

Name-

Date-

The Preamble to the Declaration of Independence	The Preamble to the Declaration of Independence
We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal,	What fact does Jefferson say is obvious?
that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,	Who had given people rights that cannot be taken away?
that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.	What are those guaranteed rights?
That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men,	How do we make sure we keep those rights?
deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.	Who gives the government its power?
That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of those ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and institute a new Government,	When a government does not protect the people's rights what can the people do?
laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.	What should be the purpose of this new government?

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.	What should you be careful not to do? What has history shown people are willing to endure? What don't people want to do? What must people do when the government keeps taking away and abusing their rights? What must a new government provide?
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------