Friday Nite

Dear Dad & Bee —

I haven't anything in the way of news but I just thought of something for you to give Don for his birthday. I remember that he was looking for a good wallet when we were in Chicago. He has one but it's fairly well worn out. This is just a thought and I know you wanted a suggestion for Don's birthday. I'd have gotten him a wallet when I heard him mention it except that I'd already gotten him something.

Spent the evening with Ronnie and Doug last night. I really envy Ronnie who is flying East tomorrow night. I'd love to be making the trip with her even though I was just home.

I haven't heard from you since I got back and I'm wondering if you've received my various letters with the changes of address.

How goes all with you, Dad? I hope your blood pressure troubles are a thing of the past and you're back on the job again.

Write soon.

Love —

Bobby
