

Robert L. Stone to Jacob Stone

Childress, Texas, 11 October 1943.

Autograph letter signed, 2 pages + envelope.

[Draft Created by Crowdsourcing]

Monday Nite

Dear Dad —

Just a note to say it was swell to talk to you and Ken awhile ago. Was sorry you weren't home, Bee.

As I told you, Dad, they changed our schedule today, and this week it's as follows.

Reveille 1:30 (at night)

Breakfast 2:00

Flying 3:00 - 7:00

Dinner 7:30

Flying 8:30 - 10:30

Ground School 11:00 - 2:00

P.T. 2:00 - 3:00

Supper 4:00

Taps & To bed 6:00

If that isn't the worst schedule you've ever heard of getting up at 1:30 and going to bed at 6:00 in the evening. We have to have these terrible hours so that we can get all our bombs dropped before the 23rd. The bad weather got us way behind on our night bombs. Just wanted you to know what's what in case you don't hear from me all week. S'long now, I've got to get some shut eye.

[2]

Lots of love —

Bobby

[envelope]

A/C R.L. Stone 12120188

Class 43-13

Squadron 7 Flight D

Childress, Texas

Lt. Comdr. J.C. Stone

375 Park Avenue

New York City

N.Y.

Notes:

The letter is written on Army Air Forces, Bombardier School, Childress, Texas letterhead.