Monday Night

Dear Dad —

Have no time to write because we have a math test tomorrow. I do, however, want to answer a few questions from your letter I received today. First off, I plan to have a picture taken but as I've told you I've only been in Houston once. I'll get you one as soon as I get one taken which will probably in a week or so. O.K.?

You asked if I'd gotten the picture of you and Don and I wrote you a thank you letter upon receiving them. Didn't you get it? If not, again a million thanks for both. I thought the one of you was darn swell and the uniform is very handsome and most impressive! A million thanks, Dad. I didn't go to town Saturday but did go up to Galveston swimming again Sunday. Not very exciting but lots of fun [struck: bath] sunbathing and swimming. Haven't any more time now cause I've got to get studying. Many thanks for writing — I really appreciate you're being such a swell correspondent and writing so often. S'long. Lots of love —

Bob
