Dear Dad & Bee —

Just a few lines to say that I believe I'm finally on a new crew. As yet I haven't met the fellows because it just came out on orders yesterday. I'll write all details next week.

The weather out here is most summery and beautiful. I have a wonderful tan from the five or six times I've played tennis and swam. Two days ago the mercury hit a high of 97°.

The Grapevine arrived this morning and was certainly lots newsier than ever before. It always brings back many pleasant memories to receive the Grapevine. I think the list of addresses was a clever idea.

Many thanks for your letter earlier in the week Dad, and your long message two days ago, Bee.

All love — Bobby
