstances of our dependence on England, than we are well aware of. This is very fure, if matters go Ill with our Mother, her poor American Daughter here, must feel it; nor could our former Happy Settlement have hindred our sympathy in that Unhappiness. But if matters go Well in the Three Kingdoms; as long as God thall blefs the English Nation, with Rulers that thall encourage Piery, Honesty, Industry, in their Subjects, and that thall cast a Benign Aspect upon the Interests of our Glorious Gospel, Abroad as well as at Home; so long, New-England will at least keep its head above water: and so much the more, for our comfortable Settlement in fuch a Form as we are now call into. Unless there should be any fingular, destroying, Topical Plagues, whereby an offended God should at last make us Rife; But, Alas, O Lord, what other Hive hast thou provided for us! tor your caurifficher, and that I say, Fourthly, That the Elder England will certainly and speedily be Visited with the ancient loving kindness of God. When one sees, how strangely the Curse of our Joshua, has fallen upon the Persons and Houses of them that have attempted the Rebuilding of the Old Romith Jericho, which has there been so far demolished, they cannot but say, That the Resormation there, shall not only be maintained, but also pursued, proceeded, persected; and that God will shortly there have a New Jerusalem. Or, Let a Man in his thoughts run over but the series of amazing Providences towards the English Nation for the last Thirty Years: Let him reslect, how many Thors for the ruine of the Nation, have been strangely discovered? yea, how very unaccountably those very Persons, yea, I may also say, and those very Methods which were intended for the tools of that ruine, have become the instruments or occasions of Deliverances? A man cannot but say upon these Resserved.

ctions, as the Wife of Manoah once prudently expressed her self, If the Lo d were preased to have Destroyed us, He would not have shew'd us all these things. Indeed, It is not unlikely, that the Enemies of the English Nation, may yet provoke fuch a Shake unto it, as may perhaps exceed any that has hitherto been undergone: the Lord prevent the Machinations of his Adversaries! But that shake will usher in the most glorious Times that ever arose upon the English Horizon. As for the French Cloud which hangs over England, tho' it be like to Rain showers of Blood upon a Nation, where the Blood of the Bleffed Jesus has been too much treated as an Unholy Thing; yet I believe God will thortly featter it: and my belief is grounded upon a bottom that will bear it. If that overgrown French Leviathan should accomplish any thing like a Conquest of England, what could there be to hinder him from the Universal Empire of the West? But the Visions of the Western World, in the Views both of Daniel and of John, do affure us, that whatever Monarch, shall while the Papacy continues go to fwallow up the Ten Kings which received their Power upon the Fall of the Western Empire, he must miscarry in the Attempt. The French Phaetons Epitaph seems written in that, Sure Word of Prophecy.

[Since the making of this Conjecture, there are arriv'd unto us, the News of a Victory obtain'd by the English over the French, which further confirms our Conjecture; and causes us to sing, Pharaohs Chariots, and his Host, has the Lord cast down into the Sea; Thy right-hand has dashed in pieces the Enemy!

Now, In the Salvation of England, the Plantations cannot but Re-

But so much for our Corollaries, I hasten to the main thing designed for your entertainment. And that is,

An Hortatory and Necessary Address, Ton Country now Extraordinarily Alarum'd by the Wrath of the Devil. Tis this,

Let us now make a good and a right use of the prodigious descent which the Devil in Great Wrath is at this day making upon our Land. Upon the Death of a Great Man once, an Orator call'd the Town together, crying out, Concurrite Cives, Dilapsa sunt vestra Menia! that is, Come together, Neighbours, your Town-Walls are fallen down! But such is the descent of the Devil at this day upon our selves, that I may truly tell you, The Walls of the whole World are broken down! The usual Walls of defence about mankind have such a Gap made in them, that the very Devils are broke in upon us, to seduce the Souls, torment the Bedies, sully the Credits, and consume the Estates of our Neighbours, with Impressions both as real and as furious, as if the Invisible World were becoming Incarnate, on purpose for the vexing of us. And what use ought now to be made of so tremendous a dispensation? We are engaged in a Fast this day; but shall we try to fetch Meat out of the Easter, and make the Lion to afford some Hony for our Souls?

That the Devil is come down unto no with great Wrath, we find, we feel, we now deplore. In many ways, for many years hath the Devil been affaying to Extirpate the Kingdom of our Lord Jefus here. New-England may complain of the Devil, as in Pial 129. 1,2. Many a time bave they afflitted me, from my Youth, may New-England now fay; many a time have they afflicted me from my Youth ; yet they have not prevailed against me. But now there is a more than ordinary affliction, with which the Devil is Galling of us: and fuch an one as is indeed Unparallelable. The things confessed by Witches, and the things endured by Others, laid together, amount unto this account of our Affliction. The Devil, Exhibiting himself ordinarily as a small Black man has decoy'd a fearful knot of proud, froward, ignorant, envious and malicious creatures, to list themselves in his horrid Service, by entring their Names in a Book by him tendred unto them. These Witches, whereof above a Score have now Confessed, and shown their Deeds, and fome are now tormented by the Devils, for Confessing, have met in Hellish Randezvonzes, wherein the Confessors do say, they have had their diabolical Sacraments, imitating the Baptism and the Supper of our Lord. In these hellish meetings, these Monsters have associated themselves to do no less a thing than, To destroy the Kingdom of our Lord Fefres Christ, in these parts of the World; and in order hereunto, First they each of them have their Spectres, or Devils, commission'd by them, & reprefenting of them, to be the Engines of their Malice. By these wicked Spectres, they fieze poor people about the Country, with various & bloudy Torments; and of those evidently Preternatural torments there are some have dy'd. They have bewitched some, even so far as to make Self-destroyers: and others are in many Towns here and there languishing under their Evil hands. The people thus afflicted, are miferably scratched and bitten, so that the Marks are most visible to all the World, but the causes utterly invisible; and the same Invisible Furies do most visibly stick Pins into the bodies of the afflicted, and scale them, and hideously distort, and disjoint all their members, besides a thousand other forts of Plagues beyond these of any natural diseases which they give unto them. Yea, they fometimes drag the poor people out of their chambers, and carry them over Trees and Hills, for divers miles together. A large part of the persons tortured by these Dibolical Spectres, are horribly tempted by them, fometimes with fair promifes.

promifes, and sometimes with hard threatnings, but always with felt miseries, to fign the Devils Laws in a Spectral Book laid before them's which two or three of these poor Sufferers, being by their tiresome fufferings overcome to do, they have immediately been released from all their miseries, and they appear'd in Spettre then to Torture those that were before their Fellow-Sufferers. The Witches which by their covenant with the Devil, are become Owners of Spectres, are oftentimes by their own Spettres required and compelled to give their confent, for the molestation of fome, which they had no mind otherwise to fall upon; and cruel depredations are then made upon the Vicinage. In the Profecution of these Witchcrafts, among a thousand other unaccountable things, the Spettres have an odd faculty of cloathing the most substantial and corporeal Instruments of Torture, with Invisibility, while the wounds thereby given have been the most palpable things in the World; fo that the Sufferers affaulted with Instruments of Iron, wholly unseen to the standers by, though, to their cost, seen by themselves, have upon snatching, wrested the Instruments out of the Spectres hands, and every one has then immediately not only beheld, but handled, an Iron Instrument taken by a Devil from a Neighbour. These wicked Spettres have proceeded so far, as to steal feveral quantities of Mony from divers people, part of which Money has, before sufficient Spectators, been dropt out of the Air into the Hands of the Sufferers, while the Spettres have been urging them to fubscribe their Covenant with Death. In such extravagant ways have these Wretches propounded, the Dragooning of as many as they can intheir own Combination, and the Destroying of others, with lingring, spreading, deadly difeases; till our Countrey should at last become too hot for us. Among the Ghastly Instances of the fuccess which those Bloody Witches have had, we have feen even fome of their own Children, so dedicated unto the Devil, that in their Infancy, it is found, the Imps have sucked them, and rendred them Venemous to a Prodigy. We have also seen the Devils first batteries upon the Town, where the first Church of our Lord in this Colony was gathered, producing those diffractions, which have almost ruin'd the Town. We have seen likewife the Plague reaching afterwards into other Towns far and near where the Houses of good Men have the Devils filling of them with terrible Vexations!

This is the Descent, which, it seems, the Devil has now made upon us. But that which makes this Descent the more formidable, is; The multitude and quality of Persons accused of an interest in this Witcheraft, by the Essicacy of the Spettres which take their Name and shape upon them; causing very many good and wise Men to fear,

That many innocent, yea, and some vertuous persons, are by the Devils in this matter, imposed upon; That the Devils have obtain'd the power, to take on them the likeness of harmless people, and in that likeness to afflict other people, and be so abused by Præstigious Demons, that upon their look or touch, the afflicted shall be odly affected. Arguments from the Frovidence of God, on the one fide, and from our Charity towards Man on the other fide, have made this now to become a most agitated Controversie among us. There is an Agony produced in the Minds of Men, left the Devil thould sham us with Devices, of perhaps a finer Thred, than was ever yet practifed upon the World. The whole business is become hereupon so Snarled, and the determination of the Question one way or another, so difinal, that our Honourable Judges have a Room for Fehoshaphar's Exclamation, We know not what to do! They have used, as Judges have heretofore done, the Spectral Evidences, to introduce their further Enquiries into the Lives of the persons accused; and they have thereupon, by the wonderful Providence of God, been so strengthened with other evidences, that some of the Witch Gang have been fairly Executed But what shall be done, as to those against whom the evidence is chiefly founded in the dark world? Here they do folemnly demand our Addresses to the Father of Lights, on their behalf. But in the mean time, the Devil improves the Darkness of this Affair, to push us into a Blind Mans Buffet, and we are even ready to be finfully, yea, hotly, and madly, mauling one another in the dark,

The consequence of these things, every considerate Man trembles at; and the more, because the frequent cheats of Passion, and Rumour, do precipitate so many, that I wish I could say, The most were con-

But that which carries on the formidableness of our Trials, unto that which may be called, A wrath mno the uttermost, is this: It is not without the wrath of the Almighty God himself, that the Devil is permitted thus to come down upon us in wrath. It was said, in Isa. 9, 19. Through the wrath of the Lord of Hosts, the Land is darkned. Our Land is darkned indeed; since the Powers of Darkness are turned in upon us: 'tis a dark time, yea a black night indeed, now the Ty-dogs of the Pit are abroad among us: but, it is through the wrath of the Lord of Hosts! Inasmuch as the Fire-brands of Hell it self are used for the scorching of us, with cause enough may we cry out, What means the heat of this anger? Blessed Lord! Are all the other Instruments of thy Vengeance, too good for the chastisement of such transgressors as we area Must the very Devils be sent out of Their own place, to be our Troublers: Must we be lash'd with Scorpsons, fetch'd from the Place of Face of Torment.

That

Torment? Must this Wilderness be made a Receptacle for the Dragons of the Wilderness? If a Lapland should nourish in it vast numbers, the fucceffors of the old Biarmi, who can with looks or words bewitch other people, or fell Winds to Marriners, and have their Familiar Spirits which they bequeath to their Children when they die, and by their Enchanted Kettle-Drums can learn things done a Thousand Leagues off; If a Swedeland should afford a Village, where some fcores of Haggs, may not only have their Meetings with Familiar Spirits, but also by their Enchantments drag many scores of poor children out of their Bed-chambers, to be spoiled at those Meetings; This, were not altogether a matter of fo much wonder! But that New-England should this way be haraffed! They are not Chaldeans, that Birrer and Hasty Nation, but they are, Bitter and Burning Devils; They are not Swarthy Indians, but they are Sooty Devils; that are let loose upon us. Ah, Poor New-England! Must the plague of Old Agypt come upon thee ? Whereof we read in Pfal. 78.49. He cafe upon them the fierceness of his Anger, Wrath, and Indignation, and Trouble, by fending Evil Angels among them. What, O what must next be looked for? Must that which is there next mentioned, be next encountered? He spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the Pefrilence. For my part, when I consider what Melanethon says, in one of his Epistles, That these Diabolical Spettacles are often Prodigies; and when I consider, how often people have been by Spectres called upon, just before their Deaths; I am verily afraid, lest some wasting Mortality be among the things, which this Plague is the Forerunner of. I pray God prevent it!

But now, What shall we do?

I. Let the Devils coming down in great wrath upon us, cause us to come down in great grief before the Lord. We may truly and sadly say, We are brought very low! Low indeed, when the Serpents of the dust, are crawling and coyling about us, and Insulting over us. May we not say, We are in the very bedy of Hell, when Hell it self is feeding upon us? But how Low is that! O let us then most penitently by our selves very Low before the God of Heaven, who has thus Abased us. When a Truculent Nero, a Devil of a Man, was turned in upon the World, it was said, in 1 Pet. 5.6. Humble your selves under the mighty hand of God. How much more now ought we to humble our selves under that Mighty Hand of that God who indeed has the Devil in a Chain, but has horribly lengthened out the Chain! When the old people of God heard any Biasphemies, tearing of his Ever-Blessed Name to pieces, they were to Rend their Cloaths at what they heard. I ain fure that we have cause to Rend our Hearts this Day, when we see what

what an High Treason has been committed against the most high God, by the Witchcrasts in our Neighbourhood. We may fay; and shall we not be humbled when we say it? We have feen an horrible thing done in our Lana! O'eis a most humblingthing, to think, that ever there should be such an abomination among us, as for a crue of humane race, to renounce their Maker, and to unite with the Devil, for the troubling of mankind, and for People to be, (as is by some confess'd) Baptized by a Fiend using this form upon them, Thou art mine, and I have a full power over thee! afterwards communicating in an. Hellish Bread and Wine, by that Fiend administred unto them. It was faid in Deut. 18. 10, 11, 12. There |ballinot be found among you an Inchanter, or a Witch, or a Charmer, or a Confulter with Familiar Spirits, or a Wizzard, or a Necromancer; For all that do thefe things are an Abomination to the Lord, and because of these Abominations, the Lord thy God doth drive them out before thee. That New-England now should have these Abominations in it, yea, that some of no mean Profission, should be found guilty of them: Alas, what Humiliations are we all hereby oblig'd unto? O'is a Difiled Land, wherein we live; Let us be humbled for these Difiling Abominations, lest we be driven out of our Land. It's a very bumbling thing to think, what reproaches will be cast upon us, for this matter, among The Daghters of the Philistines. Indeed, enough might eafily be faid for the vindication of this Country from the Singularity of this matter, by ripping up, what has been discovered in others. Great Brittain alone, and this also in our days of Greatest Light, has had that in it, which may divert the Calumnies of an ill-matured World, from centring here. They are words of the Devour Bilhop Hall, Satans prevalency in this Age, is most clear in the martellous Number of Witches abounding in all places. Now Hundreds are differented in one Shire; and, if Fame Decires us not, in a Village of Petrteen Houfes in the North, are found fo many of this Damned Brood. Tea, and those of both Sexes, who have Profiffed much Knowledge, Ho inifs, and Decotion, are drawn into this Damnable Practice, I suppose the Doctor in the first of those Passages, may refer to what happened in the Year 1645. When to many Vaffals of the Devil were Detected, that there were Thirty try'd at one time, whereas about forrees were Hang'd and an Hundred more detained in the Prifous of Suffolk and Effex. Among other things which many of these Acknowledged, one was, That they were to undergo sertain Punishments, if they did not fuch and fuch Harts, as were appointed them. And, among the reft that were then Executed, there was an Old Parson, called Lowis, who confessed. That he had a couple of Imps, whereof one was always putting him upon the doing of Mifehief, Once particularly, that Impealling for his Confene to to do, went immediately and Sunk a Ship, then under Sail. I pray, let not New England become of an Unfavoury and a Sulphurous Refentment in the Opinion of the World abroad, for the Doleful things which are now tallen out among us, while there are fuch Hilleries of other pla es abroad in the World. Nevertheless, I am fure that we, the People of New-England, have cause enough to Humble our selves under our most Humbling Circumstances. We must no more be Hangaty, because of the Lords Holy Mountain among us ; No it becomes us rather to be, Hamble, breaufe me have been fuch an Habitation of Unboly Devils!

II. Since the Devil is comedown in great wrath upon us, let not us in our great wrath against one another provide a Ladging for him. It was a most wholesome caution, in Eph 4. 25. 27. Let not the Sun go down upon your wrath: Nather giveplace to the Devil. The Devil is come down to see what Quarter he shall find among us: And if his coming down do now fill us with wrath against one another, and if perween the cause of the Sufferers on one hand, and the cause of the Suspected on to other, we carry things to such extreams of Passion as are now gaining upon us, the Devil will Bless himself, to find such a convenient Lodging as we shall therein afford unto him. And it may be that the wrath which we have had against one another has had more than a little instance upon the coming down of the Devil in that wrath which now amazes us. Have not many of us been Devil one unto another for Slanderings, for Backbitings, for Animestics. For this, among other causes, perhaps, God has permitted the Devile to be worrying, as they now are, among us. But it is high time to leave off all Devil such the Devil himself is falling upon us: And it is no time for us to be Censuring and Rev ling one another, with a Devil himself when the wrath of the Devil is annoying of us. The way for us to out wit the Devil, in the Wills with which 2s now Vexts us, would be for us to joyn as one man in our cries to God, for the Directing, and Issuing Of this Thorny Bufiness; but if we do not Lift up our Hands to Heaven, without Wrath, we Cannot then do it without Doubt, of speeding in it. I am ashamed when I read French Authors giving this Character of Englishmen [Ils fe baiffent Les uns les autres, & font en Divifion Continuelle. They have one another, and are always Quarrelling one with another. And I shall be much more ashamed, it is become the Character of New-Englanders; which is indeed what the Devil would have. Satan would make us braife one another, by breaking of the Peace among us; but O let us disappoint him. We read of a thing that sometimes happens to the Devil, when he is fearning with his Wrath, in Mar. 12.43 The unclean Spirit fieles reft, and finds none. But we give reft unto the Devil, by wrath one against an eter. If we would lay afide all fierceness, and keenness, in the disputes which the Devil has ra fed among us; and if we would use to one another none but the foft Answers, which the n away wrath: I thould hope that we might light upon such Counsels, as would quickly Extricate us out of our Labrinths. But the old Isendiary of the world, is come from Heile with Spares of Hell-Fire flathing on every fide of him; and we make our felves Tynder to the Sparks. When the Emperour Herry III. kept the Feaff of Penticoft, at the City Mints. there arose a diffension among some of the people there, which came from words to blows, and at last it passed on to the shedding of Blood. After the Turnult was over, when they came to that clause in their Devotions, Thou hast made this day Glorious; the Devil to the unexpredible Terrous of that vaft Atlembly, made the Temple Ring with that Outcry Bus I have made this Day Quarrillome! We are truly come into a day, which by being well managed might be very Glorious, for the exterminating of those accurfed things, which have hitherto been the Clogs of our Prosperity; but if we make this day Quarressome, thro' any Raging Confidences, Alas, O Lord, my Flish Trembles for Fear of thee, and I am afraid of the Judgments. Erasmus, among other Historians, tells us, that at a Town in Germany, a Witch or Devil, appeared on the Top of a Chimney, Threatning to fet the Town on Fire: And at length, Scattering a Pot of Albes abroad, the Town was presently and horribly Burnt unto the Ground. Methinks, I fee the spectres, from the Top of the Chimneys to the Northward, threatning to scatter Fire, about the Countrey; but let us quench that Fire, by the most amicable Correspondencies : Lest, as the Spettres, have, they say, already most Literally burnt some of our Dwellings there do come forth a further Fire from the Brambles of Hell, which may more terribly Devoar us. Let us not be like a Troubled House, altho' we are so much haunted by the Devils. Let our Long Suffering be a well placed piece of Armour, about us, against the Finy Darts of the wicked ones. History informs us, That so long ago, as the year, 858. a certain Peftilent and Malignant fort of a Demon, molefled Counont in Germany with all forts of methods to ftir up ftrife among the Citizens. He uttered Prophecies, he derected Villanies, he branded people with all kind of Infamies. He incented the Neighbourhood against one Man particularly, as the cause of all the mischiefs : who yet proved himself innocent. He threw sloves at the Inhabitants, and at length burnt sheir Habitations, till the Commission of the Damen could go no further. I say, Let us be well aware left fuch Damonsdo Come bither alfo.

III. Inasmuch as the Devil is come down in Great Wrath, we had need Labour, with all the Care and Speed we can to Divert the Great Wrath of Heaven from coming at the same time upon us. The God of Heaven has with long and loud Admonitions, been calling us to a Reformation of our Provoking Evils, as the only way to avoid that Wrath of His, which does not only Threaten but Consume us. This because we have been Deasto tho'e Calls that we are now by a provoked God, laid open to the Wrath of the Devil himself. It is said in Pr. 16.7. When a mans ways please the Lord, he make the even his Enemies to be at peace with him. The Devil is our grand Enemy, and tho' we would not be at peace with him, yet we would be at peace from him, that is, we would have him unable to disquiet our peace But inasmuch as the wrath which we endure from this Enemy, will allow us no peace, we may be sure, our ways have not pleased the Lord. It is because we have broken the bedge of Gods Precepts, that the hedge of Gods Providence is not so entire as it uses to be abour us; but Serpents are biting of us. O let us then se

our felves to make our peace with our God, whom we have diffileafed by our iniquities : and let us not imagine that we can encounter the Wrath of the Devil, while there is the Wrath of God Almighty to fet that Maffiff upon us. REFORMATION! REFORMATION! has been the repeated Cry of all the Jugdments that have hitherto been upon us; because we have been as deaf Adders thereunto, the Adders of the Infernal Pit are now histing about us. At length, as it was ofold faid, Lu e 16.30. If one went unto them from the dead, they will repint; even fo, there are some come unto us from the Damned. The great God has loosed the Ears of the Pit, so that many danned Scivits are come in among us, to make us repent of our Mildemeanours. The means which the Lord had formerly employ'd for our awakening, were fuch, that he might well have faid, What could I have done more? and yet after all, he has done more, in some regards, than was ever done for the awakening of any People in the World. The things now done to awaken our Er quiries after our protoking Etils, and our endeavours to Reform those Evils, are most extraordinary things; for which cause I would freely speak it, if we now do not some extraordinary things in returning to God; we are the most incurable, and I wish it be not quickly faid, the most mijerable People under the Sun. Believe me, 'tis a time for all people to do something extraordinary, in starching and trying of their ways, and in turning to the Lord. It is at an extraordinary rate of Circumfection and Spiritual mindeanels, that we should all now maintain a walk with God. At such a time as this ought Magistrates to do something extraordinary in promoting of what is laudable, and in restraining and chaffifing of Evil Deers. At fuch a time as this ought Ministers to do something extraordinary in pulling the Souls of men out of the Snares of the Devil, not only by publick Preaching, but by personal Visits and Counsels, from house to bouse. At such a time as this ought Charches to do something extraordinary, in renewing of their Covenants, and in remem. bring, and revixing the Obligations of what they have renewed. Some admirable Defigns about the Reformation of Manners, have lately been on foot in the English Nation, in purfuance of the most excellent Admonitions which have been given for it, by the Letters of Their Majesties, Besides the vigorous Agreements of the Justices here and there in the Kingdom, affified by godly Gentlemen and Informers, to Execute the Laws upon prophane Oftenders; there has been flarted a Proposal for the well-affected People in every Parish, to enter into orderly Societies, whereof every Member shall bind himself, not only to avoid Prophaneness in hi nfelf, but also according unto their Place, to do their utmost in first Reproving; and, if it must be so, then Exposing, and so Punishing, as the Law directs, for others that shall be guilty. It has been observed, that the English Nation has had some of its greatest Successes, upon some special and fignal Actions this way; and a discouragement given unto Legal Proceedings of this kind, must needs be very exercising to the Wife that abserve these things. But, O why should not New-England be the most forward part of the English Nation in such Reformations? Methin's I hear the Lord from Heaven laying over us. O that my People had hear bened unto me; then I (hourd foon have fubdated the Devils, as well as their other Enemies! There have been some sceble Eslays towards Reformation of lace in our Churches; but, I pray what comes of them ? Do we flay rill the Storm of his Wrath be over? Nav, let us be doing what we can, as fast as we can, to divert the Storm. The Devils having broke in upon our World, there is great asking, Who is it that has brought themin? And many do by Spectral Exhibitions come to be cry'd out upon. I hope in Gods time it will be found, that among those that are thus cry'd out upon, there are persons yet Clear from the great Transgression; but indeed, all the Unreformed among us, may juffly be cry'd out upon as having too much of an hand in letting of the Devils into our Borders, 'tis our Worldhinels, our Formality, our Senfuality, and our Iniquity that has help'd this letting of the Devils in. O let us then at laft, consider our ways. 'Tis a strange passage recorded by Mr. Clark in the Life of his Father, That the People of his Parish relufing to be Reclaimed from their Sabbath breaking, by all the zealous Testimonies which that good Man bore against it; ar last, on a night after the people had retired home from a Revelling Propharation of the Lords Day, there was heard a great Noise, with rattling of Chains up and down the Town, and an horrid Scent of Brimflone fill'd the Neighbourhood. Upon which the guilty Confeiences of the Wretches told them, the Devil was come to fetch them away; and it fo terrifi'd them, that an Eminent Reformation follow'd the Sermons which that Man of God Preached thereupon. Behold, Sinners, behold and wonder, left you perift; the very Devils are walking about our Streets, with lengthened Chains, making a dreadful Noise in our Ears, and Brimflow even without a Metaphor, is making an hellish and horrid stench in our Nostrils. I pray leave offill those things whereof your guilty Consciences may now accuse you, left these Devils do yet more directully fall upon you. Resomation is at this time our only Preservation.

IV. When the Devil is come down in great Wrath, let every great Vice which may have a more particular tendency to make us a Prey unto that Wrath, come into a due diferent with us. It is the general Concession of all men, who are not become too Unreasonable for common Conversation, that the Invitation of Witcherafts is the thing that has now introduced the Devil into the midft of us. I fay then, let not only all Witcherafts be duly abominated with us, but also let us be duly watchful against all the Steps leading thereunto. There are leffer Sorceries which they fay, are too frequent in our Land. As it was faid in 2 King. 17. 9. The Children of Mirael did fecretly those things that were not right, against the Lord their God. So'tis to be feared, the Children of New-England have ficretly done many things that have been pleafing to the Devil. They fay, that in some Towns it has been an usual thing for People to cure Hurts with Spells, or to use deteftable Conjurations, with Sieves, Keys, and Peafe, and Nails, and Horfe-hoes, and I know not what other Implements to learn the things for which they have a forbidden, and an impious Curiohty. 'Its in the Devils Name, that fuch things are done; and in Gods Name I do this day charge them, as vile Impieties. By these Courses 'tis, that People play upon The Hole of the Asp, till that cruelly venemous Alp has pull'd many of them into the deep Hole of Witchcraft it felf. It has been acknowledged by some who have sunk the deepest into this harrible Pit, that they began at these little Witcherasts; on which 'tis pity but the Laws of the English Nation, whereby the incorrigible repetition of those Tricks, is made Felony, were severelly Executed. From the like finful Curiofity it is, that the Prognoffications of Judicial Affreday, are fo injudicioully regarded by multitudes among us; and altho' the Jugling Afirologies do fearce ever bit right, except it be in such Weighty Judgments, for footh, as that many Old Men will die fuch a year, and that there will be many Loffes felt by some that venture to Sea, and that there will be much Lying and Cheating in the World ; yet their foolish Admirers will not be perswaded but that the Innocent Stars have been concern'd in these Events. It is a difference to the English Nation, that the Pamphlets of such idle, futil, trifling Star-gazers are so much confidered; and the Countenance hereby given to a Study, wherein at laft, all is done by Impulse, if any thing be done to any purpose at all, is not a little perillous to the Souls of Men. It is (a Science, I dare not call it, but) a Juggle, whereof the Lextned Hall well favs, It is presumptuous and anwarrantable, and cry'dever down by Councils and Fathers, as unlanful, as that which lies in the mid-way between Magick and Imposture, and partakes not a little of both. Mea confult the Afpects of Planets, whose Northern or Southern motions receive denominations from a Caleftial Dragon, till the Infirmal Dragon at length infinuare into them, with 2 Poison of Witchcraft that can't be cured. Has there not also been a world of discontent in our Borders ? Tis no wonder, that the fitry Stepents are to Stinging of us; We have been a most Marmaring Generation. It is not Irrational, to afcribe the late Stupendious prowth of Witches among us, partly to the bitter discontents, which Affliction and Poverty has filled us with: it is inconceivable, what advantage the Devil gains over men, by discontent. Moreover, the Sin of Unbelief may be reckoned as perhaps the chief Crime of our Land. We are told, God (wears in wrath, against them that believe not; and what follows then but this, That the Devil comes unto them in wrath. Never were the offers of the Goffel more freely tendered or more bafely despised among any People under the whole Cope of Heaven, than in this N.E. Scems it at all marvellous unto us, that the Devil should get such footing in our Country? Why, 'tis because the Saviour has been slighted here, perhaps more than any where. The Blessed Lord Jesus Christ has been profering to us, Grace, and Glory, and every good thing, and been alluring of us to Accept of Him, with fuch Terms as thefe, Undone Sinner, I am All; Art thou willing that I should be thy All? But, as a proof of that Contempt which this Unbelief has cast upon these proffers, I would serioully ask of the fo many Hundreds above a Thouland People within these Walls; which of you all, O how few of you, can indeed fay, Christ is mine, and I am bis, and be is the Beloved of my Soul? I would only fay thus much: When the precious and glorious Jefus, is Entreating of us to Receive Him, in all His Offices, with all His Benefits; the Devil minds what Respect we pay unto that Heavenly Lord; if we Refuse Him that speaks from Heaven, then he that, Comes from Hell, does with a fort of claim fet in, and cry out, Lord, since this Wretch is not willing that thou shouldst have him, I pray, let me have him. And thus, by the just vengeance of Heaven, the Devil becomes a Master, a Prince, a God, unto the miserable Unbelievers : but O what are many of them then hurried unto! All of these Evil Things, do I now fet before you, as Branded with the Mark of the Devil upon them.

V. With Great Regard, with Great Pity, should we Lay to Heart the Condition of those, who are cast into Affliction, by the Great Wrath of the Devil. There is a Number of our Good Neighbours, and some of them very particularly noted for Goodness and Vertue, of whom we may say, Lord, They are vexed with Devils. Their Tortures being primarily Inflicted on their Spirits, may indeed cause the Impressions thereof upon their Bodies to be the less Durable, tho' rather the more Sensible: but they Endure Horrible Things, and many have been actually Murdered. Hard Censures now bestow'd upon these poor Sufferers, cannot but be very Displeasing unto our Lord, who, as He faid, about fome that had been Butchered by a Pilate, in Luc. 13. 2, 3. Think ye that these were Sinners above others, because they suffered such Things? Itell you No, But except ye Repent, ye shall all likewise Perish: Even so, he now says, Think ye that they who now suffer by the Devil, have been greater Sinners than their Neighbours? No, Do you Repent of your own Sins, Left the Devil come to fall foul of you, as he has done to them. And if this be fo, How Rash a thing would it be, if such of the poor Sufferers, as carry it with a Becoming Piety, Seriousnels, and Humiliation under their prefent Suffering, should be unjustly Censured; or have their very Calamity imputed unto them as a Crime? It is an easie thing, for us to fall into the Fault of, Adding Affliction to the Afflicted, and of, Talking to the Grief of those that are already wounded. Nor can it be wisdom to flight the Dangers of such a Fault. In the mean time, We have no Bowels in us, if we do not Compassionate the Distressed County of Essex, now crying to all these Colonies, Have pay on me, O ye my Triends, Have pity on me, for the Hand of the Lord has Touched me, and the Wrath of the Devil has been therewithal turned upon me. But indeed, if an hearty pity be due to any, I am fure, the Difficulties which attend our Honourable Judges, do demand no Inconfiderable fhare in that Pity. What a Difficult, what an Ardnous Task, have those Worthy Personages now upon their Hands? To carry the Knife fo exactly, that on the one fide, there may be no Innocent Blood Shed, by too unfeeing a Zeal for the Children of Ifrael; and that on the other fide, there may be no Shelter given to those Diabolical Works of Darkness, without the Removal whereof we never shall have Peace; or to those Furies whereof several have kill'd more people perhaps than would ferve to make a Village: Hie Labor, Hoc Opas eft ! O what need have we, to be concerned, that the Sins of our Ifrael, may not provoke the God of Heaven to leave his Davids, unto a wrong Step, in a matter of fuch Confequence, as is now before them! Our Difingenuous, Uncharitable, Unchristian Reproaching of fuch Faithful Men, after all, The Prayers and Supplications, with frong Crying and Tears, with which we are daily plying the Throne of Grace, that they may be kept, from what They Feer, is none of the way for our preventing of what We Fear. Nor all this while, ought our Pity to forget fuch Accused ones, as call for indeed our most Compassionate Pay, till there be fuller Evidences that they are less worthy of it. If Satan have any where maliciously brought upon the Stage, those that have hitherto had a just and good stock of Reputation, for their just and good Living, among us; If the Evil One have obtained a permission to Appear, in the Figure of such as we have cause to think, have hitherto Abstrained, even from the Appearance of Evil: It is in Truth, fuch an Invasion upon Mankind, as may well Raise an Horror in us all : But. O what Compassions are due to such as may come under such Misrepresentations, of the Great Accuser! Who of us can say, what may be shewn in the Glaffes of the Great Lying Spirit? Altho' the Ufual Providence of God [we praise Him!] keeps us from such a Mishap; yet where have we an Absolute Promise, that we shall every one always be kept from it? As long as Charity is bound to Think no Evil, it will not Hurt us that are Private Persons, to sorbear the Judgment which belongs not unto us. Let it rather be our Wish, May the Lord help them to Learn the Lessons, for which they are now put unto fo hard a School.

WI. With a Great Zeal, we should lay hold on the Covenant of God, that we may Secure Us and Ours, from the Great Wrash, with which the Devil Rages. Let us come into the Covenant of Grace, and then we shall not be hook'd into a Covenant with the Devil, nor be altogether unfurnished with Armour, against the Wretches that are in that Covenant. The way to come under the Saving Influences of the New Covenant, is, to close with the Lord results Christ, who is the All-sufficient Mediator of it: Let us therefore do, that, by Resigning up our selves unto the Saving, Teaching, and Ruling Hands of this Blessed Mediator. Then we shall be, what we read in Jude 1. Preserved in Christ Jesus: That is, as the Destroying Angel, could not meddle with such as had been distinguished, by the Blood of the Passeover on their Houses: Thus the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, Sprinkled on our Souls, will Preserve us from the Devil. The Birds of prey (and indeed the Devils most literally in the shape of great Birds!) are slying about : Would we find a Covert from these Vultures? Let us then Hear our Lord Jesus from Heaven Clocquing unto us, O that you would be gathered under my wings! Well; When this is done, Then let us own the Covenant, which we are now come into, by joining our felves to a Particular Church, walking in the Order of the Gospel; at the doing whereof, according to that Covenant of God, We give up Our felves unto the Lord, and in Him unto One Another. While others have had their Names Entred in the Devils Book; let our Names be found in the Church Book, and let us be Written among the Living in ferusalem. By no means let, Church work fink and fail in the midst of us; but let the Tragical Accidents which now happen, exceedingly Quicken that work. So many of the Rifing Generation, utterly forgetting the Errand of our Fathers to build Churches in this Wilderness, and so many of our Cattages being allow'd to Live, where they do not, and perhaps cannot, wait upon God with the Churches of His People; 'tis as likely as any one thing to procure the fwarmings of Witch crafts among us. But it becomes us, with a like Ardonr, to bring our poor Children with us, as we shall do, when we come our selves, into the Covenant of God. It would break an heart of Stone, to have feen, what I have lately feen; Even poor Children of feveral Ages, even from feven to twenty, more or lefs, Confef-(my their Familiarity with Devils; but at the same time, in Doleful bitter Lamentations, that made a little Pourtraiture of Hell it felf, Expostulating with their execrable Parents, for Devoting them to the Devil in their Infancy, and fo Entailing of Devillifin upon them! Now, as the Pfalmift could fay, My Zea lbath consumed me, because my Enemies have forgotten thy words: Even fo, let the Nefarious wickedness of those that have Explicitly dedicated their Children to the Devil, even with Devilish Symbols, of such a Dedication, Provoke our Zeal to have our Children, Sincerely, Signally, and openly Confecrated unto God; with an Education afterwards affirring and confirming that Confectation.

VII. Let our Prayer go up with great Faith, against the Devil, that comes down in great Wrath. Such is the Antipathy of the Devil to our Prayer, that he cannot bear to stay long where much of it is: Indeed it is Diaboli Flagelium, as well as, Miseriae Remedium; the Devil will soon be Scourg'd out of the Lord's Temple, by a Whip, made and used, with the effectual fervent Prayer of Righteens Men. When the Devil by Afflicting of us, drives us to our Prayers, he is The Fool making a Whip for his own Back. Our Lord said of the Devil in Matt. 17.21. This Kind goes not cut, but by Prayer and Fasting. But, Prayer and Fasting will soon make the Devil be gone. Here are Charms indeed! Sacred and Blessed Charms, which the Devil cannot stand before. A Promise of God, being well managed in the Hands of them that are much upon their Knees, will so resist the Devil, that he will Flee from us. At every other Weapon the Devils will be too hard for us; the Spiraual Wackednesses in High Places, have manifestly the Upper hand of us; that Old Serpent will be too old for us, too cunning, too fubtil; they will foon out wit us, if we think to Encounter them with any Wit of our own. But when we come to Prayers, Incessant and Vehement Prayers before the Lord, there we shall be too hard for them. When well-directed Prayers, that great Artillery of Heaven, are brought into the Field, There methinks I fee, There are these workers of Iniquity fallen, all of them! And who can tell, how much the most Obscure Christian among you all, may do towards the Deliverance of our and from the Molestations which the Dewil is now giving to us. I have Read, That on a day of Prayer kept by some good People for and with a Possessed Person, the Devil at last flew out of the Window, and referring to a Devout, plain, mean Woman then in the Room, he cry'd out, O the VVoman behind the Door! "Tis that VVomanthat forces me away! Thus the Devil that now troubles us, may be forced within a while to forfake us; and it shall be faid, He was driven away by the Prayers of some Obscure and Retired Souls, which the World has taken but little notice of! The Great God is about a Great VVork at this day among us: Now, there is extream Hazard, left the Devil by Compulsion must submit to that Great VVork, may also by Permission, come to Confound that VVork; both in the Detections of fome, and in the Confessions of others, whose Ungodly deeds may he brought forth, by a Great VVork of God; there is great Hazard left the Devil intertwift some of his Delusions. 'Tis PRAYER, I say,'tis PRAYER, that must carry us well through the strange things that are now upon us. Only that Prayer must then be the Prayer of Faith: O where is our Faith in him, Who bath spoiled these Principalities and Powers, on his Cross, Triumphing over them!

VIII. Lastly, Shake off, every Soul, shake off the bard Yoak of the Devil. Where 'tis faid, The whole VVorld lyes in wickedness; 'tis by some of the Ancients rendred, The whole VVorld lyes in the Devil. The Devil is a Prince, yea, the Devil is a God unto all the Unregenerate; and alas, there is A whole World of them. Desolate Sinners, consider what an horrid Lord it is that you are Enflav'd unto; and Oh shake off your Slavery to such a Lord. Instead of him, now make your Choice of the Eternal God in Jesus Christ; Chuse him with a most unalterable Resolution, and unto him say, with Thomas, My Lord, and my God! Say with the Church, Lord, other Lords bave bad the Dominion over us, but now thou alone shalt be our Lord for ever. Then instead of your Perishing under the wrath of the Devils, God will fetch you to a place among those that fill up the Room of the Devils, lest by their Fall from the Ethereal Regions. It was a most awful Speech made by the Devil, Possessing a young Woman, at a Village in Germany, By the command of God, I am come to Torment the Body of this young VVoman, tho I cannot burt ber Soul; and it is that I may warn Men, to take beed of finning against God. Indeed (said he) 'tis very fore against my will that I do it; but the command of God forces me to declare what I do ; however I know that at the Last Day, I shall have more Souls than God himself. So spoke that horrible Devil! But O that none of our Souls may be found among the Prizes of the Devil, in the Day of God! O that what the Devil has been forced to declare, of his Kingdom among us, may prejudice our Hearts against him for ever!

My Text says, The Devil is come down in great VV rath, for he has but a short time. Yea, but if you do not by a speedy and through Conversion to God, escape the Wrath of the Devil, you will your selves go down, where the Devil is to be, and you will there be fweltring under the Devils Wrath, not for a short Time, but, World without end; not for a Short Time, but for Infinite Millions of Ages. The smoak of your Torment under that Wrath, will Ascend for ever and ever! Indeed, the Devil's time for his Wrath upon you in this World, can be but short, but his time for you to do his Work, or, which is all one, to delay your turning to God, that is a Long Time. VVhen the Devil was going to be Dispossessed of a Man, he Roar'd out, Am I to be Tormented before my time? You will Torment the Devil, if you Refcue your Souls out of his hands, by true Repentance: If once you begin to look that way, he'll Cry out, O this is before my Time, I must have more Time, yet in the Service of such a guilty Soul. But, I beseech you, let us join thus to torment the Devil, in an holy Revenge upon him, for all the Injuries which he has done unto us; let us tell him, Satan, thy time with me is but short, Nay, thy time with me shall be no more; I am unutterably sorry that it has been so much; Depart from me thou Evil-Doer, that would'st have me to be an Evil Doer like thy (elf; I will now for ever keep the Commandments of that God, in whom I Live and Move, and have my Being! The Devil has plaid a fine Game for himfelf indeed, if by his troubling of our Land, the Souls of many People should come to think upon their ways, till even they turn their Feet into the Testimonies of the Lord. Now that the Devil may be thus outshot in his own Bow, is the defire of all that love the Salvation of God among us, as well as of him, who has thus Addressed you. Amen.

Having thus discoursed on VVonders of the Invisible the VVorld, I shall now, with God's help, go on to relate some Remarkable and Memorable Instances of VVonders which that VVorld has given to ourselves. And althous the chief Entertainment which my Readers do expect, and shall receive, will be a true History of what has occurred, respecting the WITCHCRAFTS wherewith we are at this day Persecuted; yet I shall choose to usher in the mention of those things, with

A Narrative of an APPARITION which a Gentleman in Boston, had of his Brother, just then Murthered in London.

I T was on the Second of May in the Year 1687, that a most ingenious, accomplished and well-disposed Gentleman, Mr. foseph Beacon, by Name, about Five a Clock in the Morning, as he lay, whether Sleeping or Waking Waking he could not fay, (but judged the latter of them) had a View of his Brother then at London, altho he was now himfelf at Our Boston, distanced from him a thousand Leagues. This his Brother appear'd unto him, in the Morning about Five a Clock at Boston, having on him a Bengal Gown, which he usually wore, with a Napkin tyed about his Head; his Countenance was very Pale, Gastly, Deadly, and he had a bloody Wound on one fide of his Fore-head. Brother! fays the Affrighted Joseph. Brother! Answered the Apparition. Said Joseph, What's the matter Brother? How came you bere! The Apparition replied, Brother, I have been most barbarously and injuriously Butchered, by a Debauched Drunken Fellow, to whom I never did any wrong in my Life. Whereupon he gave a particular Description of the Murderer; adding, Brother, This Fellow changing his Name, is attempting to come over unto New-England, in Foy, or Wild; Iwould pray you on the first Arrival of either of these, to get an Order from the Governor, to Seize the Person, whom I have now described; and then do you Indict bim for the Murder of me your Brother: I'll stand by you and prove the Indictment. And so he Vanished. Mr. Beacon was extreamly aftenished at what he had feen and hear'd; and the People of the Family not only observed an extraordinary Alteration upon him, for the Week following, but have also given me under their Hands a full Testimony, that he then gave them an Account of this Apparition.

All this while, Mr. Beacon had no advice of any thing amis attending his Brother then in England; but about the latter end of June following, he understood by the common ways of Communication, that the April before, his Brother going in haste by Night to call a Coach for a Lady, met a Fellow then in Drink, with his Doxy in his Hand: Some way or other the Fellow thought himself Affronted with the hasty passage of this Beacon, and immediately ran into the Fire-side of a Neighbouring Tavern, from whence he setch'd out a Fire-fork, wherewith he grievously wounded Beacon in the Skull; even in that very part where the Apparition show'd his Wound. Of this Wound he Languished until he Dyed on the Second of May, about five of the Clock in the Morning at London. The Murderer it seems was endeavouring to Escape, as the Apparition affirm'd, but the Friends of the Docased Beacon, Seized him; and Prosecuting him at Law, he sound the help of such Friends as brought him off without the loss of his Life; since which, there has no more been heard of the Business.

This History I received of Mr. Joseph Beacon himself; who a little before his own Pious and hopeful Death, which follow'd not long after, gave me the Story written and signed with his own Hand, and attested with the Circumstances I have already mentioned.

But I shall no longer detain my Reader, from his expected Entertainment, in a brief account of the Tryals which have passed upon some of the Malesactors lately Executed at Salem, for the Watcherasts whereof they stood Convicted. For my own part, I was not present at any of them;

nor ever had I any Personal prejudice at the Persons thus brought upon the Stage; much less at the Surviving Relations of those Persons, with and for whom I would be as hearty a Mourner as any Man living in the World: The Lord Camfort them! But having received a Command so to do, I can do no other than shortly relate the chief Matters of Fast, which occurr'd in the Tryals of some that were Executed, in an Abridgment Collected out of the Court-Papers, on this occasion put into my hands. You are to take the Truth, just asit was; and the Truth will hurt no good Man. There might have been more of these, if my Book would not thereby have swollen too big; and if some other worthy hands did not perhaps intend something surther in these Collections; for which cause I have only singled out Four or Five, which may serve to illustrate the way of Dealing, wherein Wieberasts use to be concerned; and I report matters not as an Advocate, but as an Historian.

They were some of the Gracious Words inserted in the Advice, which many of the Neighbouring Ministers, did this Summer humbly lay before our Honorable Judges, We cannot but with all thankfulness, acknowledge the success which the Merciful God has given unto the Sedulous and Assiduous endeavours of Our Honourable Rulers, to detect the abominable VVitcherasts which have been committed in the Country; Humbly Praying, that the discovery of those mysterious and mischievous wickednesses, may be perfected. It in the midst of the many Dissatisfactions among us, the Publication of these Tryals, may promote such a pious Thankfulness unto God, for Justice being so far executed among us, I shall Rejoice that God is Glorised; and pray, that no wrong steps of ours may ever sully any of his Glorious Works. But we will begin with,

A Modern Instance of VVitches, Discovered and Condemned in a Tryal, before that Celebrated Judge, Sir Matthew Hale.

IT may cast some Light upon the Dark things now in America, if we just give a glance upon the like things lately happening in Europe. We may see the Witcherasts here most exactly resemble the Witcherasts there; and we may learn what fort of Devils do trouble the World.

The Venerable Baxter very truly fays, Judge Hale was a Person, than whom, no Man was more Backward to Condemn a VVitch, without full Evidence.

Now, one of the latest Printed Accounts about a Tryal of VVisbes, is of what was before him, and it ran on this wife. [Printed in the Year 1682.] And it is here the rather mentioned, because it was a Tryal, much considered by the Judges of New England.

I. Rose Cultender and Amy Duny, were severally Indicted, for Bewitching Elizabeth Durent, Amn Durent, fane Bocking, Susan Chandler, VVilliam Durent, Elizabeth and Deborah Pacy. And the Evidence whereon they were Convicted, stood upon divers particular Circumstances.

II. Ann Durent, Susan Chandler, and Elizabeth Pacy, when they came into the Hall, to give Instructions for the drawing the Bills of Indicaments, they fell into strange and violent Fits, so that they were unable to give in their Depositions, not only then, but also during the whole Assizes. William Durent being an Infant, his Mother Swore, That Amy Duny looking after her Child one Day in her absence, did at her return confess, that she had given fuck to the Child: (tho' she were an Old Woman:) Whereat, when Durent expressed her displeasure, Duny went away with Discontents and Menaces.

The Night after, the Child fell into strange and fad Fits, wherein it continued for Divers Weeks. One Doctor Jacob advised her to hang up the Childs Blanket, in the Chimney Corner all Day, and at Night, when the went to put the Child into it, if the found any Thing in it then to throw it without fear into the Fire. Accordingly, at Night, there fell a great Toad our of the Blanker, which ran up and down the Hearth. A Boy, catch't it, and held it in the Fire with the Tongs: where it made an horrible Noise, and Flash'd like to Gun-Powder, with a report like that of a Pistol: Whereupon the Toad was no more to be seen. The next Day a Kinfwoman of Duny's, told the Deponent, that her Aunt was all grievously fcorch'd with the Fire, and the Deponent going to her House, found her in fuch a Condition. Duny told her, she might thank her for it; but she should live to see some of her Children Dead, and her self upon Crutches. But after the Burning of the Toad, this Child Recovered.

This Deponent further Testisi'd, That Her Daughter Elizabeth, being about the Age of Ten Years, was taken in like manner, as her first Child was, and in her Fits complained much of Amy Duny, and faid, that she did appear to Her, and afflict her in fuch manner as the former. One Day she found Amy Duny in her House, and thrusting her out of Doors, Duny faid, You need not be fo Angry, your Child won't live long. And within three Days the Child Died. The Deponent added, that the was Her felf, not long after taken with fuch a Lameness, in both her Legs, that she was forced to go upon Churches; and she was now in Court upon them. [It was Remarkable, that immediately upon the Juries bringing in Duny Guilty, Durent was restored unto the use of her Limbs, and went home without her Crutches.

III. As for Elizabeth and Deborah Pacy, one Aged Eleven Years, the other Nine; the elder, being in Court, was made utterly fenfelefs, during all t's time of the Trial: or at least speechless. By the direction of the Judg, Duny was privately brought to Elizabeth Pacy. and she touched her Hand: whereupon the Child, without, fo much as feeing her, fuddenly leap'd up and flew upon the Prisoner; the younger was too ill, to be brought unto the Affizes. But Samuel Pacy, their Father, testifi'd, that his Daughter Deborab was taken with a fudden Lameness; and upon the grumbling of Amy Duny, for being denied fomething, where this Child was then fitting, the Child was taken with an extream pain in her fromach, like the pricking of Pins; and shrieking at a dreadful manner, like a Whelp, rather than a Rational Creature. The Physicians could not conjecture the cause of the Distemper; but Amy Duny being a Woman of ill Fame, and the Child in Fits crying out of Amy Duny, as affrighting her with the Apparition of her Person, the Deponent suspected her, and procured her to be fet in the frocks. While the was there, the faid in the hearing of Two Witnesses, Mr. Pacy keeps a great stir about his Child, but let him stay till be has done as much by his Children, as I have done by mine : And being Asked, What she had done to her Children, she Answered, She had been fain to open ber Childs Mouth with a Tap to give it Victuals. The Deponent added, that within Two Days, the Fits of his Daughters were fuch, that they could not preserve either Life or Breath, without the help of a Tap. And that the Children Cry'd out of Amy Duny, and of Rose Cullender, as afflicting them with their Apparitions.

IV. The Fits of the Children were various. They would fometimes be Lame on one fide; fometimes on t'other. Sometimes very fore; fometimes reftored unto their Limbs, and then Deaf, or Blind, or Dumb, for a long while together. Upon the Recovery of their Speech, they would Cough extreamly; and with much Flegm, they would bring up Crooked Pins; and one time, a Two-penny Nail, with a very broad Head. Commonly at the end of every Pit, they would cast up a Pin. When the Children Read, they could not pronounce the Name of, Lord, or Jesus, or Christ, but would fall into Fits; and say, Amy Duny says, I must not use that Name. When they came to the Name of Satan, or Devil, they would clap their Fingers on the Book, crying out, This bites, but it makes me speak right well! The Children in their Fits would often Cry out, There stands Amy Duny, or Rose Cullender; and they would afterwards relate, That these Witches appearing before them, threatned them, that if they told what they saw or heard, they would Torment them ten times more than ever they did before.

V. Margaret Arnold, the Sifter of Mr. Pacy, Testisi'd unto the like Sufferings being upon the Children, at her House, whither her Brother had Removed them. And that fometimes, the Children (only) would fee things like Mice, run about the House; and one of them suddenly snap'd one with the Tongs, and threw it into the Fire, where it screeched out like a Rat. At another time, a thing like a Bee, flew at the Face of the younger Child; the Child fell into a Fit; and at lift Vomited up a Twopenny Nail, with a Broad Head; affirming, That the Bee brought this Nail, and forced it into her Mouth. The Child would in like manner be affaulted with Flies, which brought Crooked Pins, unto her, and made her first fwallow them, and then Vomit them. She one Day caught an Invitio c Mouse, and throwing it into the Fire, it Flash'd like to Gun-Powder. None besi les the Child saw the Mouse, but every one saw the Flash. She also declared, out of her Fits, that in them, Amy Duny much tempted her to deftroy her felf.

VI. As for Ann Durent, her Father Testified, That upon a Discontent of Rose Cullender, his Daughter was taken with much Illness in her Stomach and great and fore Pains, like the Pricking of Pins: and then Swooning Fits, from which Recovering, she declared, She had seen the Apparition of Rose Cullender, Threatning to Torment her. She likewife Vomited up diverse Pins. The Maid was Prefent at Court, but when Cullender look'd upon her, the fell into fuch Fits, as made her utterly unable to declare any thing.

Ann Baldwin deposed the same.

VII. Jane Bocking, was too weak to be at the Affizes. But her Mother Testisi'd, that her Daughter having formerly been Afflicted with Swooning Fits, and Recovered of them; was now taken with a great Pain in her Stomach; and New Swooning Fits. That she took little Food, but every Day Vomited Crooked Pins. In her first Fits, she would Extend her Arms, and use Postures, as if she catched at something, and when her Clutched Hands were forced open, they would find feveral Pins diverfely Crooked, unaccountably lodged there. She would also maintain a Difcourse with some that were Invisibly present, when casting abroad her Arms, she would often fay, I will not have it! but at last fay, Then I will have it! and clofing her Hand, which when they presently after opened, a Lath Nail was found in it. But her great Complaints were of being Vifited by the shapes of Amy Duny, and Rose Cullender.

VIII. As for Susan Chandler, her Mother Testified, That being at the fearch of Rose Cullender, they found on her Belly a thing like a Teat, of an Inch long; which the faid Rose ascribed to a strain. But near her Privy-parts, they found Three more, that were fmaller than the former. At the end of the long Tear, there was a little Hole, which appeared, as if newly Sucked; and upon straining it, a white Milky matter issued out. The Deponent further faid, That her Daughter being one Day concerned at Rose Cullenders taking her by the Hand, she fell very fick, and at Night cry'd out, That Rose Cullender would come to Bed unto her. Her Fits grew violent, and in the Intervals of them, the declared, That the faw Rose Cullender in them, and once having of a great Dog with ber. She also Vomited up Crooked Pins; and when the was brought into Court, the fell into her Fits. She Recovered her felf in some Time, and was asked by the Court, whether she was in a Condition to take an Oath, and give Evidence. She faid, the could; but having been Sworn, the fell into her Fits again, and, Burn ber! Burn ber! were all the words that she could of tain power to speak. Her Father likewise gave the same Testimony with her Mother; as to all but the Search.

IX Here was the Sum of the Evidence: Which Mr. Serjeant Keeling, thought not fufficient to Convict the Priloners. For admitting the Children were Bewirched, yet, faid he, it can never be Apply'd unto the Prifoners, upon the Imagination only of the Parties Afflicted; inafmuch as no person whatsoever could then be in Safety.

Dr. Brown, a very Learned Person then present, gave his Opinion, that these persons were Bewitched. He added, That in Denmark, there had been lately a great Discovery of Witches; who used the very same way of Afflicting people, by Conveying Pins and Nails into them. His Opinion was, that the Devil in Witchcrafts, did Work upon the Bodies of Men and Women, upon a Natural Foundation; and that he did Extraordinarily afflict them, with fuch Diftempers as their Bodies were most subject unto.

X. The Experiment about the Usefulness, yea, or Lawfulness whereof Good Men have fometimes disputed, was divers Times made, That tho' the Afflicted were utterly deprived of all fense in their Fits, yet upon the Touch of the Accused, they would so screech out, and sly up, as not upon any other persons. And yet it was also found that once upon the touch of an innocent person, the like effect follow'd, which put the whole Court unto a stand: altho' a finall Reason was at length attempted to be given for it.

XI. However, to strengthen the Credit of what had been already produced against the Prisoners, One John Soam Testified, That bringing home his Hay in Three Carts, one of the Carts wrenched the Window of Rose Cullenders House, whereupon she slew out, with violent Threatenings against the Deponent. The other Two Carts, passed by Twice, Loaded, that Day afterwards; but the Cart which touched Cullenders House, was Twice or Thrice that Day overturned. Having again Loaded it, as they brought it thro' the Gate which Leads out of the Field, the Cart struck fo fast in the Gates Head, that they could not possibly get it thro', but were forced to cut down the Post of the Gate, to make the Cart pass thro', altho' they could not perceive that the Cart did of either fide touch the Gate-Post. They afterwards, did with much Difficulty get it home to the Yard; but could not for their Lives get the Care near the place, where they should unload. They were fain to unload at a great Distance; and when they were Tired, the Nofes of them that came to Affift them, would burft forth a Bleeding; so they were fain to give over till next morning; and then they unloaded without any difficulty.

XII. Robert Sherringham also Testisi'd, That the Axle-Tree of his Cart, happening in passing, to break some part of Rose Cullenders House, in her Anger at it, she vehemently threatned him, His Horses should suffer for it. And within a fhort time, all his Four Horfes dy'd; after which he fuftained many other Losses in the sudden Dying of his Cattle. He was also taken with a Lameness in his Limbs; and so vexed with Lice of an extraordinary Number and Bigness, that no Art could hinder the Swarming of them, till he burnt up two Suits of Apparel.

XIII. As for Amy Dany, 'twas Testiss'd by one Richard Spencer that he heard her say, The Devil would not let her Rest; until she were Revenged on the Wife of Cornelius Sandswel. And that Sandswel testiss'd, that her Poultry dy'd suddenly, upon Amy Dunys threatning of them; and that her Husbands Chimney sell, quickly after Duny had spoken of such a disaster. And a Firkin of Fish could not be kept from falling into the Water, upon fulpicious words of Duny's.

XIV. The Judg told the Jury, they were to inquire now, first, whether these Children were Bewirched; and secondly, Whether the Prisoners at the Bar were guilty of it. He made no doubt, there were such Creatures as Witches; for the Scriptures affirmed it; and the Wisdom of all Nations had provided Laws against such persons. He pray'd the God of Heaven to direct their Hearts in the weighty thing they had in hand; for, To Condemn the Innocent, and let the Guilty go free, were both an Abomination to the Lord.

The Jury in half an hour brought them in Guilty upon their feveral Indictments, which were Nineteen in Number.

The next Morning, the Children with their Parents, came to the Lodgings of the Lord Chief Justice, and were in as good health as ever in their Lives; being Restored within half an Hour after the Witches were Convicted.

The Witches were Executed; and Confessed nothing; which indeed will not be wondred by them, who Consider and Entertain the Judgment of a Judicious Writer, That the Unpardonable Sin, is most usually Committed by Professors of the Christian Religion, falling into Witchcraft.

We will now proceed unto feveral of the like Tryals among our

At a Court of

OFER and TERMINER,

Held in S A L E M, 1692.

Lad should I have been, if I had never known the Name of this Man; or never had this occasion to mention so much as the first Letters of his Name. But the Government requiring some Account of his Trial

Trial to be inferted in this Book, it becomes me with all Obedience to fubmit unto the Order.

I. This G. B. Was Indicted for Witch-craft, and in the profecution of the Charge against him, he was Accused by five or fix of the Bewitched, as the Author of their Miseries; he was Accused by Eight of the Confessing Witches, as being an head Actor at some of their Hellish Randezvouzes, and one who had the promise of being a King in Satan's Kingdom, now going to be Erected: He was accused by Nine Persons for extraordinary Listing, and such feats of Strength, as could not be done without a Diabolical Assistance. And for other such things he was Accused, until about thirty Testimonies were brought in against him; nor were these judg'd the half of what might have been considered for his Conviction: However they were enough to fix the Character of a Witch upon him according to the Rules of Reasoning, by the Judicious Gaule, in that Case directed.

II. The Court being fensible, that the Testimonies of the Parties Bewitched, use to have a Room among the Suspicions or Presumptions, brought in against one one Indicted for Witch-craft; there were now heard the Testimonies of several Persons, who were most notoriously Bewitched, and every day Tortured by Invisible Hands, and these now all charged the Spectres of G. B. to have a share in their Torments. At the Examination of this G. B. the Bewirched People were grievoully harraffed with Preternatural Mischiefs, which could not possibly be Diffembled; and they still ascribed it unto the endeavours of G. B. to Kill them. And now upon the Tryal of one of the Bewitched Persons, testified, that in her Agonies, a little black Hair'd Man came to her, faying his Name was B. and bidding her fet her hand to a Book which he shewed unto her; and bragging that he was a Conjurer, above the ordinary Rank of Witches; That he often Persecuted her with the offer of that Book, faying, She should be well, and need fear nobody, if she would but Sign it; But he inflicted cruel Pains and Hurts upon her, because of her denying fo to do. The Testimonies of the other Sufferers concurred with these; and it was remarkable, that whereas Biting was one of the ways which the Witches used for the vexing of the Sutterers; when they cry'd out of G. B. Biting them, the print of the Teeth would be feen on the Flesh of the Complainers, and just such a Set of Teeth as G. B's would then appear upon them, which could be diffinguished from those of some other Mens. Others of them testified, That in their Torments, G. B. tempted them to go unto a Sacrament, unto which they perceived him with a Sound of Trumper, Summoning of other Witches, who quickly after the Sound, would come from all Quarters unto the Rendezvouz. One of them falling into a kind of Trance, affirmed, that G. B. had carried her away into a very high Mountain, where he shewed her mighty and glorious Kingdoms, and faid, He would give them all to her, if the would

write in his Book; but she cold him, They were none of his to give ;and refufed the Motions; enduring of much Mifery for that refufal.

It cost the Court a wonderful deal of Trouble, to hear the Testimomonies of the Sufferers; for when they were going to give in their Dopositions, they would for a long time be taken with Fits, that made them uncapable of faying any thing. The Chief Judg asked the Prifoner, who he thought hindred thefe Witnesses from giving their Testimonies? And he answered, He supposed it was the Devil. That Honourable Person replied, How comes the Devil then to be so loath to have any Testimony born against you? Which east him into very great Confusion.

III. It has been a frequent thing for the Bewitched People to be entertained with Apparitions of Ghofts of Murdered People, at the fame time that the Spectres of the Witches trouble them. These Ghosts do always affright the Beholders more than all the other spectral Representations; and when they exhibit themselves, they cry out, of being Murthered by the Witch crafts or other Violences of the Perfons who are then in Spe-Are present. It is further considered, that once or twice, these Apparitions have been feen by others, at the very fame time they have thewn themselves to the Bewitched; and seldom have there been these Apparitions, but when something unusual or suspected, have attended the Death of the Party thus Appearing. Some that have been accused by these Apparitions accosting of the Bewitched People, who had never heard a word of any fuch Persons ever being in the World, have upon a fair Examination, freely and fully confessed the Murthers of those very Persons, altho' thefe also did not know how the Apparitions had complained of them. Accordingly feveral of the Bewitched, had given in their Testimony, that they had been troubled with the Apparitions of two Women, who faid, that they were G. B's two Wives, and that he had been the Death of them; and that the Magistrates must be told of it, before whom if B. upon his Tryal denied it, they did not know but that they should appear again in Court. Now, G. B. had been Infamous for the Barbarous usage of his two late Wives, all the Country over. Moreover, it was tellified, the Spectre of G. B. threatning of the Sufferers, told them, he had Killed (besides others) Mrs. Lawson and her Daughter Ann. And it was noted, that these were the Vertuous Wife and Daughter of one at whom this G. B. might have a prejudice for his being serviceable at Salem Village, from whence himself had in ill Terms removed some Years before: And that when they dy'd, which was long fince, there were fome odd Circumstances about them, which made some of the Attendents there suspect something of Witch-crast, tho none Imagined from what Quarter it should come.

Well, G. B. being now upon his Tryal, one of the Bewitched Perfons was cast into Horror at the Ghost of Bs two Deceased Wives then appearing before him, and erying for Vengeance against him. Hereupon feveral of the Bewitched Persons were successively called in, who all not knowing what the former had feen and faid, concurred in their Horror of the Apparition, which they affirmed that he had before him. But he, tho much appalled, utterly deny'd that he difcerned any thing of it; nor was it any part of his Conviction.

IV. Judicious Writers have affigned it a great place in the Conviction of Witches, when Persons are Impeached by other notorious Witches, to be as ill as themselves; especially, if the Persons have been much noted for neglecting the Worship of God. Now, as there might have been Testimonies enough of G. B's Antipathy to Prayer, and the other Ordinances of God, tho by his Profession, singularly Obliged thereunto; so, there now came in against the Prisoner, the Testimonies of several Persons, who confessed their own having been horrible Watches, and ever fince their Confessions, had been themselves terribly Tortured by the Devils and other Witches, even like the other Sufferers; and therein undergone the Pains of many Deaths for their Confessions.

These now testified, that G. B. had been at Witch-meetings with them; and that he was the Person who had Seduc'd, and Compell'd them into the snares of Witch-craft: That he promifed them Fine Cloaths, for doing it; that he brought Poppets to them, and Thorns to stick into those Poppets, for the Afflicting of other People; and that he exhorted them with the reft of the Crew, to Bewitch all Salem Village, but befure to do it Gradually, if they would prevail in what they did.

When the Lancashire Witches were Condemn'd, I don't remember that there was any confiderable further Evidence, than that of the Bewitched, and than that of some that confessed. We see so much already against G. B. But this being indeed not enough, there were other things to render what had been already produced credible.

V. A famous Divine recites this among the Convictions of a Witch; The Testimony of the party Bewitched, whether Pining or Dying; together with the joint Oaths of Sufficient Persons that have seen certain Prodigious Pranks or Feats wrought by the Party Accused. Now, God had been pleased so to leave this G. B. that he had enfinared himfelf by feveral Instances, which he had formerly given of a Preternatural Strength, and which were now produced against him. He was a very Puny Man, yet he had often done things beyond the strength of a Giant. A Gun of about seven foot Barrel, and fo heavy that strong Men could not steadily hold it out with both hands; there were feveral Testimonies, given in by Persons of Credit and Honor, that he made nothing of taking up fuch a Gun behind the Lock, with but one hand, and holding it out like a Piftol, at Arms-end. G. B. in his Vindication, was fo foolish as to fay, That an Indian was there, and beld it out at the same time: Whereas none of the Spectators ever law any fuch Indian; but they supposed, the Black Man, (as the Witches call the Devil; and they generally fay he refembles an Indian) might give him that Affiftance. There was Evidence likewise brought in, that he made nothing of taking up whole Barrel fill'd with Malaffes or Cider, in very disadvantageous Postures, and Carrying of them through the difficultest Places out of a Canoo to the Shore.

Yea, there were two Testimonies, that G. B. with only putting the Fore Finger of his Right hand into the Muzzle of an heavy Gun, a Fowling-piece of about fix or feven foot Barrel, did lift up the Gun, and hold it out at Arms-end; a Gun which the Deponents thought strong Men could not with both hands lift up, and hold out at the Butend, as is usual. Indeed, one of these Witnesses was over-perswaded by fome Persons, to be out of the way upon G. B's Tryal; but he came afterwards with Sorrow for his withdraw, and gave in his Teftimony: Nor were either of these Witnesses made use of as Evidences in the Trial.

VI. There came in feveral Testimonies relating to the Domestick Affairs of G. B. which had a very hard Afpect upon him; and not only prov'd him a very ill Man; but also confirmed the belief of the Character, which had been already fastned on him.

'Twas testified, that keeping his two Successive Wives in a strange kind of Slavery, he would when he came home from abroad, pretend to tell the Talk which any had with them; That he has brought them to the point of Death, by his harsh Dealings with his Wives, and then made the People about him, to promife that in case Death should happen, they would fay nothing of it; That he used all means to make his Wives Write, Sign, Seal, and Swear a Covenant, never to reveal any of his Secrets; That his Wives had privately complained unto the Neighbours about frightful Apparitions of Evil Spirits, with which their House was sometimes intested; and that many fuch things have been whifpered among the Neighbourhood. There were also some other Testimonies relating to the Death of People whereby the Consciences of an Impartial Jury were convinced that G. B, had Bewitched the Persons mentioned in the Complaints. But I am forced to omit feveral fuch passages, in this, as well as in all the succeeding Tryals, because the Scribes who took notice of them, have not supplyed me.

VII. One Mr. Ruck, Brother-in-Law to this G. B. teffified, that G. B. and himself, and his Sister, who was G. B's Wife, going out for two or three Miles to gather Straw-berries, Ruck with his Sifter, the Wife of G. B. Rode home very Softly, with G. B. on Foot in their Company, G. B. Rept afide a little into the Bushes; whereupon they halted and Halloo'd for him. He not answering, they went away homewards, with a queikened pace, without expectation of feeing him in a confiderable while; and yet when they were got near home, to their Aftonishment, they found him on foot with them, having a Basket of Straw-berries. G. B. immediately then fell to Chiding his Wife, on the account of what the had been fpeaking to her Brother, of him, on the Road: which when they wondred at, he faid, He knew their thoughts. Ruck being startled at that, made some Reply, intimating, that the Devil himself did not know to far; but G. B. answered, My God makes known your Thoughts unto me. The Prisoner now at the Bar had nothing to answer, unto what was thus witnessed against him, that was worth considering. Only he said, Ruck, and his Wife left a Man with him, when they left him. Which Ruck now affirm'd to be falle; and when the Court asked G. B. What the Man's Name was? his Countenance was much altered; nor could he fay, who 'twas. But the Court began to think, that he then step'd aside, only that by the assistance of the Black Man, he might put on his Invisibility, and in that Fascinating Mist, gratific his own Jealous Humour, to hear what they faid of him. Which trick of rendring themselves Invisible, our Witches do in their Confessions pretend, that they sometimes are Masters of; and it is the more credible, because there is Demonstration, that they often render many other things utterly Invisible.

VIII. Faltring, faulty, unconstant, and contrary Answers upon judicial and deliberate Examination, are counted some unlucky Symptoms of Guilt, in all Crimes, especially in Witchcrafts. Now there never was a Prisoner more emineat for them, than G. B. both at his Examination and on his Trial. His Tergiversations, Contradictions, and Falshoods, were very sensible: he had little to fay, but that he had heard fome things that he could not prove, Reflecting upon the Reputation of some of the Witnesses. Only he gave in a Paper to the Jury; wherein, altho' he had many times before, granted, not only that there are Witches, but also, that the present Sufferings of the Country are the effects of horrible Witchcrafts, yet he now goes to evince it, That there neither are, nor ever were Witches, that having made a Compact with the Devil, can fend a Devil to Torment other people at a distance. This Paper was Transcribed out of Ady; which the Court presently knew, as soon as they heard it. But he faid, he had taken none of it out of any Book; for which, his Evalion afterwards, was, That a Gentleman gave him the Discourse in a Manuscript, from whence he Transcribed it.

IX. The Jury brought him in Guilty: But when he came to Die, he utterly deni'd the Fact, whereof he had been thus convicted.

II. The Tryal of Bridget Bishop, alias Oliver, at the Court of Over and Terminer, held at Salem, June 2. 1692.

I. CHe was Indicted for Bewitching of feveral Persons in the Neigh-Dourhood, the Indiament being drawn up, according to the Form in firch Cases usual. And pleading, Not Guilty, there were brought in several persons, who had long undergone many kinds of Miseries, which were preternaturally inflicted, and generally afcribed unto an borrible Witchcraft. There was little occasion to prove the Witcheraft, it being evident and notorious to all beholders. Now to fix the Witchcraft on the Prisoner at the Bar, the first thing used, was the Testimony of the Bewitched; whereof feveral teftifid, That the Shape of the Prisoner did oftentimes very grievoully Pinch them, Choak them, Bite them, and Afflict them; urging them to write their Names in a Book, which the faid Spectre called, Owrs. One of them did further teffifie, that it was the Shape of this Prifoner, with another, which one day took her from her Wheel, and carrying her to the River-fide, threatned there to Drown her, if the did not Sign to the Book mentioned: which yet file refused. Others of them did also testifie, that the faid Shape, did in her Threats brag to them, that she had been the Death of fundry Persons, then by her named; that she had Ridden a Man then likewise named. Another testifi'd, the Apparition of Ghosts unto the Spectre of Bishop, crying out, Ton Murdered is! About the Truth whereof, there was in the Marter of Fact but too much suspicion

II. It was testifi'd, That at the Examination of the Prisoner before the Magistrates, the Bewitched were extreamly tortured. If she did but cast her Eyes on them, they were presently struck down; and this in fuch a manner as there could be no Collusion in the Business. But upon the Touch of her Hand upon them, when they lay in their Swoons, they would immediately Revive; and not upon the Touch of any ones else. Moreover, Upon some Special Actions of her Body, as the shaking of her Head, or the turning of her Eyes, they prefently and painfully fell into the like postures. And many of the like Accidents now fell out, while she was at the Bar. One at the fame time testifying, That she faid, She could not be troubled to fee the afflicted thus tormented.

III. There was Testimony likewise brought in, that a Man striking once at the place, where a bewitched person said, the Shape of this Bishop stood. the bewitched cried out, That be had tore ber Coat, in the place then particularly specifi'd; and the Woman's Coat was found to be Torn in that very place.

IV. One Deliverance Hobbs, who had confessed her being a Witch, was now tormented by the Spectres, for her Confession. And she now testifi'd, That this Bishop tempted her to Sign the Book again, and to deny what fhe had confess'd. She affirm'd, That it was the Shape of this Prisoner, which whipped her with Iron Rods, to compel her thereunto. And the affirmed, that this Bishop was at a General Meeting of the Witches, in a Field at Salem-Village, and there partook of a Diabolical Sacrament in Bread and Wine then administred.

V. To render it further unquestionable, that the Prisoner at the Bar, was the Person truly charged in THIS Witchcraft, there were produced many Evidences of OTHER Wischerafts, by her perpetrated. For Inflance, John Cook teftifi'd, That about five or fix Years ago, one Morning, about Sun-Rife, he was in his Chamber affaulted by the Shape of this Prifoner: which look'd on him, grinn'd at him, and very much hurt him with a Blow on the fide of the Head: and that on the same day, about Noon, the same Shape walked in the Room where he was, and an Apple strangely flew out of his Hand, into the Lap of his Mother, fix or eight Foot from him.

VI. Samuel Gray tellifi'd, That about fourteen Years ago, he wak'd on a Night, and faw the Room where he lay full of Light; and that he then faw plainly a Woman between the Cradle, and the Bed-fide, which look'd upon him. He rose, and it vanished; tho' he found the Doors all fast. Looking out at the Entry-door, he faw the fame Woman, in the fame Garb again; and faid, In God's Name, what do you come for? He went to Bed, and had the fame Woman again affaulting him. The Child in the Cradle gave a great Screech, and the Woman disappeared. It was long before the Child could be quieted; and tho' it were a very likely thriving Child, yet from this time it pined away, and, after divers Months, died in a fad Condition. He knew not Bishop, nor her Name; but when he saw her after this, he knew by her Countenance, and Apparel, and all Circumstances, that it was the Apparition of this Bishop, which had thus troubled him.

VII. John Bly and his Wife testifi'd, That he bought a Sow of Edward Bishop, the Husband of the Prisoner; and was to pay the Price agreed, unto another person. This Prisoner being angry that she was thus hindred from fingring the Mony, quarrell'd with Bly. Soon after which, the Sow was taken with strange Fits; Jumping, Leaping, and Knocking her Head against the Fence; she seem'd Blind and Deaf, and would neither Eat nor be Suck'd. Whereapon a Neighbour faid, the believed the Creature was Over-looked: and fundry other Circumstances concurred, which made the Deponents believe that Bishop had bewitched it.

VIII. Richard Coman testisi'd, That eight Years ago, as he lay awake in his Bed, with a Light burning in the Room, he was approved with the Apparition of this Bifbep, and of two more that were strangers to him, who came and oppressed him so, that he could neither stir himself, nor wake any one elfe. and that he was the Night after, molested again in the like manner: the faid Biffor, taking him by the Throat, and pulling him almost out of the Bed. His Kinfman offered for this cause to lodge with him; and that Night, as they were awake, discoursing together, this Coman was once more vilited by the Guefts which had formerly been fo troublefom; his Kinfman being at the fame time ftruck speechless, and unable to move Hand or ged, at the awake in the Naght by MoonFoot. He had laid his Sword by him, which these unhappy Spectres did strive much to wrest from him; only he held too fast for them. He then grew able to call the People of his House; but althor they heard him, yet they had not power to speak or stir; until at last, one of the People crying out, VVhar's the matter? The Spectres all vanished.

The Wonders of the

IX. Samuel Sharrock testify'd, That in the Year, 1680. this Bridget Bishop, often came to his House upon such frivolous and foolish Errands, that they suspected she came indeed with a purpose of mischief. Presently, whereupon, his eldest Child, which was of as promising Health and Sense, as any Child of its Age, began to droop exceedingly; and the oftner that Bishop came to the House, the worse grew the Child. As the Child would be standing at the Door, he would be thrown and bruifed against the Stones, by an invisible Hand, and in like fort knock his Face against the sides of the House, and bruise it after a miserable manner. Afterwards this Bishop would bring him things to Dye, whereof he could not imagin any use; and when the paid him a piece of Mony, the Purfe and Mony were unaccountably conveyed out of a lock'd Box, and never feen any more. The Child was immediately, hereupon, taken with terrible Fits, whereof his Friends thought he would have dyed: Indeed he did almost nothing but Cry and Sleep for feveral Months together; and at length his Understanding was utterly taken away. Among other Symptoms of an Inchantment upon him, one was, That there was a Board in the Garden, whereon he would walk; and all the Invitations in the World could never fetch him off. About 17 or 18 years after, there came a Stranger to Shattock's House, who feeing the Child, faid, This poor Child is Bewitched; and you have a Neighbour living not far off, who is a Witch. He added, Your Neighbour has had a falling out with your Wife; and she said, in her Heart, your Wife is a proud VV oman, and the would bring down her Pride in this Child. He then remembred, that Bishop had parted from his Wife in muttering and menacing Terms, a little before the Child was taken Ill. The abovefaid Stranger would needs carry the bewitched Boy with him, to Bishop's House, on pretence of buying a pot of Cyder. The Woman entertained him in furious manner; and flew also upon the Boy, scratching his Face till the Blood came; and faving, Thou Rogue, what dost thou bring this Fellow here to plague me? Now it feems the Man had faid, before he went, That he would fetch Blood of ber. Ever after the Boy was follow'd with grievous Fits, which the Doctors themselves generally ascribed unto VVitcheraft; and wherein he would be thrown still into the Fire or the VVater, if he were notconstantly look'd after; and it was verily believed that Bishop was the cause of it.

X. John Louder testify'd, That upon some little Controversy with Bishop about her Fowls, going well to Bed, he did awake in the Night by Moon-light light, and did fee clearly the likeness of this Woman grievously oppressing him; in which miserable condition she sheld him, unable to help himself, till near Day. He told Bishop of this; but she deny'd it, and threatned him very much. Quickly after this, being at home on a Lords day, with the doors shut about him, he saw a black Pig approach him; at which, he going to kick, it vanished away. Immediately after, sitting down, he saw a black Thing jump in at the Window, and come and stand before him. The Body was like that of a Monkey, the Feet like a Cocks, but the Face much like a Mans. He being so extreamly affrighted, that he could not speak; this Monster spoke to him, and faid, I am a Messenger sent unto you, for I underst and that you are in some Trouble of Mind, and if you will be ruled by me, you shall mant for nothing in this VVorld. Whereupon he endeavoured to clap his Hands upon it; but he could feel no substance; and it jumped out of the Window again; but immediately came in by the Porch, tho' the Doors were shut, and faid, You had better take my Counsel! He then struck at it with a Stick, but ftruck only the Ground-fel, and broke the Stick: The Arm with which he struck was presently Disenabled, and it vanished away. He presently went out at the Back-door, and spied this Bishop, in her Orchard, going toward her House; but he had not power to set one foot forward unto her. Whereupon, returning into the House, he was immediately accofted by the Monster he had feen before; which Goblin was now going to fly at him; whereat he cry'd out, The whole Armour of God be between me and you! So it sprang back, and flew over the Apple-tree; shaking many Apples off the Tree, in its flying over. At its leap, it flung Dirt with its Feet against the Stomack of the Man; whereon he was then struck Dumb, and fo continued for three Days together. Upon the producing of this Testimony, Bishop deny'd that she knew this Deponent : Yet their two Orchards joined; and they had often had their little Quarrels for some years together,

XI. Villiam Stacy testify'd, That receiving Mony of this Bishop, for work done by him; he was gone but a matter of three Rods from her, and looking for his Mony, found it unaccountably gone from him. Some time after, Bishop asked him, whether her Father would grind her Grist for her? He demanded why? She reply'd, Because Folks count me a VVuch. He answered, No question but he will grind it for you. Being then gone about six Rods from her, with a small Load in his Cart, suddenly the Oss-wheel stump'd, and sunk down into an hole, upon plain Ground; so that the Deponent was forced to get help for the recovering of the Wheel: But stepping back to look for the hole, which might give him this Distaster, there was none at all to be found. Some time after, he was waked in the Night; but it seem'd as light as day; and he perfectly saw the shape of this

Bihop

Bishop in the Room, troubling of him; but upon her going out, all was dark again. He charg'd Bishop afterwards with it, and she deny'd it not; but was very angry. Quickly after, this Deponent having been threatned by Bifliop, as he was in a dark Night going to the Barn, he was very fuddenly taken or lifted from the Ground, and thrown against a Stone-wall : After that, he was again hoisted up and thrown down a Bank, at the end of his House. After this again, passing by this Bishop, his Horse with a finall Load, striving to draw, all his Gears flew to pieces, and the Cart fell down; and this Deponent going then to lift a Bag of Corn, of about two Bushels, could not budge it with all his Might.

Many other Pranks of this Bishop's this Deponent was ready to testify. He also testify'd, That he verily believ'd, the said Bishop, was the Instrument of his Daughter Priscilla's Death; of which suspicion, pregnant Reasons were assigned.

XII. To crown all, John Bly and VVilliam Bly testify'd, That being employ d by Bridget Bishop, to help to take down the Cellar-wall of the old House wherein she formerly lived, they did in holes of the said old Wall, find several Poppets, made up of Rags and Hogs-brittles, with headless Pins in them, the Points being outward; whereof she could now give no Account unto the Court, that was reasonable or tolerable.

XIII. One thing that made against the Prisoner was, her being evidently convicted of grofs Lying in the Court, feveral times, while she was making her Plea; but besides this, a Jury of Women found a preternatural Teat upon her Body : But upon a fecond fearch, within 3 or 4 hours, there was no fuch thing to be feen. There was also an Account of other People whom this Woman had afflicted; and there might have been many more, if they had been enquired for; but there was no need of them.

XVI. There was one very ftrange thing more, with which the Court was newly entertained. As this Woman was under a Guard, passing by the great and spacious Meeting-house of Salem, she gave a look towards the House: And immediately a Demon invisibly entring the Meeting house, tore down a part of it; fo that tho' there was no Person to be seen there, yet the People, at the noise, running in, found a Board, which was firongly fastned with several Nails, transported unto another quarter of the House.

ny Persons very sensibly and grievously Bewitched; who all complained of the Prisoner at the Bar, as the Person whom they believed the cause of their Miferies. And now, as well as in the other Trials, there was an extraordinary Endeavour by Witchcrafts, with Cruel and frequent Fits, to hinder the poor Sufferers from giving in their Complaints, which the Court was forced with much Patience to obtain, by much waiting and watching for it.

II. There was now also an account given of what passed at her first Examination before the Magistrates. The Cast of her Eye, then striking the afflicted People to the Ground, whether they faw that Cast or no; there were these among other Passages between the Magistrates and the Examinate.

Magistrate. Pray, what ails these People?

Martin. I don't know.

Magistrate. But what do you think ails them ?

Martin. I don't defire to spend my Judgment upon it.

Magistrate. Don't you think they are bewitch'd?

Martin. No, I do not think they are.

Magistrate. Tell us your Thoughts about them then.

Martin. No, my thoughts are my own, when they are in, but when they are out they are anothers. Their Master.

Magistrate. Their Master? who do you think is their Master?

Martin. If they be dealing in the Black Art, you may know as well as I. Magistrate. Well, what have you done towards this?

Martin. Nothing at all.

Magistrate. Why, 'tis you or your Appearance.

Martin. I cannot help it.

Magist. Is it not your Master? How comes your Appearance to hurt these? Martin. How do I know? He that appeared in the Shape of Samuel, a glorified Saint, may appear in any ones Shape.

It was then also noted in her, as in others like her, that if the Afflicted went to approach her, they were flung down to the Ground. And, when the was asked the Reafon of it, the faid, I cannot tell; it may be, the Devil bears me more Malice than another.

III. The Court accounted themselves, alarum'd by these Things, to enquire further into the Conversation of the Prisoner; and see what there might occur, to render these Accusations further credible. Whereupon, John Allen of Salisbury, testify'd, That he refusing, because of the weakness of his Oxen, to Cart some Staves at the request of this Marrin, she was displeased at it; and said, It had been as good that he had; for his Oxen should never do him much more Service. Whereupon, this Deponent said, Dost thou threaten me, thou old VVisch? Pl throw thee imo the Brook: Which to avoid, she flew over the Bridge, and escaped. But, as he was going home, one of his Oxen tired, fo that he was forced to Unyoke him, that he might get him home. He then put his Oxen, with many more, upon Salifbury Beach, where Cattle did use to get Flesh. In a few days, all the Oxen upon the Beach were found by their Tracks, to have run unto the Mouth of Merrimack-River, and not returned; but the next day they were found come ashore upon Plum-Island. They that fought them, used all imaginable gentleness, but they would still run away with a violence, that seemed wholly Diabolical, till they came near the Mouth of Merrimack-River; when they ran right into the Sea, swimming as far as they could be seen. One of them then swam back again, with a swiftness, amazing to the Beholders, who flood ready to receive him, and help up his tired Carcais: But the Beaft ran furioufly up into the Island, and from thence, thorough the Marshes, up into Newbary Town, and fo up into the Woods; and there after a while found near Amesbury. So that, of fourteen good Oxen, there was only this faved: The rest were all cast up, some in one place, and fome in another, Drowned.

III. The Tryal of Susanna Martin, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, held by Adjournment at Salem, June 29. 1692.

IV. John Atkinson testisid, That he exchanged a Cow, with a Son of Susanna Martin's, whereat she muttered, and was unwilling he should have it. Going to receive this Cow, tho he Hamstring'd her, and Halter'd her, she, of a Tame Creature, grew so mad, that they could scarce get her along. She broke all the Ropes that were fastned unto her, and though she were ty'd fast unto a Tree, yet she made her escape, and gave them such further trouble, as they could ascribe to no cause but Witchcraft.

V. Bernard Peache testified, That being in Bed, on the Lord's day Night, he heard a scrabbling at the Window, whereat he then saw Susama Martim come in, and jump down upon the Floor. She took hold of this Deponent's Feet, and drawing his Body up into an Heap, she lay upon him near Two Hours; in all which time he could neither speak nor stir. At length, when he could begin to move, he laid hold on her Hand, and pulling it up to his Mouth, he bit three of her Fingers, as he judged, unto the Bone. Whereupon she went from the Chamber, down the Stairs, out at the Door. This Deponent thereupon called unto the People of the House, to advise them of what passed; and he himself did follow her. The People saw her not; but there being a Bucket at the Lest-hand of the Door, there was a drop of Blood found upon it; and several more drops of Blood upon the Snow newly sallen abroad: There was likewise the print of her 2 Feet just without the Threshold; but no more sign of any Footing surther off.

At another time this Deponent was defired by the Prisoner, to come unto an Husking of Corn, at her House; and she said, If he did not come, it were better that he did! He went not; but the Night following, Susanna Martin.

Martin, as he judged, and another came towards him. One of them faid, Here he his! but he having a Quarter staff, made a Blow at them. The Roof of the Barn, broke his Blow; but following them to the Window, he made another Blow at them, and struck them down; yet they got up, and got out, and he saw no more of them.

About this time, there was a Rumour about the Town, that Martin had a Broken Head; but the Deponent could fay nothing to that.

The faid Peache also testifi'd, the Bewitching the Cattle to Death, upon Martin's Discontents.

VI. Robert Downer testified, That this Prisoner being some Years ago prosecuted at Court for a Witch, he then said unto her, He believed she was a Witch. Whereat she being dissatisfied, said, That some She-Devil would shortly fetch him away! Which words were heard by others, as well as himself. The Night following, as he lay in his Bed, there came in at the Window, the likeness of a Cat, which shew upon him, took fast hold of his Throat, lay on him a considerable while, and almost killed him. At length he remembred what Susanna Martin had threatned the Day before; and with much striving he cried out, Avoid, thou She-Devil! In the Name of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, Avoid! Whereupon it left him, leap'd on the Floor, and shew out at the Window.

And there also came in several Testimonies, that before ever Downer spoke a word of this Accident, Susanna Martin and her Family had related,

How this Downer had been handled!

VII. John Kembal testified, that Susama Martin, upon a Causeless Difgust, had threatned him, about a certain Cow of his, That she should never do him any more Good: and it came to pass accordingly. For soon after the Cow was found stark dead on the dry Ground, without any Distemper to be discerned upon her. Upon which he was followed with a strange Death upon more of his Cattle, whereof he lost in one Spring to the Value of Thirty Pounds. But the said John Kembal had a further Testimony to give in against the Prisoner which was truly admirable.

Being desirous to furnish himself with a Dog, he applied himself to buy one of this Martin, who had a Bitch with Whelps in her House. But she not letting him have his choice, he said, he would supply himself then at one Blezdels. Having mark'd a Puppy, which he lik'd at Blezdels, he met George Martin, the Husband of the Prisoner, going by, who asked him, Whether he would not have one of his Wive's Puppies? and he answered, No. The same Day, one Edmond Elist, being at Martin's House, heard George Martin relate, where this Kembal had been, and what he had said. Whereupon Susanna Martin replied, If I live, I'll give him Puppies enough! Within a few days after, this Kembal, coming out of the Woods, there arose a little Black

Cloud in the N. W. and Kembal immediately felt a force upon him, which made him not able to avoid running upon the stumps of Trees, that were before him, albeit he had a broad, plain Cart-way, before him; but tho' he had his Ax also on his Shoulder to endanger him in his Falls, he could not forbear going out of his way to tumble over them. When he came below the Meeting House, there appeared unto him, a little thing like a Puppy, of a Darkish Colour; and it shot backwards and forwards between his Legs. He had the Courage to use all possible Endeavours of Cutting it with his Ax; but he could not Hit it : the Puppy gave a jump from him, and went, as to him it feem'd into the Ground. Going a little further, there appeared unto him a Black Puppy, fomewhat bigger than the first, but as Black as a Cole. Its Motions were quicker than those of his Ax; it flew at his Belly, and away; then at his Throat; fo, over his Shoulder one way, and then over his Shoulder another way. His Heart now began to fail him, and he thought the Dog would have tore his Throat out. But he recovered himself, and called upon God in his Diftress; and naming the Name of JESUS CHRIST, it vanished away at once. The Deponent spoke not one Word of these Accidents, for fear of affrighting his Wife. But the next Morning, Edmond Elliot, going into Martin's House, this Woman asked him where Kembal was? He replied, At home, a Bed, for ought he knew. She returned, They fay, he was frighted last Night. Elliot asked, With what? She answered, With Puppies. Elliot asked, Where she heard of it; for he had heard nothing of it? She rejoined, About the Town. Altho' Kembal had mentioned the Matter to no Creature living.

VIII. William Brown testisi'd, That Heaven having blessed him with a most Pious and Prudent Wife, this Wife of his, one day met with Sufanna Martin; but when the approach'd just unto her, Martin vanished out of fight, and left her extreamly affrighted. After which time, the faid Martin, often appear'd unto her, giving her no little trouble; and when she did come, she was visited with Birds, that forely peck'd and prick'd her; and fometimes, a Bunch, like a Pullet's Egg, would rife in her Throat, ready to choak her, till she cry'd out, Witch, you shan's choak me! While this good Woman was in this extremity, the Church appointed a Day of Prayer, on her behalf; whereupon her Trouble ceas'd; she saw not Martin as formerly; and the Church, instead of their Fast, gave Thanks for her Deliverance. But a confiderable while after, she being Summoned to give in some Evidence at the Court, against this Martin, quickly thereupon, this Martin came behind her, while the was milking her Cow, and faid unto her, For thy defaming her at Court, I'll make thee the miserablest Creature in the World. Soon after which, the fell into a strange kind of distemper, and became horribly frantick, and uncapable of any reasonable Action; the Physicians declaring, claring, that her Diftemper was preternatural, and that some Devil had certainly bewitched her; and in that condition she now remained.

IX. Sarah Arkinson testify'd, That Susanna Martin came from Amesbury to their House at Newbury, in an extraordinary Season, when it was not fit for any to Travel. She came (as she said, unto Arkinson) all that long way on Foot. She brag'd and shew'd how dry she was; nor could it be perceived that so much as the Soles of her Shoes were wet. Arkinson was amazed at it; and professed, that she should her self have been wet up to the knees, if she had then came so far; but Martin reply'd, She scorn'd to be Drabbled! It was noted, that this Testimony upon her Trial, cast her in a very lingular Confusion.

Rewildred, near a Field of Martins, and several times, as one under an Enchantment, returning to the place he had left, at length he saw a marvellous Light, about the bigness of an Half-bushel, near two Rod, out of the way. He went, and struck at it with a Stick, and laid it on with all his might. He gave it near forty blows; and felt it a palpable substance. Bur going from it, his Heels were struck up, and he was laid with his Back on the Ground, sliding, as he thought, into a Pit; from whence he recover'd by taking hold on the Bush; altho' afterwards he could find no such Pit in the place. Having, after his Recovery, gone sive or six Rod, he saw Susanna Martin standing on his Left-hand, as the Light had done before; but they changed no words with one another. He could scarce find his House in his Return; but at length he got home extreamly affrighted. The next day, it was upon Enquiry understood, that Martin was in a miserable condition by pains and hurts that were upon her.

It was further testify'd by this Deponent, That after he had given in some Evidence against Susanna Marin, many years ago, she gave him soul words about it; and said, He should never prosper more; particularly, That he should never have more than two Cows; that the he was never so likely to have more, yet he should never have them. And that from that very day to this, namely for twenty years together, he could never exceed that number; but some strange thing or other still prevented his having any more.

XI. Jervis Ring testify'd, That about seven years ago, he was oftentimes and grievously oppressed in the Night, but saw not who troubled him; until at last he Lying perfectly Awake, plainly saw Susanna Martin approach him. She came to him, and forceably bit him by the Finger; so that the Print of the bite is now, so long after, to be seen upon him.

XII. But besides all of these Evidences, there was a most wonderful Account of one Joseph Ring, produced on this occasion.

This Man has been strangely carried about by Damons, from one Witchmeeting to another, for near two years together; and for one quarter of this time, they have made him, and keep him Dumb, tho' he is now again able to speak. There was one T. H. who having, as 'tis judged, a design of engaging this Joseph Ring in a snare of Devillism, contrived a while, to bring this Ring two Shillings in Debt unto him.

Afterwards, this poor Man would be visited with unknown shapes, and this T. H. fometimes among them; which would force him away with them, unto unknown Places, where he faw Meetings, Feastings, Dancings; and after his return, wherein they hurried him along through the Air, he gave Demonstrations to the Neighbours, that he had indeed been so tranfported. When he was brought unto these hellish Meetings, one of the first Things they still did unto him, was to give him a knock on the Back, whereupon he was ever as if bound with Chains, uncapable of stirring out of the place, till they should release him. He related, that there often came to him a Man, who prefented him a Book, whereto he would have him fet his Hand; promising to him, that he should then have even what he would; and prefenting him with all the delectable Things, Persons and Places, that he could imagin. But he refusing to subscribe, the business would end with dreadful Shapes, Noises and Screeches, which almost scared him out of his Wits. Once with the Book, there was a Pen offered him, and an Inkhorn with Liquor in it, that feemed like Blood : But he never toucht it.

This Man did now affirm, That he faw the Prisoner at several of those hellish Randezvouzes.

Note, this Woman was one of the most impudent, scurrilous, wicked Creatures in the World; and she did now throughout her whole Tryal, discover her self to be such an one. Yet when she was asked, what she had to say for her felf? Her chief Plea was, That she had lead a most virtuous and holy Life.

IV. The Tryal of Elizabeth How, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, held by Adjournment at Salem, June 30, 1692.

1. Thizabeth How pleading Not Guilty to the Indicament of Witchcrafts, then charged upon her; the Court, according to the usual Proceedings of the Courts in England, in fuch Cafes, began with hearing the Depositions of several afflicted People, who were grievously tortured by fenable and evident Witcherafts, and all complained of the Prisoner, as the cause of their Trouble. It was also found that the Sufferers were not able to bear her Look, as likewife, that in their greatest Swoons, they distinguished her Touch from other Peoples, being thereby raised out of them. And there was other Testimony of People to whom the shape of this

How, gave trouble nine or ten years ago.

II. It has been a most usual thing for the bewitched Persons, at the same time that the Spettres, representing the Witches, troubled them, to be visited with Apparitions of Ghofts, pretending to have been Murdered by the Witches then represented. And fometimes the Confessions of the Witches afterwards acknowledged those very Murders, which these Apparitions charged upon them; altho' they had never heard what Informations had been given by the Sufferers.

There were fuch Apparitions of Ghosts testified by some of the present Sufferers; and the Ghosts affirmed, that this How had Murdered them :

Which things were fear'd but not prov'd.

III. This How had made some Attempts of joyning to the Church at Ipfwich, feveral years ago; but she was denved an admission into that Holy Society, partly through a suspicion of Witchcraft, then urged against her. And there now came in Testimony, of preternatural Mischiefs, presently befalling some that had been Instrumental to debar her from the Communion whereupon she was intruding.

IV. There was a particular Deposition of Joseph Scafford, That his Wife had conceived an extream Aversion to this How, on the Reports of her Witchcrafts: But How one day, taking her by the Hand, and faving, I believe you are not ignorant of the great Scandal that I lye under, by an evil Report raised upon me. She immediately, unreasonably and unperswadeably, even like one Enchanted, began to take this Woman's part. How being foon after propounded, as defiring an Admission to the Table of the Lord, some of the pious Brethren were unfatisfy'd about her. The Elders appointed a Meeting to hear Matters objected against her; and no Arguments in the World could hinder this Good wife Stafford from going to the Lecture. She did indeed promife, with much ado, that she would not go to the Churchmeeting, yet she could not refrain going thither also. How's Affairs there were so canvased, that she came off rather Guilty than Cleared; nevertheless Goodwife Stafford could not forbear taking her by the Hand, and faying Tho' you are Condemned before Men, you are Justify'd before God. She was quickly taken in a very strange manner, Ranting, Raving, Raging and crying out, Goody How must come into the Church; she is a precious Saint; and tho' the be condemned before Men, the is Justify'd before God. So the continued for the space of two or three Hours; and then sell into a Trance. But coming to her self, she cry'd out, Ha! I was mistaken; and afterwards again repeated, Ha! I was mistaken! Being asked by a stander by, VV berein? She replyed, I thought Goody Howhad been a precious Saint of God, but now I see she is a VV itch: She has bewitched me, and my Child, and we shall never be well, till there be a Testimony for her, that she may be taken into the Church. And How said afterwards, that she was very sorry to see Stafford at the Church-meeting mentioned. Stafford, after this, declared herself to be afflicted by the Shape of How; and from that Shape she endured many Miseries.

V. John How Brother to the Husband of the Prisoner testified, that he refusing to accompany the Prisoner unto her Examination, as was by her desired, immediately some of his Cattle were Bewitched to Death, leaping three or four foot high, turning about, speaking, falling and dying at once; and going to cut off an Ear, for an use, that might as well perhaps have been omitted, the Hand wherein he held his Knife was taken very numb, and so it remained, and full of Pain, for several Days, being not well at this very Time. And he suspected the Prisoner for the Author of it.

VI. Nehemiah Abbot testify'd, that unusual and mischievous Accidents would befal his Cattle, whenever he had any Disserence with this Prisoner. Once, particularly, she wished his Ox chooked; and within a little while that Ox was chooked, with a Turnep in his Throat. At another Time, refusing to lend his Horse, at the Request of her Daughter, the Horse was in a preternatural manner abused. And several other odd things of that kind were testified.

VII. There came in Testimony, that one Good wife Sherwin, upon some Difference with How, was Bewitched; and that she dyed, charging this How of having an Hand in her Death. And that other People had their Barrels of Drink unaccountably mischieved, spoil'd and spilt, upon their displeasing of her.

The things in themfelves were trivial, but there being such a Course of them, it made them the more considered. Among others, Martha VVood, gave her Testimony, That a little after her Father had been employed in gathering an account of How's Conversation, they once and again lost great Quantities of Drink out of their Vessels, in such a manner, as they could ascribe to nothing but Witchcraft. As also, That How giving her some Apples, when she had eaten of them, she was taken with a very strange kind of Amaze, insomuch that she knew not what she said or did.

VIII. There was likewise a Cluster of Depositions, That one Isaac Cummings resulting to lend his Mare unto the Husband of this How, the Mare was within a Day or two taken in a strange condition: The Beast seemed feemed much abused, being bruised as if she had been running over the Rocks, and marked where the Bridle went, as if burnt with a red hot Bridle. Moreover, one using a Pipe of Tobacco for the Cure of the Beast, a blue Flame issued out of her, took hold of her Hair, and not only spread and burnt on her, but it also she upwards towards the Roof of the Barn, and had like to have set the Barn on Fire: And the Mare dyed very suddenly.

IX. Timothy Pearley and his Wife, testifyed, Not only unaccountable Mischiefs besel their Cattle, upon their having of Differences with this Prisoner: but also that they had a Daughter destroyed by Witchcrasts; which Daughter still charged How as the Cause of her Assistion. And it was noted, that she would be struck down whenever How were spoken of. She was often endeavoured to be thrown into the Fire, and into the Water, in her strange Fits: Tho' her Father had corrected her for charging How with bewitching her, yet (as was testified by others also) she said, She was sure of it, and must dye standing to it. Accordingly she charged How to the very Death; and said, Tho' How could afflist and torment her Body, yet she could not hurt her Soul: And, That the Truth of this matter would appear, when she should be dead and gone.

X. Francis Lane testified, That being hired by the Husband of this How to get him a parcel of Posts and Rails, this Lane hired John Pearly to assist him. This Prisoner then told Lane, That she believed the Posts and Rails would not do, because John Pearly helped him; but that if he had got them alone, without John Pearly's help, they might have done well enough. When James How came to receive his Posts and Rails of Lane, How taking them up by the Ends, they, tho' good and sound, yet unaccountably broke off, so that Lane was forced to get thirty or forty more. And this Prisoner being informed of it, she said, She told him so before, because Pearly helped about them.

XI. Afterwards there came in the Confessions of several other (penitent) Witches, which affirmed this How to be one of those, who with them had been baptized by the Devil in the River, at Newbury-Falls: before which he made them there kneel down by the Brink of the River and wor-shiped him.

V. The Trial of Martha Carrier, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, held by Adjournment at Salem, August 2. 1692.

L. Martha Carrier was Indicted for the bewitching certain Persons, according to the Form usual in such Cases, pleading Not Guilty, to her Indictment; there were first brought in a considerable number of the bewitched Persons; who not only made the Court sensible of an horrid Witcherast committed upon them, but also deposed, That it was Martha Carrier, or her Shape, that grievously tormented them, by Biting, Prieking, Pinching and Choaking of them. It was further deposed, That while this Carrier was on her Examination, before the Magistrates, the Poor People were so tortured that every one expected their Death upon the very spot, but that upon the binding of Carrier they were eased. Moreover the Look of Carrier then laid the Afflicted People for dead; and her Touch, if her Eye at the same time were off them, raised them again: Which Things were also now seen upon her Tryal. And it was testified, That upon the mention of some having their Necks twisted almost round, by the Shape of this Carrier, she replyed, Its no matter though their Necks had been twisted quite off.

II. Before the Trial of this Prisoner, several of her own Children had frankly and fully confessed, not only that they were Witches themselves, but that this their Mother had made them so. This Confession they made with great Shews of Repentance, and with much Demonstration of Truth. They related Place, Time, Occasion; they gave an account of Journeys, Meetings and Mischies by them performed, and were very credible in what they said. Nevertheless, this Evidence was not produced against the Prisoner at the Bar, inasmuch as there was other Evidence enough to proceed upon.

III. Benjamin Abbot gave his Testimony, That last March was a twelvemonth, this Carrier was very angry with him, upon laying out fome Land, near her Husband's : Her Expressions in this Anger, were, That she would flick as close to Abbot as the Bark stuck to the Tree; and that he should repent of it afore seven Years came to an End, so as Dollor Prescot should never cure him. These Words were heard by others besides Abbot himself; who also heard her fay, She would hold his Nose as close to the Grindstone as ever it was held fince his Name was Abbot. Prefently after this, he was taken with a Swelling in his Foot, and then with a Pain in his Side, and exceedingly tormented. It bred unto a Sore, which was launced by Doctor Prescot. and feveral Gallons of Corruption ran out of it. For fix Weeks it continned very bad, and then another Sore bred in the Groin, which was also lanced by Doctor Prescot. Another Sore then bred in his Groin, which was likewife cut, and put him to very great Mifery: He was brought unto Death's Door, and fo remained until Carrier was taken, and carried away by the Constable, from which every Day he began to mend, and so grew better every Day, and is well ever fince,

SARAH ABBOT also, his Wife, testified, That her Husband was not only all this while Afflicted in his Body, but also that strange extraordinary and unaccountable Calamities beset his Cattel; their Death being such as they could guess at no Natural Reason for.

IV. Allin Toothaker testify'd, That Richard, the son of Martha Carrier, having some difference with him, pull'd him down by the Hair of the Head. When he Rose again, he was going to strike at Richard Carrier; but sell down stat on his Back to the ground, and had not power to stir hand or soot, until he told Carrier he yielded; and then he saw the shape of Martha Carrier, go off his breast.

This Toothaker, had Received a wound in the Wars; and he now testify'd, that Martha Carrier told him, He should never be Cured. Just afore the Apprehending of Carrier, he could thrust a knitting Needle into his wound, four inches deep; but presently after her being fiezed, he was throughly healed.

He further testify'd, that when Carrier and he sometimes were at variance, she would clap her hands at him, and say, He should get nothing by it; whereupon he several times lost his Cattle, by strange Deaths, whereof no natural causes could be given.

V. John Rogger also testifyed, That upon the threatning words of this malicious Carrier, his Cattle would be grangely bewitched; as was more particularly then described.

VI. Samuel Presson testify'd, that about two years ago, having some difference with Martha Carrier, he lost a Cow in a strange Preternatural unusual manner; and about a month after this, the said Carrier, having again some difference with him, she told him; He had lately lost a Cow, and is should not be long before he lost another; which accordingly came to pass; for he had a thriving and well-kept Cow, which without any known cause quickly fell down & dy'd.

VII. Phebe Chandler testify'd, that about a Fortnight before the apprehension of Martha Carrier, on a Lords-day, while the Psalm was singing in the Church, this Carrier then took her by the shoulder and shaking her, asked her, where she lived: she made her no Answer, although as Carrier, who lived next door to her Fathers House, could not in reason but know who she was. Quickly after this, as she was at several times crossing the Fields, she heard a voice, that she took to be Martha Carriers, and it seem'd as if it was over her head. The voice told her, the thould within two or three days be poisoned. Accordingly, within such a little time, one half of her right hand, became greatly swollen, and very painful; as also part of her Face; whereof she can give no account how it came. It continued very bad for some dayes; and several times since, she has had a great pain in her breast; and been so sleezed on her leggs, that she has hardly been able to go. She added, that lately, going well to the House of God, Richard, the son of Martha Carrier, look'd very carnestly upon her, and immediately her hand, which had formerly been poisoned, as is abovesaid, began to pain her greatly, and she had a strange Burning at her stomach; but was then struck deaf, so that she could not hear any of the prayer, or singing, till the two or three last words of the Psalm.

VIII. One Fostar, who confessed her own share in the Witch-craft for which the Prisoner stood indicted, affirm'd, that she had seen the prisoner at some of their Witch-meetings, and that it was this Carrier, who persuaded her to be a Witch. She confessed, that the Devil carry'd them on a pole, to a Witch-meeting; but the pole broke, and she hanging about Carriers neck, they both fell down, and she then received an hurt by the Fall, whereof she was not at this very time recovered.

IX. One Lacy, who likewise confessed her share in this Witch-crast, now testify'd, that she and the prisoner were once Bodily present at a Witch-meeting in Salem Village; and that she knew the prisoner to be a Witch, and to have been at a Diabolical sacrament, and that the prisoner was the undoing of her, and her Children, by enticing them into the snare of the Devil.

X. Another Lacy, who also confessed her share in this Witcherast, now testify'd, that the prisoner was at the Which-meeting, in Salem Village, where they had Bread and Wine Administred unto them.

XI. In the time of this prisoners Trial, one Susanna Sheldon, in open Court had her hands Unaccountably ty'd together with a Wheel-band, so fast that without cutting, it could not be loosed: It was done by a Speltre; and the Sufferer affirm'd, it was the Prisoners.

Martha Carrier, was the person, person, of whom the Consessions of the Witches, and of her own Children among the rest, agreed, That the Devil had promised, her, she should be Queen of Heb.

further pursue it, by relating a few of those Matchless CURIOSITIES, with which the Witcherast now upon us, has entertained us. And I shall Report nothing but with Good Authority, and what I would invite all my Readers to examine, while 'tis yet Fresh and New, that if there be found any mistake, it may be as willingly Retrafted, as it was unwillingly Committed.

The First CURIOSITIE.

I. 'Tis very Remarkable to see what an Impious and Impudent imitation of Divine Things, is Apishly affected by the Devil, in several of those matters, whereof the Confessions of our Witches, and the Afflictions of our Sufferers have informed us.

That Reverend and Excellent Person, Mr. John Hisginson, in my Conversa ion with him, Once invited me to this Resection; that the Indians which came from far to fittle about Mexico, were in their Progress to that Settlement, under a Conduct of the Devil, very strangely Emulating what the Blessed God gave to Ifract in the Wilderness. Acofta, is our Author for it, that the Devil in their Idol Fitzlipulizli, governed that mighty Nation. He commanded them to leave the'r Country, promising to make them Lords over all the Provinces post fled by Six other Nations of Indians, and give them a Land abounding with all precious things. They went forth, carrying their Idol with them, in a Coffer of Reeds, · fapported by Four of their Prin ipal Priests, with whom he ftill Discoursed in secret, Revealing to them the Successes, and Acci fents of their way. He advised them, when to Much, and where to Stay, and without his Commandment they moved not. The first thing they did, whereever they came, was to Elect a * Tabernacle, for their false god; which they set always in the " midft of their Camp, and they placed the Ark upon an Aber. When they, Tired with p ins, talked of, proce ding no further in their Journey, than a certain pleafant Stage, whereto they were arrived, this Devil in one Night, horribly kill'd them that

'had ftarted this Talk, by pulling out their Hearts. And so they ' paffed on till they came to Mexico.

The Devil which then thus imitated what was in the Church of the Old Testament, now among Us would Imitate the Affairs of the Church in the New. The Witches do fay, that they form themfelves much after the manner of Congregational Churches; and that they have a Baptism and a Supper, and Officers among them, abominably Refembling those of our Lord.

But there are many more of these Bloody Imitations, if the Confessions of the Witches are to be Received; which I confess, ought to be but with very much Caution.

What is their stricking down with a fierce Look? What is their making of the Afflicted Rife, with a touch of their Hand? What is their Transportation thro' the Air! What is their Travelling in Spirit, while their Body is cast into a Trance; What is their cauling of Carele to run mad and perish? What is their Entring their Names in a Book? What is their coming together from all parts, at the Sound of a Trum et? What is their Appearing fometimes Cloathed with Light or Fire upon them? What his their Covering of themselves and their Instruments with Invisibility? But a Blasphemous Imiration of certain Things recorded about our Saviour or His Prophets, or the Saints in the Kingdom of God.

A Second CURIOSITIE.

II. In all the Witchcraft which now Grievoully Vexes us, I know not whether any thing be more Unaccountable, than the Trick which the Witches have to render themselves, and their Tools Invisible. Witcheraft seems to be the Skill of Applying the Plastic Spirit of the World, unto some unlawful purposes, by means of a Confederacy with Evil Spirits. Yet one would wonder how the Evil Spirits themselves can do some things; especially at Invisibilizing of the Grossest Bodies. I can tell the Name of an Ancient Author, who pretends to flow the way, how a man may come to walk about Invisible, and I can tell the Name of another Ancient Author, who pretends to Explode that way. But I will not speak too plainly Lest I should unawares Poison some of my Readers, as the pions Hemingius did one of his Pupils, when he only by way of Diversion recited a Spell, which, they had faid, would cure Agues. Thus much I will fay; The notion of procuring Invisibility, by any Natural Expedient, vet known, is, I Believe, a meer PLINYISM; How far it may be obtained obtained by a Magical Sacrament, is best known to the Dangerous Knaves that have try'dit. But our Witches do feem to have got the knack: and this is one of the Things, that make me think, Witchcraft will not be fully understood, until the day when there shall not be one Witch in the World.

There are certain people very Dogmarical about these matters;

but I'll give them only thefe three Bones to pick.

First, One of our bewitched people, was cruelly assaulted by a Spectre, that, she faid, ran at her with a spindle : tho' no body elfe in the Room, could fee either the Spettre or the findle. At laft, in her miscries, giving a snatch at the Spectre, she pull'd the spindle away, and it was no fooner get into her hand, but the other people then present, beheld, that it was indeed a Real, Proper, Iron spindle, belonging they knew to whom; which when they lock'd up very fafe, it was nevertheless by Damons unaccountably stole away, to do further mischief.

Secondly, Another of our bewitched people, was haunted with amost abusive Spectre, which came to her, she faid, with a sheet about her. After she had undergone a deal of Teaze, from the Annoyance of the Spectre, the gave a violent fnatch at the sheet, that was upon it; wherefrom the tore a corner, which in her hand immediately became Visible to a Roomful of Spectators; a palpable Corner of a Sheet. Her Father, who was now holding her, catched that he might keep what his Daughter had fo strangely fiezed, but the unfeen Spectre had like to have pull'd his hand off, by endeavouring to wrekt it from him; however he still held it, and I suppose has it, still to show; it being but a few hours ago, namely about the beginning of this October, that this Accident happened; in the family of one Pitman, at Manchefter.

Thirdly, A young man, delaying to procure Testimonials for his Parents, who being under confinement on suspicion of Witcheraft, required him to do that service for them, was quickly purfued with odd Inconveniences. But once above the Rest, an Officer going to put his Brand on the Horns of some Coms, belonging to these people, which tho' he had fiez'd for some of their debts, yet he was willing to leave in their possession, for the sublistance of the poor Family: this young man help'd in holding the Cows to be thus branded, The three first Cows he held well enough; but when the hot Brand was clap'd upon the Fourth, he wine'd and forunk at fuch a Rate, as that he could hold the Cow no longer. Being afterwards Examined about it, he confessed, that at that very instant when the Brand entred the Cows Horn, exactly the like posed the lasting marks of it, unto fuch as asked to see them.

gan to mend; and upon their Execution, was prefently and perfeetly Recovered, from the ten years madness that had been upon

A Fourth CURIOSITIE.

IV. 'Tis a thousand pitties, that we should permit our Eyes, to be fo Blood-fhot with passions, as to loofe the fight of many wonderful things, wherein the Wifdom and Justice of Ged, would be Glorify'd. Some of those things, are the frequent Apparitiong of Ghofts, whereby many Old Murbers among us, come to be confidered. And, among many instances of this kind, I will fingle out one, which concerned a poor man, lately Prest unto Death, because of his Refusing to Plead for his Life. I shall make an Extract of a Letter, which was written to my Honourable Friend, Samuel Sewal, Efq; by Mr. Patman, to this pur-

'The Last Night my Daughter Ann, was grievously Tormen-'ted by Witches, Threatning that the fhould be Preffed to Death, before Giles Cory. But thro' the Goodness of a Gracious God, " The had at last a little Respite. VV hereupon there appeared anto her (she said) a man in a VVinding Sheer; who told her that Giles Cory had Murdered him, by Preffing him to Death with his ' Feet; but that the Devil there appeared unto him, and Coveenanted with him, and promised him, He should not be Hanged. The Apparition faid, God Hardned his heart; that he should not hearken to the Advice of the Court, and fo Dy an easy Death; because as it said, It must be done to him as he has done to me. . The Apparition also said, That Giles Cory, was carry'd to the Court for this, and that the Jury had found the Murder, and that her Father knew the man, and the thing was done before the was bern. Now Sir, This is not a little strange to us; that ono body should Remember these things, all the while that Giles Cory was in Prison, and so often before the Court. For all people now Remember very well, (and the Records of the "Court also mention it,) That about Seventeen Years ago, Giles "Cory kept a man in his House, that was almost a Natural Fool; 'which Man Dy'd fuddenly. A Jury was impannel'd upon him, ' among whom was Dr. Zorobbabel Endicot; who found the man ' bruised to Death, and having clodders of Blood about his Heart. The Jury, whereof feveral are yet alive brought in the man 'Murdered; but as if some Enchantment had hindred the Profecution of the Matter, the Court Proceeded not against M 2

A Third CURIOSITIE.

III. If a Drop of Innocent Blood should be shed, in the Prosecution of the Wichcrafts among us, how unhappy are we! For which cause, I cannot express my felt in better terms, than those of a most Worthy Person, who lives near the present Center of these things. The Mind of God in these matters, is to be carefully lookt into, with due Circumspection, that Satan deseive us not with his Devices, who transforms himself into an Angel of Light, and may pretend justice and yet intend mischief. But on the other fide, if the storm of Justice do now fall only on the Heads of those guilty VVirches and VVretches which have defiled our Land, How Happy!

The Execution of fome that have lately Dyed, has been immediately attended, with a strange Deliverance of some, that had lain for many years, in a most fad Condition, under, they knew not whose evil hands. As I am abundantly fatisfy'd, That many of the Self-Murders committed here, have been the effects of a Cruel and Bloody Witcheraft, letting fly Damons upon the miferable Seneca's; thus, it has been admirable unto me to fee, how a Devilish VVischeraft, sending Devils upon them, has, driven many poor people to Despair, and persecuted their minds, with such Buzzes of Atheifm and Blasphemy, as has made them even run difracted with Terrors : And some long Bow'd down under such a spirit of Insirmity, have been marvelously Recovered upon the death of the Witches.

One VV hetford particularly ten years ago, challenging of Bridger Bishop (whose Trial you have had) with steeling of a Spoon, Bishop threatned her very direfully : presently after this, was Whetford in the Night, and in her Bed, visited by Bishop, with one Parher, who making the Room light at their coming in, there difcourfed of several mischiefs they would instict upon her. At last they pull'd her out, and carried her unto the Sea-side, there to drown her; but she calling upon God, they left her, tho' not without Expressions of their Fury. From that very time, this poor Whetford was utterly spoilt, and grew a Tempted, Froward, Crazed fort of a Woman; a vexation to her felf, and all about her; and many ways unreasonable. In this Distraction she lay, till those women were Apprehended, by the Authority; then she beGiles Cory, tho' it cost him a great deal of Mony to get off. Thus the Story.

THE Reverend and Worthy Author, having at the Direction of His EXCELLENCY the Governour, so far Obliged the Publick, as to give some Account of the Sufferings brought upon the Countrey by Witchcrast; and of the Tryals which have passed upon several Executed for the Same:

But is New-England, the only Christian Countrey, that hath undergone such Diabolical Molestations? No, there are other Good people, that have in this way been harassed; but none in Circumstances more like to Ours, than the people of God, in Sweedland. The story is a very Famous one; and it comes to Speak English by the Acute Pen of the Excellent and Renowned Dr. Horneck. I shall only single out a few of the more Memorable passages therein Occurring; and where it agrees with what happened among our selves, my Reader shall understand, by my inferting a Word of every such thing in Black Letter.

I. It was in the Year 1669, and 1670. That at Mobra in Sweed-land, the Debils by the help of Whithes, committed a most horrible outrage. Among other Instances of Hellish Tyranny there exercised, One was, that Hundreds of their Children, were usually in the Night setcht from their Lodgings, to a Diabolical Rendezvouz, at a place they called, Blockula, where the Monsters that so Spirited them, Tempted them all manner of Ways to Assistate with the n. Yea, such was the perillous Growth of this Vincherast, that Persons of Quality began to send their Children into other Conneries to avoid it.

M. The Inhabitants had earnessly sough: God by Planet; and get their Affliction Continued. Whereupon Judges had a Special Commission to find and root out the Hellsh Crew; and the rather, beca seanother County in the Kingdom, which had been so molested, was delivered upon the Execution of the VVictors.

111. The Gramination, was begun with a Day of Dumiliation; appointed by Anthority. Whereupon the Comn issoners Tenfulting, how they might resist such a Dangerous Flood, the Suffering Children, were first Examined; and the they were Questioned

Questioned One by One apart, yet their Declarations All Agreed. The Witches Accus'd in these Declarations, were then Examined; and tho' at first they obstinately Densed, yet at length many of them ingeniously Consessed the Truth of what the children had said; owning with Tears, that the Detil, whom they call'd Locyta, had Stopt their Mouths; but he being now Gone from them, they could No Longer Control the Business. The things by them Acknowledged, most wonderfully Agreed with what other Witches, in other places had consessed.

IV. They confessed, that they did use to Call upon the Devil, who thereupon would Carry them away, over the Tops of Houses, to a Green Meddow, where they gave themselves unto him. Only one of them said, That sometimes the Devil only took away her Etrength, leaving her Body on the ground; but she went at other times in Body too.

V. Their manner was to come into the Chambers of people, and fetch away their children upon Beafts, of the Devils providing: promising fine Charps and other Fine Things unto them, to inveagle them. They said, they never had power to do thus, rill of late; but now the Devil did Plague and Erat them, if they did not gratise him, in this piece of Mischief. They said, they made use of all sorts of Instruments in their Journeys! Of Pen, of Beasts, of Poss; the Men they commonly laid asseep at the place, whereto they rode them; and if the children mentioned the Pames of them that stole them away, they were miserably Sturs get for it, until some of them were killed. The Subget sound the marks of the Lasses on some of them; but the Witches said, They would Duickly banish. Moreover the Children would be in strange fits, after they were brought Home from these Fransportations.

was to give themselves unto the Devil, and Clow that they would serve him. Hereupon, they tut their fingers, and with Blod writ their Pames in his Book. And he also caused them to be Baptised by such Priests, as he had, in this Horrid company. In some of them, the Park of the tut Finger was to be found; they said, that the Devil gave Peat and Drink, as to Them, so to the Children they brought with them: that afterwards their Custom was to Dance before him; and swear and curse most horribly; they said, that the Devil show'd them a great, Frightful, Cruel Dragon, telling them, It therefores any Thing, he would let loose that Great Devil upon them; they added, that the Devil had a Thurth, and that when the Judges were coming, he told them, De would kill them all ; and that fome of them had Attempted to Durder the Budgeg, but could not.

VII. Some of the Children, talked much of a Wilhite Angel, which did use to fortio them, what the Devil had bid them to do. and Affure them that these doings would Pot laft long; but that what had been done was permitted for the wickedness of the People. This cathite Angel, would fometimes rescue the Children. from Going in, with the Witches.

VIII. The Witches confessed many mischiefs done by them, declaring with what kind of Englanted Tols, they did their Mifchiefs. They fought especially to kill the Winister of Elfdale, but could not. But some of them said, that such as they wounded, would Be recovered, upon or before their Execution.

1X. The Judges would fain have feen them show some of their Tricks ; but they U animously declared, that Since they had confelled, all, they found all their Wlitcheraft gone; and the Devil then Appeared berp Terrible unto them, threatning with an Iron Hork, to thrust them into a Burning Pit, if they persisted in their Confession.

X. There were discovered no less than threescore and ten Witches in One Village, the and twenty of which frely confelling their Crimes, were condemned to dy. The rest, One pretending she was with (hild) were fent to Fahluna, where most of them were afterwards executed. Fifteen Children, which confessed themselves engaged in this Witchery, dyed as the rest, Six and Thirty of them between nine and fixteen years of Age, who had been lefs guilty, were forced to run the Gantlet, and be lashed on their hands once a Week, for a year together; twenty more who had less inclination to these Infernal enterprises, were lashed with Rods upon their Hands for three Sundays together, at the Church door ; the number of the seduced Children, was about three hundred. This courfe, together with weekly pavers, in all the Churches thro' the Kingdom, iffued in the deliverance of the Country.

XI. The most Accomplished Dr. Horneck inferts a most wife cantion, in his preface to this Narrative, fays he, there is no Publick Calamity, but some ill people, will serve themselves of the sad providence, and make use of it for their own ends; as Thieves when an boufe or town is on Fire, will feal what they can. And he mentions a Remarkable Story of a young Woman, at Stockholm, in the year, 1676. Who accused her own Mother of being a Witch; and swore bolitively, that she had carried her away in the Night; the poor Woman was burnt upon it: professing her innecency to the last. But tho' she had been an Il! Woman, yet it afterwards prov'd that the was not fuch an one; for her Daughter came to the Judges, with hideous Lamentations, Confessing, That she had wronged her Mother, out of a wicked spite against her; whereupon the Judges gave order for her Execution too.

The Devil Discovered

2. Cor. II. 11. We are not Ignorant of His DEVICES.

Ur Bleffed Saviour has bleffed us, with a counfil, as Wholfeme and as Needful as any that can be given us, in Math. 26. 41. Watch and I ray, that yee Enter not into Temptation. As there is a Tempting Flesh, and a Tempting VV orld, which would feduce us from Our Obedience to the Laws of God, fo there is a Bufy Devil, who is by way of Eminency called, The Tempter; because by him, the Temptations of the Flesh and the World are managed.

It is not One Devil alone, that has Cunning or Power enough to apply the Multitudes of Temprations, whereby Mankind is daily diverted from the Service of God; No, the High Places of Our Air, are Swarming full of those Wicked Spirits, whose Temptationstrouble us; they are fo many, that it feems no lefs than a Legion, or more than twelve thousands may he spared for the Vexation of one miferable man. But because those Apostate Angels, are all United, under one Infernal Monarch, in the Deligns of Mischief, 'tis in the Singular Number, that they are spoken of. Now, the Devil, whose Malice and Envy, prompts him to do what he can, that we may he as unhappy as himself, do's ordinari-Iv use more Frand, than Force, in his assaulting of us; he that affail'd our First Parents, in a Serpent, will Still Act Like a Serpent, rather then a Lion, in profecuting of his wicked purposes upon us, and for us to guard against the VViles of the Wicked One, is one of the greatest cares, with which our God ha's charged us.

VVe are all of us liable to various Tempeations every day, whereby if we are carried aside from the Strait Paths of Righ confres, we get all forts of wounds unto our felves. Of Temprations, I may fay, as the VVife Man faid, of Martality; There is me asfebarge from that war. The Devil feil hard upon both Adam, nor may any among the Children of both, imagine to be excused. The Son of God Himfelf, had this Dog of Hell, barking at Him; and much more may the Children of Men, look to be thus Vilited ; indeed, there is hardly any Temptation, but what is, Common to Man. VVhen I was confidering, how to fpend one Hour in Railing a most Effectual and Profitable Breast-work, against the inroads of this Enemy, I perceived it would be done, by a fhort answer to this.

CASE.

What are those Usual Methods of Temptation, with which the Powers of Dark els do affault the Children of Men?

The Corimbians, having upon the Apostles Direction, Excommunicated one of their Society, who had married his Mother-inlaw, & this as it is thought, while his own Father was Living too; the Apostle encourages them to Re-admit that man, upon his very deep and sharp Repentance. He gives divers Reasons of his propounding this unto them; whereof one is, Left Satan should get advantage of them; for, had the man miscarried, under any Rigour of the Sentence continued upon him, after his Rejentance, 'tis well if the Church it felf had not quickly fallen to pieces thereupon; befure, the Succels of the Golpel had been more than a little Incommoded. The Apostle upon this Occasion, intimates, That Satan has his Devices; by which word are meant, Artifices or Contrivances used for the Deceiving of those that are Treated with them well, But what shall we do that we may come to this Corinthian Aitainment, We are not Ignorant of Satans Devices? [Non euivis homini Contingit! 7

Truly, The Devil has Mi'e Nocendi Artes; and it will be impossible for us, to run over all the Stratagems and Policies of our Adversary. I shall only attempt a few Observations upon the Temptations of our Lord Jefus Christ: who was Tempted in all things like unto us, except in our Sins. VVhen we read the Temptations of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the Fourth Chapter of Matthew There, Thence, you will understand, what was once counted so difficult; Even, The way of a Serpent upon the Rock. There are certain Ancient and Famous Methods which the Devil in his Temptations, does mostly accustome himself unto; which is not so much from any Barrenness, or Sluggishness in the Devil, but because he has had the Encouragement of a, Probatum oft, upon those horrid Methods. How did the Devil assault the First Adam? It was with Temptations drawn from Pleasure, and Profit, and Honour, which, as the Apostle notes, in 1 Joh. 2. 16. are, All that is in the World.

VVith

WVith the very fame temptations it was, that he fell upon the Second, Adam too. Now, in those Temptations, you will see the more Usua Methods, whereby the Devil would be Enfnaring of us; and I befeech you to attend unto the following Admonitions, as those VV arnings of God, which the Lives of your fouls depend upon your taking of.

There were especially Three Remarkable Assaults of Temptations, which the Devil it feems, visibly made upon our Lord; after he had been more invilibly for Forty dayes together Tempting of that Holy One; and we may make a few diftinct Remarks upon them all.

& The first of our Lords three Temptations is thus related, in Mat. 4. 3. He was an Hungry; and when the Tempter came to him, he faid, If thou be the Son of God, Command that these Stones be made Bread.

From whence, take thefe Remarks.

I. The Devil will ordinarily make our Conditions, to be the Advantages of his Temptations. VVhen our Lord was Hungry, then Bread! Bread! shall be all the Cry of his Temptation; the Devil puts him upon a wrong step, for the getting of Bread. There is no Condition, but what has indeed some Hunger accompanying of it; and the Devil marks what it is, that we are Hungry for. One mans Condition makes him Hunger for Preferments, or Employments; another mans makes him Hunger for Cash or Land, or Trade; another mans makes him Hunger for Merriments, or Diversions: And the Condition of every Afflicted Man, makes him Hunger with Impatience for Deliverance. Now the Devil will be fure to fuit his Perswasions with our Conditions. VVhen he has our Condition to speak with him, & for him, then thinks he, I am fure this man will now hearken to my Proposals! Hence, if men are in Prosperity, the Devil will tempt them to Forget fulnels of God; if they are in Adversity, he will tempt them to Murmuring at God; in all the expressions of those impieties. Wife Agur was aware of this; in Prov. 30, 9, fays he, if a man be Full, he shall be tempted, to deny God, and fuy, who is the Lord? if a man be Poor, he shall he tempted, to steal, and take the Name of God in vain. The Devil will talk suitably; if you ponder your Conditions, you may expect you shall be tempted agreeably thereunto.

II. The Devil does often manage his temprations, by urging of our Necefficies. Our Lord, was thus by the Devil bawl'd upon ; You want Bread, and you'll starve, if in my way you get it not. The Devil will show some forbidden thing unto us, and plead concerning it, as of Bread we use to say, it must be hid. Necessay has a wonderful compulsion in it. You may see what Necesfity will do, if you read in Dout . 28. 56. the render and the delicate Woman among you her eye shall be evil towards the Child en that she shall bear, for she shall eat them for mane of all things. The Devil will perswade us that there is a Necessity of our doing what he does propound unto us; and then tho the Laws of God about us were fo many Walls of Stone, yet we shall break through them all. That little inconvenience, of our coming to beg our Bread, O what a fearful Representation does the Devil make of it! and when once the Devil scares us to think of a finful thing, it must be done, we foon come to think, it may be done. When the Devil has frighted us into an Apprehension, that it is a Needful thing which we are prompted unto, he prefently Engages all the Faculties of our Souls, to prove, that it may be a Lawful one; the Devil told Efan, You'll dye if you don't fell your Birthright; the Devil told Aaron, You'd pull all the people about your ears, if you do not countenance their superstirions; and then they comply'd immediately. Yea, sometimes if the Devil do but Feign a Necessity, he does thereby Gain the Hearts of Men; he did but feign a Need, when he told Saul, the Cattel must be spared, and the facrifice must be presipitated, & he does but feign a Need, when he tells many a man, if you do no fervile work on the Sabbath-day, and if you don't Rob God of his evening, you'll never subjist in the world. All the denials of God, in the world, use to be from this Fallacy impos'd upon us. It never can be necessary for us to violate any Negative Commandment in the Law of our God; where God fays, thou thate not, we cannot upon any pretence reply, I must. But the Devil will put a most formidable and astonishing face of necessity upon many of those Abominable things, which are hateful to the foul of God. He'll fay nothing to us about, the one thing needful; but the petite and the forry Need-nots of this world, he'll fet off with most bloody Colours of Necessity. He will not fay, 'tis necessary for you to maintain the Favour of your God, and secure the welfare of your Soul; but he'll fay, 'tis necessary for you to keep in with your Neighbours; and that you and yours may have a good Living among them.

111. The Devil does infinuate his most Horrible Temptations, with pretence, of much Friendship and Kindness for us. He seemed very unwilling that our Lord should want any thing that might be comfortable for him; but, he was a Devil still! The Devil flatters our Mother Eve, as if he was defirous to make her more Happy than her Maker did; but there was the Devil in that flattery. Sub Amici fallere Nomen ____ to Salute men with profers to do all manner of Service for them; and at the same time to Stab them as foab did Abner of old; this is just like the Devil, and the Devil truly has many Children that Imitate him in it. Some very Affectionate Things were spoken once unto our Lord; Lord, be it far from thee, that then shouldest suffer any Trouble! But our Lords Answer was, in Mat. 16. 23. Get thee behind me Satan. The Devil will fay to a man, I would have thee to Confult thy own Interest, and I would have Trouble to be far from thee. He speaks these Fair Things, by the Mouths of our professed Friends unto us, as he did by the Tongue of a Speckled Snake unto our Deluded Parents at the first. But all this while, 'tis a Direction that has been wifely given us ; When he fpeaks fair, Believe him not, for there are feven Abominations in his Heart.

IV. Things in themselves Allowable and Convenient, are oftentimes turned into fore Temptations by the Devil. He press'd our Lord unto the making of Bread; Why, that very thing was afterwards done by our Lord. in the Miracles of the Loaves; and yet it is now a motion of the Devil, Pray, make thy felf a Little Breat. The Devil will frequently put men by, from the doing of a feafonable Duty; but how? Truly by putting us upon onother Duty, which may be at that juncture a most Unfeafonable Thing. It is faid in Eccl. 8. 5. A Wife Mans heart difeerns both Time and Judgment. The Ill-Timing of good Things, is One of the chief Intregues, which the Devil has to Profecute. The Devil bimfelf, will Egg us on to many a Duty; and why fo? But because at that very Time a more proper and Useful Duty, will have a Superfedeas given thereunto. And, thus there are many Things, whereof we can fay, though no more than this, yet fo much as this, They are Lawful ones, by which Lawful Things -- Perimus Omnes. Where shall we find that the Devil has laid our most fatal Snares? Truly, our Snares are on the Bed, where it is Lawful for us to Sleep; at the Board, where it is Lawful for us to Sit; in the Cup, where 'tis Lawful to Drink; and in the Shops, where we have Lawful Bufines to do. The Devil will decoy us, unto the utmost Edge of the Liberry that is Lawful for us; and then one Little push, hurvies us into a Transgression against the Lord. And the Devil by Inviting us to a Lawful thing, at a wrong time for it, Layes us under further Entanglement of Guilt before God. 'Tis Lawful for People to use Recreations; but in the Evening of the Lords Day, or the Morning of any Day, how Enfnaring are they! The Devil then too commonly bears part in the Sport. If Promiscuous Dancing were Lawful; though almost all the Christian Churches in the World, have made a Scandal of it; yet for Persons to go presently from a Sermon to a Dance, is to do a thing, which Doubtless the Devil makes good Earnings of.

V. To distruft Gods Providence and Protection, is one of the worst things, into which the Devil by his Temptations would be hurrying of us. He would fain have driven our Lord unto a Suspicion of Gods care about Him, faid the Devil, You may dy for lack of Bread, if you do not look better after your felf, than God is like to do for you. It is an usual thing for Persons to dispair of Gods Fatherly Care Concerning them; they torture themfelves with diffracting and amazing Fears, that they shall come to want before they dy; Yea, they even fay with Jonas, in Chap. 2. 4. I am cast out of the fight of God; He wont look after me! But it is the Devil that is the Author of all fuch Melancholly Suggestions in the minds of men. It is a thought that often raises a Feaver in the Hearts of Married Perfons, when Charges grow upon them; God will never be able in the way of my Calling, to feed and cloath all my Little Folks. It is a Thought with which Ased persons are often tormented, Tho God has all my dayes hisherto supplied me, yet I shall be pinched with Straits before I come to my Journeys end, 'Tis a malicious Devil that raises these Evil surmisings in the hearts of Men. And fometimes a diftemper of Body affords a Lodging for the Devil, from whence he shoots the cruel Bombs of such Fiery Thoughts into the minds of many other persons. With such thoughts does the Devil choose to persecute us; because thereby we come to Forseit what we Question. We Question the Care of God, and so we Forseit it, until perhaps the Devil do utterly drown us in Perdition. Our God says, Trust in the Lord, and do good, and verily thou shalt be fed. But the Devil says, don't you trust in God; be afraid that you shall not be fed; and thus he hinders men from the doing of Good.

VI. There is nothing more Frequent in the Temptations of the Devil, then for our Adoption to be doubted, because of our Affliction. When our Lord was in his Penury, then fays the Devil, If thou be the Son of God; he now makes an If, of it; What? the Son of God, and yet not be able to Command a Bit of Bread! Thus, when we are in very Afflictive Circumstances, this will be the Devils Inference, Thou art not a Child of God. The Bible fays in Heb. 12. 7. If you are Chastened, it is a shrow'd Gen that you can't be Children. Since he can't Rob us of our Grace, he would Rob us of our Joy; and therefore having Accused us unto God, he then Accuses God unto us. When Israel was weak and faint in the Wilderness, then did Amalek set upon them; just so does the Devil set upon the people of God, when their Losses, their Crosses, their Exercises have Enfeebled their Souls within them; and what fays the Devil? E'en the fame that was mutter'd in the Ear of the Afflicted Job, Is not this the Uprightness of thy VV ays? Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being Innocent? If thou wert he Chi dof God, He would never follow thee, with fuch Testimonies of his Indignation. This is the Logic of the Devil; and he thus inturrupts that patience, and that Chearfulness wherewith we should Suffer the will of God.

VII. To dispute the Divine Original and Authority of Gods VVord, is not the least of those Temptations with which the Devil troubles us. God from Heaven, had newly faid unto our Lord, this is my Beloved Son; but now the Devil would have him to make a dispute of it, If thou be the son of Goa. The Devil durft not be so Impudent, and Brasen fac'd, as to bid men use Pharaohs Language, VV ho is the Lord, that I should obey his voice? But he will whisper into our Ears, what we did unto our Mother Eve of old, It is n t the Lord that bath Spoken what you call his VV ord. The Devil would have men fay unto the Screpture, what they faid unto the Prophet, in Jer. 43. 2. Thou speakest fully; the Lord our God bath not fent thee to for at what then fayft sorto us; & he would fain have fectet & curfed Milgivings in our hearts, that things are not altogether fo as the Songrurchas represented them. The Devil would with all his neart make one huge Bonefire of all the Bibles in the world; & he has got Millions of perfecutors to affift him in the suppression of that miracuious book. It was the devil once in the songue of a Papift, that cry'd out, Aplique on this bible; this 'sis that does all our mischief. But because he can't Suppress this Book, he sets himself, to Disgrace it all that he can. Althos the Scripture carries its sum Evidence with it, and be all over, so pure, so great, so true, and so powerful, that it is impossible it should proceed from any but God alone; yet the Devil would gladly bring some Discredit upon it, as if it were but some Humane Contrivance; of nothing, is the Devil more desirous, than this; That we should not count, Christ so precious, Heaven so Glorious, Hell so Dreadful, and Sin so odious, as the Scripture has declared it.

S. The Second of our Lords Three Temptations, is related after this manner, in Mat. 4.5, 6. Then the Devil taketh him up, into the Holy City, and setteth him upon a Pinacle of the Temple; and saith unto him, if thou he the Son of God, cast the self down; for it is written, He shall give his Angels charge conterning thee, and in their Hands, they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash they Foot against a Stone.

H Any other acknowledgments of the Lord Jeins Christ will be permitted by the Lemptaskaran alast each want sonahw more be permitted by the Lemptaskaran alast each end will be permitted by the Lemptaskaran alast each end of the lemptaskaran alast end of the lemptaskaran alast

The places of the greatest Holinesi will not secure us from Annoyance by the Temprations of the Devil, to the greatest wickedness. When our Lord was in the Holy Giry, the Devil fell upon him there. Indeed, there is now no proper Holivels of Places in our Days; the Signs and Means of Gods more special Presence are not under the Golpel, ty'd unto any certain places: Nevertheless there are places, where we use to enjoy much of God; and where, altho' God vitit not the Perfore for the fake of the Places yet he vifits the Places for the fake of the Perfons. But, of amoto tell you that the Devil will visit those Places and best Perfore there. No Place, that I know of, has got fuch a Spell upon it; as will always keep the Devil out. The Meeting-House wherein we Afsemble for the Worship of God, is fill'd with may Holy. People, and many Holy Concerns continually it but if our Eyesswere of refined as the Servant of the Prophet had his of tall, I Suppose we should now see a Throng of Devil in this very place. The Apostle has intimated, that Angels come in among us; there are Angels it feems that hark, how I Preach, and how you Hear, at this Hour. And our own fad Experience is enough to intimate; That the Devils are likewife Rendevouzing here, It is Report ted, in Job 1. 5. When the Sons of God came In prefent henfeld? before the Lord, Satan cause alfol among them. When we are in our Church-Affonblies, O how many Devile, do you imagine, croud in among us! There is a Devil that rocks on to Sleep, there is a Devil that makes another to be thinking of, he searce knows what himself; and there is a Devil, that makes another, to be pleasing himself with wanton and wicked Speculations. It is also possible, that we have our Closers, or our Studies, gloriously perfumed with Devotions every day; but alas, can we shut the Devil out of them? No, Let us go where we will, we shall still find a Devil night unto us. Only, when we come to Heaven, we shall be out of his reach for ever; O thou soul Devil; we are going where thou canst not come! He was hissed out of Paradise, and shall never enter it any more. Yea, more than so, when the New Jansalem comes down into the High Places of our Air, from whence the Devil shall then be banished, there shall be no Devil within the Walls of that Holy City. Amen, Even so Lord Jesus, Come quickly.

II. Any other acknowledgments of the Lord Jefus Christ, will be permitted by the Temptations of the Devil, provided those Acknowledgments of him, which are Time and Full, may be thereby prevented. What was it, that the Devil hurried our Lord Jefus Christ unto the Top of the Temph for Surely it could not meerly be to find Precipices; any part of the Wilderness would have afforded Them. No, it was rather to have Spell ators. And why fo, Why, the carnal Jews had an Expectation among them; that Elias was to fly from Heaven to the Temple; and the Devil feems willing, that our Lord should be cry'd up for Elias, among the giddy multitude; or anything in the World," the never fo confiderable otherwise, rather than to be received as the Christ of God. The Devil will allow his Followers to think very highly of the Lord Jesus Christ; O but he is very lothe to have them think, All. We read in Col. 1. 19. It has pleased the Father, that in Him there should all Fullness dwell. But it is pleasing to the Devil that we deny fomething of the Immense Fullness, which is in our Lord. The Devil would confess to our Lord, Thou art the Holy One of God! but then he claps in, Then act Jefus of Nazareth; which was to conceal our Lords being Jesus of Berblehem, and so his being, The True Messiah. All the Herefies, and all the Perfecutions, that ever plagued the Church of God, have still been, to strike at some Glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. A CHRIST Entirely Acknowledged, will fave the Souls of them that so Acknowledge Him; but, fays the Devil, Whatever tides I must not give way to that. As they say, the Devil Crouda makes Witches unable to utter all the Lords Prayer, or some such System of Religion, without some Deprevations of it; thus the Devil will consent that we may make a very large Consession of the Lord Jesus Christ; only he well have us to deprave it, at least in some one Important Aiticle. Some one Honour, some one Office, and some one Ordinance of the Lord Jesus Christ, must be always lest unacknowledged, by those that will do as the Devil would have them.

III. High Stations in the Church of God, lay men open to violent and peculiar Temptations of the Devil. When our Lord was upon the Pinacle, that is not the Fane, or Spire, but the Bartlements of the Temple, there did the Devil peffer him, with fingular Molestations, and he therein seems to intend an Entanglement for the Jews, as well as for our Lord. Believe me they that stand High, cannot stand safe. The Devil is a Nimrod, a mighty Hunter; and common or little Game, will not ferve his Turn : he is a Leviathan, of whom we may fay, as in Job. 41. 34. He beholds all high things. Men of high Attainments, and Men of high Employments, in the Church of God, must look, like Peter to be more Sifted, and like Faul, to be more Buffited than other Men. Ferunt Sammos Fulmina Montes. The Devil can raife a Storm. when God permitteth it, but as for those Men that stand near Heaven, the Devil will attack them with his most cruel storms of Thunder and Lightening. It was faid, bet him that flandeth take heed; but we may fay, They that stand most high, have cause to take most beed. The Devil is a Goliah; and when he finds a Champion, he'l be fure most fiercely to Combate such a Man. He is ? for, Killing many Birds with one frome; and he knows that he shall hinder a world of Good, and produce a world of It, if once he can bring a Man Eminently Stationed into his Toyls. Hence 'tis that the Ministers of God, are more dogg'd by the Devil; than other perfons are. Especially such Ministers, as move in the highest Orb of Serviceableness; and most of all such Ministers as have spent many years in Laudable Endeavours to be ferviceable; Those Ministers are the Stars of Heaven, at which the Tayl of the Dragon, will give the most sweeping and most stinging strokes; the Devil will find that for them, that shall make them Walk foftly all their Days. These are the Men, that have creepled, and vexed the Devil more than other Men; for which the Devil has an old Quarrel with them. O Neighbours, little do you; think, what black Days of Mourning, and Fasting, and Praying before the Lord, a Raging Devil does fill the lives of fuch Men of God withall.

IV. The

IV. The Devil will make a deceitful and unfaithful use of the Striptures to make his Temprations forceable. When the Devil Sollicited our Lord, unto an evilthing, he quoted the Ninty First Pfahn unto him, tho' indeed he fallaciously clip'd it, and maim'd it of one clause very material in it. O never does the Devil make fuch dangerous Passes at us, as when he does wrest our own Sword out of our Hands, and pushThat upon us. We have to defend us, that Weapon in Eph. 6. 16. The Sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; but when the Devil that that very Weapon to fight us with, he makes terrible work of it. When the Devil would poyfon men with false Dollrines, he'l quote Scriptures for them; a Quaker himself, will have the First Chapter of John always in his mouth. When the Devil would perswade men to wile Actions, hell quote Scriptures for them; he'l encourage men to go on in Sin, by showing them, where this faid, The Lordis rendy to Pardon I fay this, The one flory of Davids Fall, in the Scripture, has been made by the Devil an Engine for the Damnation of many Millions. The Devil will fright men from doing those things, that are, the Things of their Peace; but How? He'l turn a Scripring into a Scare-crow for them. The Devil will fright them from all constant Prayer to God, by quoting that Scripture, The Sacrifice of the Wicked, is an Abomination rothe Lord; the Devil will fright them from the Holy Supper of God, by quoting that Scripture, He that Eats and Drinks unworthily, Eats and Drinks danmation to himfelf. And thus the Devil will by fome abused Scripture, Terrific the Children of God; the Scripture is written as we are told, For our Comfort; but it is quoted by the Devil, for our terror! How many Godly Souls have been cast into finful Donbts and Fears, by the Devils foolish glosles upon that Scripture, He that doubts is Danmed; and that, the fear fut hall have their portion in the burning Lake : The Devil sometimes has played the Preacher, but I say, Beware all stilly Souls when faith a Foolis Preaching.

V. Grevious and Pulling Hurries to Self Murder are none of the smallest outrages, which the Devil in his Tempurous commits upon us. Why, did the Devil say to our Lord, Cast thy I'll down, but in hopesthat our Lord would have broke his Bones, in the fall? The Devil is an Old Murtherer; and he loves to Murder gives him so much satisfaction, as that which at his instigation, men perpetrate upon themselves. We fee that fuch as are Bewitched and Poffeffed by the Devil, do quickly lay violent hands upon themselves, if they be not watched continually, and we fee that when perfons have begun that Unnatural business of killing themselves, there is a Preternatural Stupendious Prodigions Affiftance, by the Devil given thereunto. When people are going to Harm themselves, we call upon them, like those to the Jailor, in Acts 16. 28. Do thy felf no harm! And we have this Argument for it, It is the Devil that is dragging of you to this mischief; but will you believe, will you obey such an one as the Devil is? What was it that made Judas to strangle himself? We read it was when the Devil was in him. I suppose there are few felf-murderers, but what are first very strangely fallen into the Devils hands; and possibly, 'tis by some Extraordinary Discontent, against God, or back-sliding from him, that the Devil first entred into those disturbed Souls. Indeed, some very great Saints of God, have fometimes had hideous Royls raifed by the Devil in their minds; untill they have e'en cry'd out with Job, I choofe strangling rather than Life; and sometimes the ill Humours or Vapours in the Bodies of fuch Good Men, do fo harbour the Devil that they have this woful motion every day thence made unto them; You must kill your self! you must! you must! But it is rarely any other than a Saul, an Abimelek, an Achirophél, or a Judas; rarely any other, than a very Reprobate, whom the Devil can drive, while the man is Compos Mentis, to Confimmate fuch a Villany. Yea, no Child of God, in his Right Senses can go fo far in this impiety, as to be left without all Time and Room for true Repentance of the Crime; 'tis thus done, by none but those that go to the Devil. A felf-murder, acted by one that is upon other accounts a Reasonable man, is but such an attempt of Revenge upon the God that made him, as none but one full of the Devil can be guilty of. If any of you are Dragoon'd by the Devil, unto the murdering of your felves, my Advice to you is, Disclose it, Reveal it, make it known immediately. One that Cut his own Throat among us, Expired crying out, O that I had told! O that I had told. You may spoil the Devil, if you'l Tell what he is a doing of.

VI. Presumptuou and Unwarrantable Trials of the Blessed God, are some of those things whereinto the Devil would fain hook us with his Temptations. This was that which the Devil would have brought our Lord unto, even, A tempting of the Lord our God. It is the charge of our God upon us, in Dem. 6. 16. Thou shalt not Tempt the Lord thy God. But that which the Devil Tries, is, to put us upon Trying in a sinful way, whether God be such a God as indeed he is.

Fistrue as to the ways of Obedience, our God fays unto us. Prove me, in those ways; Try, whether I won't be as good as my Word. But then there are ways of Prefumption, wherein the Devil would have us to trie, what a God it is, With whom we have to do. The Devil would have us to trie the Purpole of God, about our felves or others; but how? By going to the Devil hitafelt; by Confelting Adrologers, or Fortune Tellers; or perhaps by letting the Bible fall open, to see what is the first Sentence we light upon. The Devil would have us trie the Mercy of God, but how? By running into Dangers, which we have no call unto. He would have us trie the Power of God; but how? By looking for good things, withour the use of Means for the getting of them. He would have us trie the Justice of God; but how? By venturing upon Sin in a Corner, with an Imagination that God will never bring us out. He would have us trie the Promise of God; but how? By Limiting the Lord, unto fuch or fuch a way of manifelling Himfelf, or elfe believing of nothing at all. He would have us trie the Threatning of God; but how? By going on impenitently in those things, for which the Wrath of God comes upon the Children of Disobedience. Thus would the Devil have us to affront the Majesty of Heaven every

VII. The Temptations of the Devil, aim at puffing and bloating of us up, with Pride; as much perhaps as any one iniquity. The Devil would have had Our Lord make a Vain-glorious Discovery of himself unto the World, by Flying in the air, so as no mortal can. Hoc Ithacus velit-the Devil would have us to foar aloft, and not only to be above other men, but also to know that we are fo, Pride is the Devils own fin; and he affects especially to be, The King over the Children of Pride, it is a caution in 1 Tim. 3. 6. A Pastor must not be A Novice; Lest being lifted up with Pride. He fullinto the condemnation of the Devil. (Sammo ac Pio cum Tremore Hunc Textum Legamus nos Ministri Juvenes!) Accordingly, the Devil would have us to be inordinately taken and moved with what Excellencies our God has bestowed upon us. If our Elates rife, he would have us rife in our Spirits too. If we have been bleffed with Beauty, with Breeding, with Honour, with Success, with Attire, with Spiritual Priviledges, or with Praise-worthy Performances; Now lays the Devil, Think thy felf better than other Men. Yea, the Devil would have us arrogate unto our felves, thole Excellencies which really we never were owners of; and Boalt of a false Gift. He would have us moreover to Thirst after Applause among others that may see Our Excellencies ? and be impatient if we are not accounted fome-body. He would have us furthermore, to a pire after such a Figure, as God has never yet seen fitting for us; and croud into some High Chair that becomes us not. Thus would the Devil Elevate us into the Air, above our Neighbours; and why so! 'Tis that we may be punished with such Falls, as may make us cry out with David, O my Bones are broken to the my Falls! The Devil can't endure to see men lying in the Duit; because there is no falling the ice. He is a Fallen Spirit himself, and it pleafes him to see the Falls of men.

S. The Third of Our Lords Three Temptations, is related in such Terms as these. Matth. 4.8, 9. Again the Devil taketh him up, into an exceeding High Mountain, and sheweth him all the Kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them: and faith unto him, all these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and Worship me. From whence take these Remarks.

I. The Devil in his Temptations will fet the Delight of this world before us; but he'll fet a fair, and a falfe Varnish upon those Delights. They were some unknown Perfpettives, which the Devil had, both for the Refracting of the Medium, and for the Magnifying of the Objett, whereby he gave our Lord at once a profpect of the whole Roman Empire; but what was it? It was the World, and the Glory of it; he fays not a word of the World, and the Trouble of it. No fure; not a word of that; the Devil will not have his Hook fobarely expos'd unto us. The Devil fets off the Delights of Sin, which he offers unto us, with a firetched and railed R-herorick but he will not own, That in the midft of our Laughter, our Heart shall be forrowful; and That the end of our Mirth shall be Heaviness. There is but one Glass in the Spectacles, with which the Devil would have us to read, those passages in Eccles. 11. 9. Rejoyce, O young Man in thy youth, and let thy Heart chear thee in the Dayes of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thy Heart, and in the fight of thine Eyes. Thus far the Devil would have us to Read; and he'll make many a fine Comment upon it; he'll tell us, That if we'll follow the Courses of the World, we shall swim in all the Delights of the World. But he is not willing you should Read out the next words: But know thou, that for all thefe things God shall bring thee into Judgment. O he's loth we should be aware of the dreadful Iffues, and Reckonings that our Worldly Delights will be attended with. He fers before us, The Pleafures of Sin; but he will not fay, Thefe are but for a Seafon. He lets before us, The freet Waters of Stealth ? but he will not fay, There is Death in the Pot. He is a Mountebank, that will bestow nothing but Romantic Praises upon all that he makes us the Offers of an instrument and a self first good work II. There

II. There are most Hellish Blasphemies often buzz'd by the Temptations of the Devil, into the minds of the belt Men alive. What a most Execrable Thing was here laid before our Lord Himselt: Even, To own the Devil as God! a thing that can't be uttered, without unutterable Horror of Soul. The best man on earth, may have such Fiery Darts from Hell shot into his mind. One that was acted by the Devil, had the impudence to propound this unto such a good man as Job, Curfe God. And the Devil pleases himself, by chusing the Hearts of good men, with his base Injections, That there is no God, or, That God is not a Righteous God; and a thouland more such things, too Devilish to be mentioned. A good man is extreamly grieved at it, when he hears a Blasphemy from the mouth of another man; faid the Plalmift, in Pial. 44. 15, 16. My Confusion is continually before me, for the voice of him that Blasphemeth. But much more when a good man finds a Blasphemy in his own Heart; O it throws him into most Fevourish Agonies of Soul. For this caule, a mischievous Devil, will Flie blow the Heart of such a man, with such Blasphemous Thoughts, as make him crie out, Lord I am e'n weary of my life. Yea, the Devil serves the man just as the Miffress of Joseph dealt with him; he importunes the man to think wickedly from Day to Day; and if the man refuse, he cries out at last, Behold, what wicked thoughts this man has ledging in him. Sayst thou so? Satan! No, they are Braits of thy own; and at thy Door alone shall they be laid for ever.

III. There is a fort of Witchcrafts in those things, whereto the Temptations of the Devil would inveigle us. To worship the Devil is Witchcraft, and under that notion was our Lord urged unto fin. We are told in 1 Sam. 15. 23. Rebellion is as the fin of Witcheraft: When the Devil would have us to fin, he would have us to do the things which the forlorn Witches use to do. Perhaps there are few persons, ever allured by the Devil unto an Explicit Covenant with himfelf. If any among our felves be to, my councel is, that you hunt the Devil from you, with fuch words as the Plalmilt had, Be gone, Depart from me, ye evil Doers, for I will keep the Commandments of my God. But alas, the most of men, are by the Devil put upon doing the things that are Analogous to the worst ulages of Witches. The Devil lays to the finner, Despile thy Baptism, and all the Bond of it, and all the Good of it. The Devil fays to the linner, Come, call off the Authority of God, and refuse the Salvation of Christ. for ever. Yea, the Devil who is called, The God of this World, would have us to take Himfor Our God, and rather Hear Him, Trust Him, Serve Him, than the God that formed us.

IV. The Temptations of the Devil do Tug and Pull for nothing more, than that the Rulers of the World may yield Homageunto him. Our Lord has had this by his Father Engaged unto him, That he shall be one day be Governour of the Nations. The Devil doe's extreamly dread the approach of that Illustrious time, when The Kingdom of God shall come and his Will be done, as in Heaven, and on Earth. For this cause it was that he was desirous, Our Lord thould rather have accepted of him, that Kingdom, which Antichrift afterwards accepted of him, for the Establishment of Devil-worthin, in the World. I may tell you, The Devil is mighty unwilling that there should not be one Godly Magistrate upon the face of the Earth. Such is the influence of Government, that the Devil will every where flickle mightily, to have that fiding with him. What Relers would the Devil have, to command all mankind, if he might have his will? Even, fuch as are called in Pial. 94. 20. The torone of iniquity, which frames milchief by a Law ; fuch as will promote Vice, by both Counivance, and Evample: and fuch as will oppress all that shall be Hoby, and Just and Good. All men have cause therefore to be jealous, what Use the Devil may make of them, with reference to the Affairs of Govern ment; but Rulers may most of all think, that the Lord Jefirs from Heaven calls upon them, Satan has defired that he might Sift you, and have you; O Look to it, what fide you take.

Thus have you in the Temptations of our Lord, feen the principal of those Devices, which the Devil has to Entrap our Souls. But what shall we now do, that we may be fortised against those Devices? O that we might be well furnished with the Whole Armour of God! But me thinks, there were somethings attending the Temptations of our Lord, which would especially Recommend those sew Hints unto us for our Guard.

First, If you are not fond of Temptation, be not fond of Needless, or Too much Retirement. Where was it, that the Devil sell upon our Lord? it was when he was Alone in the Wilderness. We should all have our Times to be Alone every Day; and if the Devil go to scare us out of our Chambers, with such a Bugbear, as that hee'll appear to us, yet stay in spite of his teeth, hay to finish your Devotions; he Lyes, he dare not shew his head. But on the other-side by being too solitary, we may lay our selves too much open to the Devil; You know who says, Wo to him that is about.

Secondly, Let an Oracle of God be your desence against a Temptation of Hell. How did our Lord Silence the Devil? It was with an, It is written! And all his Three Citations were from that one Book of Deuteronomy. What a full Armoury then have we, in all the sacred Pages that lie before us? Whatever the Words of the Devil are, drown them with the words of the Great God. Say, It is Written. The Belhazzar of Hell will Tremble and Withdraw, if you show these Hand-writings of the Lord.

Lastly, Since the Lord Jesus Christ has conquered all the Temptations of the Devil, Flie to that Lord, Crie to that Lord, that He would give you a share in his Happy Victory. It was for Us that our Lord overcome the Devil: and when he did but say, Satan, Get hence, away presently the Tygre slew: Does the Devil molest Us? Then let us Repair to our Lord, who says, I know how to Succour the Tempted. Said the Psalmist, Psal. 61. 2. Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I. A Woman in this Land being under the Possession of Devils, the Devils within her, audibly spoke of divers Harms they would instict upon her; but still they made this answer, Ah! She Runs to the Rock! She Runs to the Rock! and that hindered all. O this Running to the Rock; it is the best Preservation in the World; the Vultures of Hell cannot prey upon the Doves in the Clefts of that Rock. May our God now lead us thercunto.

Thus have you in the Temptations of our Lord feet the
