

Whites Join Negro Protest, March 6, 1965

Image

(SEX) SELMA, ALA., March 6--WHITES JOIN NEGRO PROTEST--A group of about 50 whites marched on Selma, Ala. court house today displaying signs in sympathy with Negro voter registration demonstrations. The Negroes have been protesting for the last 7 weeks in Dallas and surrounding counties against registration practices. The group of whites called themselves the "concerned white citizens of Alabama." (AP Wirephoto) (HC71640stf) 65

Associated Press, Whites join negro protest, March 6, 1965.
(The Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History, GLC09734.03)