

INSTRUCTIONS: Please use this activity sheet in connection with the Hamilton Cast Read Along session listed below. The activity sheet can be completed during or after watching the Read Along. Students may use the space provided or their own materials to answer the questions.

A Ride to Remember

BY SHARON LANGLEY AND AMY NATHAN (Authors) and FLOYD COOPER (Illustrator)

Published by Abrams Books for Young Readers

READ BY: Ashley De La Rosa (Peggy Schuyler/Maria Reynolds, North American Tour)

THEME: Making History: Although this story is about the civil rights movement, there are connections we can make to the present and how we can all be a part of “making history.” Please keep this theme in mind when completing the activity sheet.

CONNECTION TO SELF

1. Sharon Langley helped to make history. How are you a history maker?

CONNECTION TO TEXT

2. Using the events of the story, create a timeline of 4 important Civil Rights events from when Gwynn Oak Park was opened to the March on Washington.
3. Write a thank you letter to Sharon Langley for her courage. Tell her about something courageous you have done or hope to do.

CONNECTION TO CAST

4. Ashley De La Rosa spoke about how she was passionate about climate change. What is an issue that is important to you?

Thank you for participating in Hamilton Cast Read Alongs! We encourage you to share this activity sheet with us by email at hamilton@gilderlehrman.org.
