Dear Dad & Bee —

No particular news since I wrote two days ago. Today we're supposedly on pass but I'm so tired that I'm going to stay right on the post. Think I'll get a little sun at the pool this afternoon.

This past week we've been flying all hours of the day. They are trying to get in all our flying minimums as soon as possible.

Enclosed are a few snaps that I've had for some time. They're not too good but I thought you might like having them.

Write often.

All love —

Bobby
