

Robert L. Stone to Jacob Stone and Beatrice Stone

s.l., 31 December 1943.

Postcard, 2 pages.

[Draft Created by Crowdsourcing]

Earl Carroll's, the favorite gathering place of celebrities from stage and screen, is located in the heart of romantic Hollywood. The most distinctive theater in the world, luxuriously appointed, beautifully decorated, with its all-star cast, outstanding scenes, and sixty of the most beautiful girls in the world adorning the lavish stage revue, is a MUST on your list of the best in entertainment. Dance to two famous orchestras, watch a CBS broadcast, and dine on superb dishes created by world-renowned chefs. And the cost is remarkably little. $3.30 includes your deluxe dinner or only $1.65 without dinner. When you visit Earl Carroll's you are welcome to come early, stay late, and never buy a drink unless you want to. Evening clothes are not required, and you may come unescorted. Visit Earl Carroll's for a breathtaking, memorable theater experience!

Dear Dad & Bee —

This is the first day I've been off the post since we've been out here. Having dinner here with a bunch of the boys. It's really great to get off the field etc. for a few hours.

Love — Bobby

[2]

TYRA VAUGHN

EARL CARROLL THEATRE RESTAURANT

The Glamour Spot of Glamourous Hollywood..!

Lt. Comdr. J.C. Stone

375 Park Avenue

New York City

N.Y.

Notes:

Image of actress Tyra Vaughn on the front left side of the postcard (page 2).