Dear Dad —

Enclosed is an insurance slip for my good watch which I sent home. It has been losing alot of time every day and I wish you would take it to a good jeweler for an overhaul. I haven't had anything done to it in over two years and perhaps it needs to be cleaned.

I have another issued wrist watch so there's no hurry on it. Maybe I ought to have you keep it for me anyway. I'll write you later if I want it.

Must run now.

All love —

Bobby
