

Robert L. Stone to Jacob Stone and Beatrice Stone

Nashville, Tennessee, 4 February 1943.

Postcard, 2 pages.

[Draft Created by Crowdsourcing]

Keep 'Em A. C.- 4

Flying!

LIGHTNING INTERCEPTOR

[2]

P.S. You can't write me yet as I have no address.

Dear Dad & Bee —

Just have a minute now before going to mess. Had a rather colorful trip down. We are now living in a barracks and I'm writing from my double-decker bunk. It's now about six in the morning and it's black as pitch out. Incidentally, it's pouring!

Love — Bob

A/C Bob Stone

A.A.F.C.C

Nashville, Tenn.

Lt. Comdr. J. C. Stone

375 Park Avenue

New York City

Notes:

Front of the postcard features an image of a flying plane against a blue sky background.