Dear Mr Hill

Your letter came at a very good time. When Thordon was run so much better and we knew that Archie would have a complete recovery from his wounds.

Thordon was able to make the opening speech of the Maine campaign so I met with him as far as Boston and saw Mrs Hill and Mollie, - which was most satisfactory.

To enjoy you for your part in the world war - There are doubtless those who are glad that the war is three thousand miles away, but for those who do not feel that war life is not easy - We are happy that Kermit has got his transfer from the B. E. F. in Mesopotamia to the A. E. F. in France - The hill is peopled with grandchildren, which keeps us all busy - I wish I had any news, but ~~nothing better to write~~ nothing about - Is there any thing I can possibly do for you? Would you care for any occasional book or magazine - They boys seem to get them when I send them to their bankers - Dear love from Theodore Edith Kermit Roosevelt
